

real and personal property remaining, shall be publicly sold, unless the contrary be ordered at a general meeting. The reasonable costs and expenses of the settlement shall be allowed to the principal Partners. The books and papers of the Company shall remain in the hands of the principal Partner whose name shall stand first in that taken by the Company, who shall be held at all times to give communication thereof to all parties interested, unless the contrary be agreed upon at a general meeting.

In witness whereof, we have signed.

Montreal, 12th February, 1835.

PROOF
FOR THE PRESS