PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

TELL IT TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR.

s visiting Mrs. M. J. O'Rourke, of this Mrs. H. H. Landon left on Thursday morning for a month's visit with friends n Toronto.

Miss Edna Cousins of New York city s visiting her brother, Mr. Lyman Cousins, of Tecumseh avenue.

Mrs. N. Campbell of Wallacetown left resterday to visit her daughter. Mrs. 5. Page, at Binscarth, Manitoba. Miss Agnes Hammond of Brick street, formerly of Delaware, left last week for a trip through the west and coastal points.

Mrs. Seldon Waken and children, Telester and Seldon, of Chicago, are suests with Mrs. W. R. Lackie at their ottage, Port Stanley.

Gordon Rutledge, manager of the Financial Post, Toronto, and Mrs. Rutledge, are spending the week-end with relatives in the city.

Mrs. Bibbs of Minneapolis, is a guest with Dr. S. M. Kennedy. Mrs. Bibbs has just returned from a trip to Montreal and up the Saguuenay.

Mr and Mrs. Dugald Blue announce the engagement of their only daughter. Mary Bell, to Mr. Harry A. Young of Toronto, the marriage to take place in

Mrs. E. Redman of Kingston and Mrs. H. Merrill of Regina and her son Ar-thur have been guests with Mrs. J. Eakin, Mount Pleasant avenue. They leave for the west today.

Donald McCorquodale of Embro announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Sara J. McCorquodale, to Dr. Anderson C. Farlinger, of Fort Covington, N. Y., the marriage to take place early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sheff of Chateldest daughter, Mildred, to Mr. Hulbert C. Hancock, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hancock, Merlin. The wedding takes place in September.

Mrs. James L. Walton of Marquette, Michigan, who has been visiting for the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Templeton, of 191

Mr. and Mrs. Mullen, of Batavia, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Mayne and Mrs. Falland, of Morganville N. Y., have returned home after a pleasant visit of a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Copp, 51 Wortley road.

Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Bullock (formerly Miss Leona Boyce), of Dayton, Fla., are spending the summer at their northern home in Detroit. They have been renewing acquaintances while visiting Mrs. Bullock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce, Beaconsfield

A quiet wedding took place at the summer home of the Rev. Mr. McKinley on August 11, when Miss Beatrice Margaret, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Kerr, was married to Mr. George F. Slyford of this city. The young couple left by

Alma College ST. THOMAS, ONTARIO

RE-OPENS SEPT. 13th, 1920 Collegiate Courses, Music, Art, Expression, Business, Household Science, Physical Training, Improved equipment, including Gymnasium, Electric Lights, Larger Grounds

For Calendar write—
P. S. DOBSON, M.A., Principal
Alma College, St. Thomas Alma College, St R. I. WARNER, M.A., D.D.

It Can't Be Did

A woman can't keep sweet when she has to cope with a job that would tax the strength of an elephant and the patience of an angel. Give her a chance. Send it to

FOREST CITY LAUNDRY Ox your service DRY-CLEANERS & DYERS

3881—Phones—3882 White Wagons.

London and Port Stanley Railway

ummer Timetable Effective Sunday, June 6, 1920. TO ST. THOMAS ONLY—†*5:00 a.m., 6.20, 11:20 p.m. 1:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.

TO PORT STANLEY—†*5:40, 6:15, 7:15, *8:20, 9:20, *10:20, *11:20 a.m., 2:20, *1:20, *2:20, 3:20, *4:20, *5:20, *6:20, *7:20, *8:20, 9:20, *10:20 p.m. ted train. Daily except Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. O'Rourke of Winnipeg motor for Port Huron, Detroit and visiting Mrs. M. J. O'Rourke, of this other points west. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bending and their ertson, delighted the audience with wo children have left for their home a Cleveland after having spent a close of the program.

Miss Inez Ruth Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce of Bea-

CLEANING ODDS AND ENDS.

