There should be some of the cabinet aterial in this short list of names of U. F. O. leaders. But before proceeding it is as well to admit at once that the U. F. O. realizes it found most of its brains and energy in J. J. Morrison, secretary-treasurer of the organization, who worked night and day spreading the U. F. O. gospel and carrying everywhere with him the tenacious purpose of the reformer with the real sense of political duty coupled with intelligence of a high order and plenty of practical common sense. Mr. Morrison was born in the township of Peel, the son of a north of Ireland Presbyterian immigrant, edu-Ireland Presbyterian immigrant, edu-cated in the public school, and immersed both in politics and farming from the age of fourteen. J. J. Morrison is one of the best informed men in the province, sincere, likeable and candid, and an aggressive and effective public speaker.

While all are farmers, as has been said, the learned professions are to have some representation in the U.F.O. In the first place an attorney-general must be provided, and he must be a lawyer, because our ideas of responsible government cannot allow a lay attorneygeneral to retain legal advisers. There is no lawyer among the U.F.O. memhers-elect, and a seat will necessarily have to be found for a barrister. This point has not, it is well understood, been discussed in the caucus so far and will not be broached until after the sedon Waldron has been the legal adviser of the party, holds the confidence of all its members, and enjoys a reputation at the bar that measures up to every requirement of the office of attorney-general. If he should be called to the cabinet the general public would have reason to be well satisfied.

The medical profession alone emerges from the revolution against party government with the distinction of having one of its members in the ranks of the U.F.O. This is Dr. George M. Leeson of Varney (South Grey), whose high achievement is the defeat of Dr. Jamieson, the speaker, a gentleman held in to whom cabinet rank was apparently assured, and who attended the frequently referred to Eugenia picula more in the referred-to Eugenia picnic more in the character of one who condescends rather than aspires. Fur Fashions

Canadian Fox

Black Fox is one of the tashionable furs this season—it will be worn mostly in neck-pieces and muffs—it is a full, warm fur, and the long, soft, warm fur, and the long, glossy hair appeals to ladies who desire to wear something not too expensive and yet drossy and serviceable. There is nothing nicer than a Black Fox set for young ladies attending college or seminary. The Dineen Co. made up a variety of styles in these handsome skins.

The animal scarf with muff to match is a prominent feature of the collection. The prices for those sets start at $75.00 and up to $250.00.

Also Taupe, Cinnamon, Lucille, Georgette, Yucon, White and Cross Fox—This collection is superior to any we have ever shown, and prices are very moderate considering the very high prices for all skins.

Rev. Peter Bryce, who has just been appointed organizer of Toronto con ference for the Methodist nations campaign, has been the pastor of the Methodist churches of Earlscourt for many years, and is responsible for the success of the work in the Central Methodist Church. To The World Mr. Bryce said: 'I have nearly finished 14 years' work in the Earlscourt district, and have watched the growth from the early days when there were very few houses and practically no stores: when the streets were mess of mud and when poverty existed all around. I have seen the British settlers when they came to Earlscourt eight or nine years ago to build their homes of one two, and three rooms, until they could afford to make their
