HAMILTON CARPENTERS TO GO ON STRIKE TC-DAY

Both Sides Confident of Victory-Will Stop Work at 9 a.m. Unless Increases Are Granted.

HAMILTON, April 30.-(Special.)-To-morrow is the day set for the carpenters of the city to go on strike for an increase in wages. The men are apparently determined to force the issue with the bosses, but a preminent contractor stated to The World tonight that there is no possible chance of any concession being made to the carpenters, and that the contractors expect an early surrender if the men do lay down their tools. The unions there seems no possibility of the strike being averted. The men have been

This resolution will contain the board's finding in the civic investigation, which was held on Friday, and the chances are that the council will be asked to ratify the board's action in cutting off the official head of some one in the city ongineer's department. It is rumored, however that a' resignation may be laid before the controllers in the morning, which will charge the nature of the board's execution.

Work Among Lumbermen. Wm. Henderson, superintendent of the Shantymen's Christian Association, spoke of his work among the lumbermen of Ontario to-night in the Central Presbyterian Church. He sai: there were 150,000 men in lumber and construction cumps of Canada who seldom saw a Protestant missionary. Some had not seen one for twenty years. They spend nearly all their money in drink. In one camp where the wages had been $38,000, in one week efter pay day the banks had received $32,000 deposits from botels epers.

At Barton-street, Methodist Church, Rev. J. W. Aikers, field secretary for temperance and moral reform, spoke in the mening on "The Home in Relation to Social Problems." He said the home trained future citizens to respect laws, and was the authority which was fundamental to patienal which was fundamental to national life. # PRINTERS' CLUB AGAIN REFUSED A LICENSE

Ministers Strongly Opposed Renewed Application-No Canvassing by Liquor Shops.

Despite the fact that a number of members and others appeared to tell the license commissioners at their spe-cial meeting Saturday afternoon that the club had been conducted in a quiet and proper manner, the board decided that they would not again renew the license. Chief License Inspector Johnson was dead against the renewal and carried his point. For the club it was urged that the conduct of an earlier steward had been lax, but that he had been removed and a reliable are confident of victory, however, and he had been removed and a reliable