Ladies' Aid Society, was held in the Sunday school room on account of the stormy weather. The country store, ice cream, buttermilk, candy and flower booths were well patronized. An excelbooths were well patronized. An excel-lent program, consisting of piano selec-tions by Misses H. Powell, I. Foster. Mesdames Charles Craig and D. Frank Smith, were much appreciated. Mr. Frank Webster was in excellent voice, and rendered several selections. The Sunset Male Quartet, consisting of Messrs. Callard. Ball, Green and Rob-

In Cleveland after having spent a pleasant two weeks with Mrs. Bending's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hyslop, South London. They were accompanied by Miss Evelyn Hyslop, who will visit relatives and friends in Cleveland before returning home.

Miss Inez Ruth Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce of Beat of the late John Gillies of Lobo Township, was united in marriage to Mr. H. Winnett Lewis elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce of Beaconsfield avenue, was married on August 10, at Palm Beach, Fla., to Mr.
Ellgy Price, superintendent of construction for the Southern States of the Postal Telegraph Company. Mr. and Mrs. Price are now enjoying a trip through the extreme southern states, and on their return will take up their through the extreme southern states, and on their return will take up their residence in the city of Atlanta. Ga.

The grader porty which was to have The garden party which was to have their residence at 701 Queen's avenue.

The bride was gowned in blue charmeuse and carried a shower bouquet Methodist Church lawn last Friday of roses, her traveling costume being

HOME ECONOMICS

Rub-a-dub-dub, rub-a-dub-dub, shall e ever be done with the everlasting eaning? Not this side of Jordan, I very much fear, so we may as well learn how it ought to be done, and then it is not such drudgery, and be-emery powder and soft soap can be used to clean and polish it. For bronze, take a teaspoonful of avender oil, an ounce of alcohol and an ounce and a half of water. Mix and apply quickly with a soft sponge. This requires no rubbing.

To clean copper use oxalic acid. Oxalic acid is poison and should be so To clean piano keys rub over with alcohol.

case of an expectant mother seeing, I forget whether it was a jack-roach or a cock-rabbit, galloping through the fields near her home. And sure enough, just as all the old fishwives had NOT predicted, for superstition goes hand in hand with hindsight in such cases, when the baby was born there was a perfectly formed silk better the seeing. I ANSWER—If there were, I'd soon be launching a junior health column, for juniors only, by Dr. Brady Junior. I'd have little doctors running all over the much too scarce. (Copyright National Newspaper Service) hand with hindsight in such cases, when the baby was born there was a perfectly formed silk hat on his head.

Science has not discovered why birthmarks occur. Neither has it explained why earthquakes sometimes happen. Science ought to consult a few old women about these things.

Some high marks are capillary nevisen about these things. Some birthmarks are capillary nevime minutest blood vesseis are enlarged nd multiplied to produce the red mark. Others are formed by multiplied and enarged veins. Many of them are minte or unnoticeable at birth and increase ute or unnoticeable at birth and increase in size to a certain point as the infant grows, then remain unchanged until surgically removed. Rarely one undergoes spontaneous involution or disappearance, only a slight scar.

Some of these marks may be removed by one or several applications of liquid air or carbon dioxide snow by a surgeon or medical specialist. Others are best treated with electrolysis, of course, in the hand of a surgeon and not a self-styled "beauty doctor." Electrolysis is especially suitable in the removal of birthmarks in which there are hairs. X-ray treatments and radium treatments have produced very happy results in certain disfiguring birthmarks. It is crude and dangerous to apply acids or caustics to these blemishes. Large marks call for surgical remarks. It is crude and dangerous to apply acids or caustics to these blemishes. Large marks call for surgical removal and in some cases grafts of skin from another part of the body. In the case of an infant with a birthmark, the earlier the treatment is be-

move Them With Othine-Double

Strength. This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in re-moving freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. A 10-year size if it fails. Don't hide your freckles under a veil; terial. get an ounce of Othine and remove

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double-strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

ONTARIO LADIES' COLLEGE

Booklet Apply to Courses Academic.—

Public School to Secon
Year, University. Piano, Singing, Violin Domestic Science. Commercial.

Elocution.

WHITBY, ONT. Sept. 14, 1920 A SCHOOL OF IDEALS AND AN IDEAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN.

A Few Advantages For Calendar and 28 miles from Toronto. A City Country School, Gym-nasium, Swimming Pool and Outdoor Play facilities unequalled.

