

PREFACE
TO THE FOURTH EDITION.

---

THE following Narrative is one of real life. The object of the Authoress in presenting it to the public is to encourage those to persevere who are left to depend upon their own exertions. She has endeavored to present it in language that will have a moral and religious influence upon the minds of those who may peruse it.

This is the sincere wish of

THE WRITER,