

eyes. I don't know what is coming next. She is liable to slip out from under my eye at any time and fly away to meet him somewhere else. I telegraphed this message to Grover & Dickhut :

" He has gone. She still here. What shall I do ?

" Got this answer :

" Stay there and watch. They suspect you. Don't let her get away.

" But how the devil am I to watch day and night ? "
