Woman's World...

Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers.
Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

A subject which is absorbing the attention of the National Council of Women just now is the condition of the Donkhor women of the Northwest. There are in all something like 5000 of these women, and Mrs. FitzGibbon, who has personally visited and studied them, gives them a most pleasing reputation. She says they are honest, industrious women, who have as great an abhorrence of charity as men have of killing their fellow-men. They do the most beautiful drawn work and embroidery and weave a very fine quality of linen, and when necessary, as it has been done this year, they can go out and break the ground, till it and gather the crops. Canadians have been particularly horrified at the idea of women, yoked together like oxen, working in the fields, but it would seem that their doing this was a credit to the Donkhor women. There is a surplus of women among the Donkhor women, owing to the fact that the strong young men have been killed in the Russo-Japanese war, and the women, who were left behind, have been particularly horrified at the idea of women, yoked together like oxen, working in the fields, but it would seem that their doing this was a credit to the Donkhor women. There is a surplus of women among the Donkhor women, owing to the fact that the strong young men have been killed in the Russo-Japanese war, and the women, who were left behind, have been particularly horrified at the idea of women, yoked together like oxen, working in the fields, but it would seem that their doing this was a credit to the Donkhor women.

But the subject which is being given immediate attention by the Women's Council is the unkind condition of the women of the Donkhor, or the heads of the Donkhor villages—forty-nine in all—are very verse to receiving charity, preferring to work for any help that is given them, and they have asked for no assistance. But their reputation for sterling honesty has been so much enhanced by the fact that they have been able to support themselves, that the women of the National Council have been asked to contribute to a fund for the Donkhor women. The fund is for an indefinite period of two or three years, and will be expended in the purchase of bales of woolen cloth, blankets, spinning wheels, raw wool, etc., for the Donkhor women, to put them through the winter, and to give them the means of work throughout the winter. Linen and silks will also be sent for embroidery work, and this work, when completed, will be received by Mrs. FitzGibbon, valued and sold by the various local councils through out the Dominion, the money thus received being forwarded to the treasurer for the Dominion, Mrs. Dignam. It is expected that the money thus earned, together with the money refunded by the various local councils, will be sufficient to support the Donkhor women for the winter. By some practical means, such as kind work, the money will be paid off next year by the Donkhor women, who have been persecuted people has met with the cordial sympathy of the women of Canada, and many of our prominent men have not waited to be asked, but have already been allowed to contribute to the fund.

At a meeting which was held yesterday morning in the Queen's Hotel a large number of the officers of the local Councils discussed this interesting topic and the best means of setting to work. Among those present were: Lady Taylor, in the chair; Miss Carter, Mrs. FitzGibbon, Mrs. Dignam, Mrs. Farrar, Mrs. McKinnon of Brantford, Lady Thompson, Mrs. Wainwright, Mrs. Milnes, Mrs. Lozier, Miss Rowland, Miss Cox, Dr. Dymond.

At the annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Dominion Bank, held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade Building, Mr. J. B. Laidlaw presided and arrangements were made for the winter's work.

NINE HOURS MAKES ONE DAY

Council Adopts Spence's Motion to Thus Limit a Day's Work on All Civic Jobs.

ALD. HANLAN WAKES QUITE WROTH.

One Alderman He Calls a "Thing," and Another a "Whelp"—Firemen for New City Hall Positions.

Yesterday's Council meeting was presided over by Ald. Lamb in the absence of the Mayor. His words were apparently mysteriously disappeared, as no one seemed to know where he was or why he was absent.

As soon as order was called, Ald. Saunders moved, seconded by Ald. Lamb, that the Council authorize the City Solicitor to take the necessary steps to secure a postponement for 30 days of the application made to the Privy Council at Ottawa by the Metropolitan Street Railway Company for permission to connect their line by a switch with the Canadian Pacific Railway at North Toronto.

The motion was carried without any discussion with the exception of the fact that Ald. Spence said that the resolution he had moved was a "thing," and another a "whelp." The motion was then taken on the suspension of the rule to admit the motion, and was lost by 10 to 9, and the resolution was lost.

The division was as follows:

Yes: Ald. Bowman, Dunn, Frankland, R. H. Graham, Hanlan, Hubbard, Russell, Saunders, Spence—10.

Nays: Ald. Burns, Crane, Davies, Frame, Lamb, Lynd, Scott, Sheppard, Wood—9.

Ald. Bowman is sore.

Ald. Bowman asked permission to read a letter from E. Boisseau & Co., Ltd., of London, England, who are the sole agents for the Dominion of the City of London.

He was very indignant about it, as the motion was a "thing," and another a "whelp." The motion was then taken on the suspension of the rule to admit the motion, and was lost by 10 to 9, and the resolution was lost.

Direct Insult.

Ald. Hanlan had no sooner said when he jumped Ald. Spence, fairly boiling over with anger at the remarks about the workman's movement, than he was met by a direct insult, he said, "to every honest workman in Toronto, and Ald. Saunders' proposition that Ald. Spence should be taken to the hospital."

Anger and Whelp.

Ald. Hanlan was sent to the face with rage when he was told that he had been accused of insulting the workmen.

Every man, woman and child who has been thundered forth, "knows that Hanlan is a friend and supporter of the workman's movement, and it is not to be expected that he would make such a 'whelp' as that—(pointing to Ald. Hubbard)—"He is a whelp."

Ald. Saunders also stoutly denied that he had insulted Ald. Spence, and said that he had no intention of doing so.

Ald. Hanlan, however, was in no mood to withdraw anything he had said; on the contrary, it looked very much as if he were ready to repeat it.

The Report Adopted.

Ald. Saunders then withdrew his resolution to refer the report back for legal advice and the recommendation was adopted.

In the Assessment Commissioner's report information was conveyed to Council that the city had sold a small triangular lot on the corner of Garden and Sunnyside avenues for $300.

Ald. Dunn was immediately upon his feet and maintained that the land had been sold for far less than it was worth. The Assessment Commissioner's action, however, after considerable talk, was endorsed by Council.

Exceeded Their Allowance.

Ald. Frankland wanted an explanation of how it was that extra money had been given to experts to report upon the plans for the new market improvements.

Ald. Burns explained that a little extra money had necessarily been spent, but assured him that the same will be paid to the market would be done properly and within the appropriation, viz., $150,000.
