

Blue Ribbon
Canton Tea

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

MR. MONK BARRISTER

Borden's Gifted Lieutenant Given an Ovation by the Conservatives

HE DISCUSSED IMPERIAL ISSUES

In Future Wars Canada Would

Not Be a Victim

Montreal, Nov. 18.—The banquet given at the Queen's Hotel to Mr. F. D. Monk, M.P., Quebec leader, was a magnificent success, and the speaker, who is the member for Jacques Cartier, was certainly indicative of the representative following that is ranging itself behind Mr. Borden's lieutenant.

Mr. Monk's speech was a powerful effort. He referred to the talk of imperialism in a constitutional manner. He believed the colonies and the Mother Country had a common destiny, and said that no one dreamed of Canadian representation at Westminster, except Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Tarte.

Speaking of the contingent, he said that the act of the Minister in sending troops to South Africa it would be better in the future to have the order come from the people through their Parliament. He did not believe that there would ever be a dream of taking away from the colonies that sacred right of self-government, and, as for future imperial wars, he believed that the Canadian people would realize and appreciate their duty. They would know how far to go, how much to do and when to do it.

He extolled Sir Charles Turpin, and said that the great project of a preference within the Empire was worthy of the thoughtful study of Canadian business men.

Mr. Monk was loudly cheered when he said "We will raise our tariff against all those who raise theirs against us."

CANADA WILL DO IT.

Mr. Mulock Arranges to Take Care of U.S. Mails to Alaska.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Postmaster-General William Mulock of Canada has been named by the Postmaster-General of the United States to take charge of the transportation of the United States mails across Canadian territory for Alaska after July 1 next.

MONTREAL TO NEW YORK.

Grand Trunk Railway Arranging for a Fast Service.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—An important rearrangement of the Grand Trunk service, in connection with the Delaware and Hudson Company, between Montreal and New York, is to be made forthwith.

The change is, it is understood, to be of a far-reaching character, and will amount to such a consolidation of the joint services as will enable the companies concerned to run the train from the Canadian metropolis to the Empire City of the United States, of the quality and speed of the International Limited, the Grand Trunk fast express to Chicago.

MISS STONE HEARD FROM.

Health Affected—Brigade Demand Freedom From Prosecution.

Soda, Nov. 18.—A woman who has been recovered from Miss Ellen M. Stone. Her health has been somewhat affected by her confinement and hard fare, but she expresses herself as still confident of a complete recovery.

Mr. Stone, diplomatic agent of the United States at Soda, replying to his proposals concerning a ransom, says the brigades will hold on for a figure from which should be taken Mr. Dickinson's command. The brigades interpret Mr. Dickinson's not having fixed on the sum he is willing to pay—and a time limit as a concession, and that he can get more money. They also demand immunity from prosecution.

CREW'S AWFUL SUFFERING.

Scarcely Clad They Clung to Rigging for 36 Hours.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 18.—Further details of the sufferings of the crew of the barkentine steamer "Titanic" from St. John's, which was wrecked Saturday morning in a dense fog near Cape Race, have been received here.

During the 36 hours of Saturday and Sunday in which they were washed to the ship's rigging, they were absolutely without clothing excepting their shirts and drawers.

Their rescue was effected with great difficulty; three men from shore succumbed at the risk of their lives, in aiding the shipwrecked men to land.

Boatwain Williams, who was drowned, became impaled at the point in reaching the shore, and, driven by his swimming, plunged into the sea and tried to swim to land.

His lifeless body was thrown high against the cliffs.

AN AUSTRALIAN ANOMALY.

Sydney, Nov. 18.—Mr. Kingston, replying to a question in the Federal Parliament, stated that Norfolk Island, which is inhabited chiefly by descendants of the convicts of the Bounty, is not included in the Commonwealth, the admitted integral part of New South Wales, in which the islands possess the franchise. In consequence of this anomaly proposals from the island are subject to the tariff.

A TASK FOR ROSEBERY.

London, Nov. 18.—Mr. George McCrea, M.P., addressing a meeting of his constituents in the Eastern Division of Edinburgh, said a special commissioner should be sent out to South Africa to arrange on the spot the terms of settlement. This is a limited offer, only good while our seven-year supply lasts. At ordinary prices the same goods would cost at least $11. Fred Armstrong, 277 Queen Street West.

Get It at Your House.

The Sunday World is delivered all over the city by mail, by regular carriers. The edition sent to the city subscribers is the last one printed, and contains the same foreign news as the Sunday papers of New York, and all the Canadian news up to the hour of going to press. You can be sure of having the edition reaching you by ordering from the office.

The Toronto World

EIGHT PAGES—TUESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 19 1901—EIGHT PAGES

PLAYING IT "LOW DOWN" ON TAXPAYER.

A little game which has been going on for some time in Queen's Park.

PLAYED ROULETTE AND MOST SALISBURY REBUKES ENGLISH PRO-BOERS

Charles Albert Eby Hurdiedly Left Vancouver With Funds of Sun Insurance Co. SON OF A TORONTO CLERGYMAN— Was Considered an Exemplary Member of Methodist Church—His Friends Shocked.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 18.—Still another illustration of the terrible results of wholesale gambling in Vancouver, which the ministers of the city have been vainly striving to suppress, took place today, when young Charles Albert Eby left the city hurriedly for Seattle, having defaulted on the Sun Life Insurance Company, where he was book-keeper.

The affair was a shock to the community. Young Eby was considered an exemplary member of the Methodist Church. He is a son of Rev. Dr. C. S. Eby of Toronto.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

He confessed, before leaving the city, to having collected $400 of the funds of the company, and lost most of it playing roulette in one night's sitting. He was a thoroughly good book-keeper, and his books were found in excellent order, correct to a cent.

PATENTS

ONE CENT

CALL IT A COLOSSAL FAKE NEW CARBOO GOLD FIELDS

Prominent Klondikers Wintering in Vancouver So Term the Alleged Yukon Conspiracy.

UPRISING EXTREMELY IMPROBABLE. YORK COUNTY MAN THE FINDER

British Government Could Get 5000 Troops Into Skagway in Two Weeks.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 18.—An evening paper published here reproduces from the San Francisco Call the sensational story of an alleged conspiracy in the Yukon to overthrow Canadian rule there, and establish a republic. Prominent Klondikers, who have come to Vancouver for the winter, state the story is a "colossal fake."

In Seattle, Wash., U. S. A., the story is also regarded in the same light. The Post-Intelligencer says: "The report is absurd, and the facts, as contrasted with the assertions made by the correspondent sending out the report, demonstrate the extreme improbability of an uprising."

It points out that there are not 6000 miners in Dawson capable of bearing arms, and that the Klondikers are poor and that the Klondikers are poor and that the Klondikers are poor.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Army officers wholly discredit the published story of the reported conspiracy to secure the independence of Alaska.

The only report made by General Hand, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.

MIGHT BE TRUE. Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Record-Herald, in special from Francisco, ancient the Klondikers at Vancouver, touching Alaskan affairs, related to the transfers of a couple of canyons from Valdez to Fort Egbert.

The cynical suggestion is thrown out at the department that the story is devised to secure the return of the soldiers to Alaska.