REV. F. L. FAREWELL, B.A., PRINCIPAL, to the newspaper artist who prepared the picture and to the staff man whose fertile imagination produced the legend to accompany it.

Another reader cites an authentic Another reader cites an authentic Another reader cites an authentic I authenti Advertiser Patterns Owing to the pattern manufacturers increasing the price of patterns to us, all patterns advertised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

A Good School Dress. Pattern 3217 was employed for this attractive style. It is cut in four sizes will require 4% yards of 36-inch ma-them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improven and poplin would be attractive for this style. some of the lighter freckles vanishing any address on receipt of 15 cents in Gingham, percale, seersucker, liner silver or stamps.

Measurement: Bust..... Waist....

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 38, 44, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

A word is dead when it is said, some say.
I say it just begins to live that day.

—Emily Dickinson.

Who Wants the Baby? Dear Cynthia and Readers,—Just let me take the easy chair for a few minutes. I promise I will not stay long this time, as I have a great favor to ask of some of our noble hearts. One that has some of a mother's heart, someone that could or would take a dear little baby boy without a home; someone that could love and raise it as their own. It is two weeks' old, has lovely blue eyes, and as pretty as a picture, but its dear mother has gone to the Great Beyond. I feel that someone would have it. A Protestant home is preferred. Its par-Protestant home is preferred. Its par-flannel. Rub the leather with this and finish with a soft clean cloth. This must be used very sparingly.

Pictures of Late Summer.

To clean nickel, mix fine emery powder with linseed oil, and polish vigorously with it; then rub the nickel dry and shining with a flannel cloth.

Another method is to rub the nickel well with oil or vaseline, and leave it on for some time. Then rub it dry and bright. If the nickel is rusted it may be oiled, than dusted with unsay be oiled. If the nickel is rusted it may be oiled, than dusted with unsay be oiled, than dusted with unsay be oiled, than dusted with unsay be oiled. If the nickel is rusted it some the forests or across the gleaming expanses of the forests or across the gleaming expanses of water. How the gleaming expanses of water. How the little form you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your store for your store for a sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another letter from you with news of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive another the gleaming expanses of water. How musical and joyous are these roving sylphs of nature, to whom the earth air or water are almost alike habitable! I, too, think August a charming month. Busy and oppressively hot, yet full of wonderful things, after all.

On one hand we see the green grandeur of the corn fields, so full of promise for the days to come. How very soon will these fields be swathed in a volden sheen ready for the onslaught golden sheen, ready for the onslaught of the reapers.

deaning? Not this side of Jordan, every much fear, so we may as well elearn how it ought to be done, and then it is not such drudgery, and seed the pleasure of the reapers.

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

Birth Marks.

Birth Marks.

Intelligence has the drawback that the more you learn the more have been dearly to the composition of the window of the

that wing feather yet and sharpened it up? If not, get busy right away. Move out under those apple trees and pen me a good long letter. Hoping that I have not monopolized much too scarce.

(Copyright National Newspaper Service) leave room for others,
ROSE OF SHARON. too much space, I will move out and Ans.—Your letter is full of inspiration, Rose of Sharon, and it is good to have you visit us again.

• For Children's Hospital.

Dear Miss Grey,—I wrote to the page Monday and forgot to inclose mite for hospital fund, so am sending it today. You need not print this. RUBY L. Ans.—Many thanks, Ruby L., for this hospital gift.

Veranda Chats.
I saw where English Mother would like the word of "Mother Shipton's

Etak—Thank you very much for the books you sent. I received your card, and can quite understand your request. Never mind the reason. I can guess. I am sending in the needlecraft books

Tan seeming in the needlectart books that have all ready been asked for. Am sorry I have such a few, I wish I had a great big heap of them.

I wonder if I can get a little help from the Mail-Box again.

Now that corn is coming in more plantiful I would like to descene corn.

recipes that are printed in our helpful columns. And thanking you for the nice way you welcomed me back a few days ago; I am still that. MOUSIE. Ans.—Thank you very much, Mousie. The books have gone their various ways. Here is a corn relish recipe: Seven ears of corn, cook and shave off the cob, 8 medium-sized onions, I large cabbage, 2 bunches of celery, 3 green peppers, ½ cup salt, 2 cups sugar, ½ pound of mustard, mixed in a pint of cold vinegar. Cook all together 15 or 20 minutes. True to your name you refuse to reveal your whereabouts. don't you? We hope you will scurry into the Mail-Box frequently just the same.

