SHE CURED HER HEART DISEASE

When She Cured Her Kidneys With Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Henry J. Jacques Found a Speedy Relief for All Her Troubles, and Now Enjoys the Best of Health.

ST. ROSE DU LAC, Man., Jan. 27.—(Special).—That Heart Disease is one of the results of disordered kidneys, and is consequently easily cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, is the experience of Mrs. Henry J. Jacques of this place. "My heart troubled me all the time," said Mrs. Jacques in an interview, "and I knew what terrible results might follow. The fact that my limbs would swell and my back ache led me to believe that I also suffered from Heart Disease, so I determined to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I bought four boxes, and before I had finished the third box the swelling was gone, my back was well, and my heart no longer troubled me. I am now in the best of health, and I owe it all to Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Heart Disease is one of the troubles that come from unhealthy kidneys. They fail to strain the impurities out of the blood, and these impurities are bound to affect the heart, which is the engine that propels the blood through the body. To cure Heart Disease, cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills; to prevent Heart Disease keep the kidneys toned up and healthy by using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NORTHERN ONTARIO NOT DEPENDENT ON MINES

Gratifying Statement of Increased Earnings by T. and N. O. Railway.

One of the most progressive votes of the present session of the Ontario Legislature will be one of $1,500,000 for the extension and standardizing of the T. & N. O. Railway. It has now a mileage of 340.78 miles.

Chairman Engelhart said yesterday that "notwithstanding the advent of the power companies, concentrating on ores, settling down of Cobalt to normal mining conditions, the receipts from passengers and freight traffic have increased, demonstrating that the great northland has come to stay, dispelling the thought, frequently expressed, that if it were not for the mining industry the future success of the railway would be in doubt."

This revenue account for 1909 and 1910 is as follows:

	1910.	1909.
Revenue from transportation	$1,502,020.05	$1,489,153.93
Revenue of other than transportation	69,831.97	80,541.36
Total operating revenue	$1,571,852.02	$1,569,695.29

Cobalt's Output $14,500,000.

Cobalt's mines produced silver worth $14,500,000 during 1910, according to Arthur A. Cole, mining engineer of the T. & N. O. Commission. Since 1904, when the first shipments were made, their total value amounts to $47,348,886. Nearly 50 per cent. of this amount has been repaid to shareholders in dividends. Cobalt produced over 13 per cent. of the world's silver in 1910. Mr. Cole says that the preparations "portend a year of great activity in the district, which the rosy results obtained in 1910 seem to amply justify."

TRY ZAM-BUK FOR PILES

Read How This Sufferer Benefitted!

Don't you believe that experience is better than hearsay? If you suffer from piles, just try Zam-Buk. You can do so at our expense. So assured are we of the result that we will send you a free trial box if you send to our Toronto offices full name and address and a one cent stamp to pay return postage.

Scores of people daily acquaint us with the benefit they have derived from the use of Zam-Buk. Mr. P. Astridge of 3 St. Paul-street, St. Catharines, Ont., says: "For five years I have suffered untold agony with protruding piles. The pain was so great at times I would almost starve."

"I lost weight and had no appetite. I tried everything I ever heard of for piles, as I was willing to take anything to get relief. It was useless, however, and I almost gave up in despair."

"One day a friend gave me a sample of Zam-Buk, and told me of a friend of his who had been cured. I decided to try Zam-Buk, and the relief I got was encouraging. I used three boxes, and at the end of that time I was completely cured. I wish I could have saved me a great deal of misery."

Revival Meeting in West Toronto

"We are casting our lines where there are no fish," was the ready-thought serious greeting given by Dr. William Patterson to your scribes.

"There is a skating rink not far away, where young people are going," another explained, "and told him so," said a third, "Victoria Church is not a place to hear well."

