

At a meeting of the standing Committee, held at the Grand Jury room, on the 10th of Oct. 1826, agreeably to the regulations.

PRESENT,

The Venerable Archdeacon Stuart,	}	Vice Presidents.
John Kirby,
Thomas Markland, Esqrs.
John Macaulay,	}	Members of Committee
Christopher A. Hagerman,
James Atkinson, Esqrs.
The Rev. Mr. Tunney,
David John Smith, Esq. Treasurer.
Donald Bethune,	}	Secretaries.
John S. Cartwright, Esqrs.

Mr. Cartright reported that he had reported upon Mr. Baxter, and that he had accepted the office of Depository, and permitted the books to be deposited in the Public School House.

It appearing that the sum of Thirty-seven pounds (including the Twenty pounds collected on the seventeenth day of September last) has been collected.

It was resolved that the Secretaries immediately acquaint the Rev. Mr. Morgell with it.

That the Secretaries be directed to write to the Clergymen in the different parts of the district and request them to solicit subscriptions and donations.

That the Treasurer procure books for himself and Secretaries.

That the proceedings be printed and a copy sent to each member.

D. BETHUNE,
JOHN S. CARTWRIGHT,
Secretaries.