STRATFORD DEFEATS

SARNIA. Aug. 4.—Stratford taking advantage of some erratic work on the part of the Sarnia full backs, defeated the local W. F. A. team 2 to 0 in the first game of the semi-finals of the senior series. The game was replete with thrills despite loose playing on the part of both teams at times.

Both elevens showed splendid combination play, Sarnia falling down when close in on the nets. D. Borthwick scored the only counter in the first half on a pass from Neilson. W. Borthwick counting the second one when he left the Sarnia full backs far behind and McMillan came out of the goal to meet him.

The splendid defensive work of Harmer on the Stratford defence was one of the features of the game. Hoon, the diminutive forward for Sarnia played a strong game. Carroll used to be a prime favorite in Brantford, but when the Brants are losing, they haven't any favorites. A straw vote on popularity amongst the Brantford players would probably result in the London team being elected to great heights, ain't they?

BRANTFORD, Aug. 4.—Revenge s sweet and the Kockneys had it here to-night in full measure, when they trimmed the Red Sox by 10 to 4. It was a walk away, witnessed by the biggest twilight crowd present all season. Brantford fans were so enthused over the victory of the Red Sox the night in the results of the Red Sox the were so enthused over the victory of the Red Sox the night before that they turned out to cheer tonight, only to go away to bewail. Knotty Lee put in his second best, Winslow, who has been going along pretty well of late, and the Tees got to him in the first inning for four counters. When Winslow walked the first many in the first inning for four counters. When Winslow walked plus 27. J. Macpherson of the London the first man up in the second he was derricked and Buckley sent in to relieve. Winslow asked to be left in, but the Sox pilot had made up his mind and made the change. It did not seem to make much difference, as Buckley was nicked for five runs in the third and that gave Carmen something to work on. With a lead of 9 to 0 the southpaw just breezed through, although he was saved by sensational support at intervals.

The play was the best of the evening, the bases being filled and Crichlow making a catch going with his back to the stand. For three innings after that Crichlow was accused by Mr. Murphy of being a yeggman. Werre and Brady also injected hits after Murphy's blow netting a four-run drive. After that there was not much doing off Mr. Carmen, who seemed to have recovered his effectiveness. It rather slows up the effectiveness. It rather slows up the report of the battle, however, to say that there was nothing doing. Estelle, while coaching, was put out of the game by Umpire Franklin and Werre was put out of the park in the ninth, when he objected in a most carressing manner to a decision. When the game was over a genial lady fan of Brantford got the grey-haired umpire into her car and got him to safety. It was the first time this year that local fans forgot themselves but then it was London here. President Maines watched the game from the stand and was frequently appealed to by Knotty Lee in the following strain: "Look 'em over, theorge, aren't they great?" At that the umpires were not bad in their decisions, but having just received fresh instructions, their strictures were more severe and again. London, under the studious Wetzel, not wishing to disturb instructions, their strictures were more severe and again. London, under the studious Wetzel, not wishing to disturb peace with a very nice lead of runs got the breaks of the old game.

The score shows a half truth omitted from Brantford. We took one.

London got the jump in the first, when Kennedy walked and Shay singled. Then Neitzke walked, filling the bases. Kuhn was out, third to first, but Kennedy scored. Then Shay scored as Briger was retired by the same route. Crichlow singled and both he and Neitzke scored when Pittenger tripled. That sort of dampened local spirits. The Sox were held scoreless in their half, and when Winslow walked Kennedy in the second, the Tribe having batted around for the entire nine, Mr. Winslow was yanked.

It's particularly pleasing to local fans that the Tribe should keep out of trouble with the umpires. The two game affair with the Red Sox put lots of fight into the London outfit, but they spent it on baseball and not the 'umps.

SLINGBYS TO FIGHT OUT PLAYER QUESTION TO END

BRANTFORD. Aug. 4.—There will be a fight against the disqualifying of four players, McDonald, McMahon. Scott and Taylor, members of the local teams in the Brantford branch of the O.A.B.A. by Slingsbys' semi-finals.

The local executive and the Slingsbys' Club officials hold that the O. A. B. A. rules allow players to be signed up as for that Hamilton was peevish, because its semi-finals did not strengthen up before the due date, protesting and getting a decision without Brantford being heard. Slingsbys have lost two pitchers and have an infielder off with injuries, and they would either have to forfeit the semi-finals with Guelph or use junior players to fill up their ranks.