But the church, choir and pulpit looked to a visitor like a most promising time for winning souls. One knows, however, the feeling of a party who have spent the day and had everything but night. The Christian men and women of the uniting churches in West Toronto were fairly well represented. They could also have nearly all sat down to the "breaking of bread," for they were His disciples. They were down the stream.

Why have the shoals of unsaved men and women gone by the Gospel boat during all these meetings? A brace of ragged hummers might embarrass the ushers on an average Sunday, but they would have been a "good seed" for the evangelists. A Mary Magdalene have received a cold shoulder. For a month a stock of medicine had been ruled out of court. It has catered deliberately to the needs of the King's servants.

It is known, however, that multitudes go down regularly to Massey Hall. There have been two hundred cards signed at Victoria Church, and eight several raised their hands. Thus the mission is partially successful. Were it not for the local medicine, smaller chance would be offered at the centre for the unsaved to attend. Christ's medicine is here, and the increase, the not indicating that the town has been swept with evangelism will strengthen the King's forces.

Mr. W. W. Weaver gets the best out of his choir. He has once, last week, sung a hymn for the living water of the old wells of hymnology. One out of the choir last night, a young man, was not ashamed to own his Lord in the presence of the multitude. The solo was graciously offered to a brother evangelist, Mr. McBratney, who sang with much feeling. He has a fine voice, and would have affected the audience greater had it been rendered in the stirring sermon on "Blind Bartimaeus and the Rich Young Ruler."

Fishermen are born, not made. This is true whether you go up the creeks with a rod or down the streets with a Bible. William Patterson needs no introduction in the city, where many of his rich and noble places to see that his eye is not dimmed or his natural force of eloquence abated. He is a preacher of men. Now sit back and hear him.

"Both the blind man and the rich were unhappy. He caught the blind man's eye. He is the embodiment of sympathy. "People say that we ought to go and help the poor in business or politics. When the blind man began to shout for Jesus of Nazareth, they were silent. Now sit back and hear him."

This stirs the feeling. His big frame and powerful voice in the pulpit would defend a man shouting for salvation to-night. "What opened his eyes? Christ said it was his faith. He himself said Jesus did it. He had a bit of his sure-footed Jesus."

"What drew a Pullman car? The poor man's faith that linked the Light of the World to his life. "I am not here to talk like a Junius against money," he said, "but with the rich man, Abraham was rich. It is power; it gives eyes to the blind and money to the poor. And his 13th might have reached the Central Prison. "Jesus was he said at length. In the meantime he had chased the fish out of all their possible hiding holes. He would save them from the sharks. But, as stated above, the ninety and nine were safe."

The impression that lingers with one is that some of the audience of Christian people and their pastors mean business. They confess that they have not had the expected results. But it is not now that the King, the Master, the Father, is again saying: "Cast in at the other side." There have been the big men, the ministers and his officials, the local church and its workers. When the King's business means to all disciples, the preaching is in vain, the nets will not be cast in vain.

Music Notes

The famous pianist, Arthur Friedheim, will positively appear in recital in Massey Hall on the evening of Monday, March 13, when his program will contain many great compositions of Liszt and Chopin.

The New York Evening Post of Dec. 19, 1910, says: "Friedheim's herculean playing brought to mind his earlier teacher, Rubinstein, in its overwhelming sweep and powerful command. Such playing as they heard Saturday is rare, and always will be rare. It was wonderful."

The first of the weekly Saturday afternoon recitals on the new organ in the Metropolitan Church will be given to-day at 4 o'clock by Mr. H. A. Wheelton, Miss. Bac. Cantab., F.R.C.O. A large attendance is expected in view of the fact that at the formal opening last Monday evening the church was crowded and many were unable to gain admittance. The program will be: 1. Overture, "Friedheim's III." Germany; 2. Cavatina, Wheelton; 3. Sonata (part I), Salome; 4. Ave Maria, Arcadelt; 5. Fantasia, "Romeo and Juliet," Svendsen; 6. Marche aux Flambeaux, Rubinstein; 7. Barcarolle, Offenbach; 8. Toccata, Hignie; 9. When I am an old man, giving recitals, daily from 12 to 1, except Saturdays. Admission to all recitals will be free, with no collection.

