THE CONVENTIONALISTS

and erect, looking after us; and the sight of her hurt me like a knife. Yet, for the first and last time in my life I blessed God for His gift of Conventionalism. It had saved three persons that afternoon from irremediable disaster.

l voice

me the

nd then

ring the

d more
r head
ddenly
I heard

like a se, but; and b. He

he old e some

ush to hand

ant to

ely. e said,

d and glance onless