At the Y.W.C.G. Professor Coleman will give an illustrated lecture at the Y.W.C.G. Guild to-night at 8.15 on "The Rocky Mountain Trail."

The Y.W.C.G. Guild will again be visited by Mrs. Asher to-morrow afternoon at 4.15. This will be Mrs. Asher's last meeting with them during the evangelistic campaign. Tea will be served in the parlors.

Perpetual Motion.

What has become of perpetual motion? That is a question being frequently asked, and seldom is there a reply. There was a time when a long-tongued man with a perpetual motion idea could get respectful hearing in scientific and financial circles, and if he were plausible enough, obtain financial backing. Keeley, the motor man, lived in affluence for years on a perpetual motion idea attractively presented to men and women who had both money and an overstock of credulity. Nowadays, however, the men with the perpetual motion idea is at a discount, and little is heard of him. Many persons who have studied the efforts of shrewd men to get into the pockets of the rich by using perpetual motion schemes at the golden key wonder that Keeley should have met with such success at such a late date. As early as 1791 the Parisian Academy of Sciences refused to receive any further schemes for perpetual motion, regarding it as an impossibility. It was admitted then, states The New York Press, that there had been a time when the perpetual motion problem was worthy the attention of philosophers and men of inventive genius, just as there was a time when it was an open question whether the earth was round or flat.

Wages of Flight.

Last year was the golden year of the professional flying men. They charged high, and their takings compared well with the gains of opera singers and successful oldtime horse jockeys. Graham White is said to have taken in $100,000 in the two months that included the show at Belmont Park. Paulhan, who was earning the same sum in the course of a year, which is a good rise from the mechanic's wages which he was getting before he began to fly. At these rates the airman business must be profitable. The drawback is the risk, but it is a sporting risk, and there will be no lack of takers if it whether the wages of flight are high or low. No doubt flying shows will be cheaper presently. The better the air men keep up, flippantly remarks Life, the more their wages will come down.

Part of the Role.

"Shall we make as millionaires or as foreign dukes at the hotel?" "As the latter, my boy. As millionaires we might be expected to display some evidence of wealth. But as dukes, nobody can possibly take it amiss if we skip."—Kansas City Journal.

Cure Your CATARRH Now!

Take it in hand at once. If you don't get rid of Catarrh now, in the fall, there's certain peril ahead, for you'll meet the extreme cold weather coming with your system terribly weakened and undermined by this treacherous, poisonous trouble. Remember—if you keep on neglecting Catarrh, later on it's sure to mean danger—disease—perhaps Death itself.

It's a horribly loathsome disease—is Catarrh. It makes you an object of disgust to your friends—though they're usually too kind to tell you so. As a matter of fact your hawking and spitting and constant nose-blowing fairly make them sick. They turn away nauseated by your foul, fetid breath. Such things hurt you tremendously, not only at home, but also with outsiders—with the people you meet in daily life.

But Catarrh is more than a loathsome trouble—it's a fearfully dangerous one. People make a terrible mistake in saying "Only Catarrh," it isn't "Only Catarrh"—it's CONSUMPTION, if you don't stop it in time. Once the minute, abnormally active and poisonous Catarrh germs get in your lungs, there's no home whatever for you. You're doomed to a Consumptive's grave—unless you stop it now!

Cure your Catarrh now before it becomes Consumption. Don't be discouraged if other doctors or the widely advertised so-called "Catarrh remedies" have failed to help you. Seek aid at once from one who thoroughly understands all about Catarrh and its cure. Accept the generously proffered help of Specialist Sproule, B.A., Graduate in Medicine and Surgery, Dublin University, Ireland, formerly Surgeon British Royal Mail Naval Service, the great Catarrh Specialist known the world over.