The flavor of romance still lingers about it as persistently as in the days when it was first introduced into Scottish nomenclature by the coming of the archers from France. Alison signifies "famous war"; it has its origin in the Karling romances. Three monarchs of the Karling line bore the name of Aloya, and the fifth descendant of Hugh Capet Protestant home is preferred. Its parents are very respectable people and of good character. Now, Miss Grey, if anyone would like it, if they will write to you, you can forward it on to me. I would like to hear as soon as possible. One of your constant readers and lovers of this page. I remain, ONE THAT LOVES TO HELP ANOTHER.

Ans.—I'm sure there will be a real demand for that lovely baby, and leave the letter to the mother hearts of the Mail-Box.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to the Mail-Box. I just want to ask of every developed and of few questions, so won't stay long.

I am a girl 16 years old. There is trouble in the family; I am put down and run on, am used like a dog, and I can't tell if I will be living in 5 minutes from now. If I leave home, can my parents bring me back under such circumstances? Would the law listen to a girl under age? Or would she have to get someone else to prove it? Dear Miss Grey,-This is my first letget someone else to prove it?

What day did September 23, 1900, fall

Pictures of Late Summer.

Dear Friends,—In the "Land of Delight" stands the "House of the Open Ight" stands the Ight" stands the "House of the Open Ight" stands the "House of harmony and sunshine in the home of a girl of 16, shoutdn't there? I sincerely hope the difficulties have smoothed out much better than you dreamed, and that you have given up all notion of leaving home. The law would allow your parents to bring you back should you leave. If the matter was taken up by law, you would have to have proof of your statements. September 23,1900, was on Sunday. I am anxious to receive an-> so will try and help a little, too. I am sending yoke pattern for Florence, and butterfly lace for Freckles. Hope they are of some use. Well, Boxites, how butterfly lace for Freckles. Hope they are of some use. Well, Boxites, how many are drying and canning vegetables for winter use? for winter use? I am sure everyone has a little garden plot of their own, and at no time of the year does the garden offer us such a variety of vegetables to choose from as in August, and I can see by the many useful recipes in the Mail-

This is my first visit. Although I have wanted help from you for a long time, have simply kept postponing it. May I ask: Would you ask "Manny" (I believe was the name) if she would kindly help me make a paper and bead portiere? And would some of your kind readers, as you have a lot of musical ones, sell me, if they possess a copy of song A Handful of Maple Leaves, written by W. Westbrook? I cannot get it at any music store, as they were canten by W. Westbrook? I cannot get it at any music store, as they were canvassed around this way a year or two ago, and surely someone has it. I am just about exasperated trying to get it, and it's a beautiful thing. I am so fond of it. I have a beautiful recipe for curried cucumbers. Will send it you, Miss Grey, in a day or two. Inclose mite for S. C. H. Dear little darlings. Wish I could give a million, and we all ought to make a donation to you, as you certainly have to be an encyclopaedian. to make a donation to you, as you certainly have to be an encyclopaedian. You are wonderful. My name and address, dear Miss Grey, inclosed. Trusting I will have luck. Your very interested reader. SAN DUSKIE. I saw where English Mother would like the word of "Mother Shipton's Phrophecy," so I am inclosing the words, Ans.—Thank you, Peony. Verses have been forwarded.

I saw where English Mother would ested reader. SAN DUSKIE.

Ans.—Thank you very much for hospital gift, San Duskie, and for your very kind words. I hope you may be successful in securing the song you want so much. We will be very glad to have the recipe for pickles.

It's a long time since I was in your Cosy Corner. I read the letters of the Mail-Box every day. We have taken The Advertiser for a few years and like the Advertiser for a few years and five it fine. I am Il years old and just passed into the junior fourth before holidays, and maybe try entrance next year. We have all the oats shocked that are cut, and a lot more to cut. My the Mail-Box again.

Now that corn is coming in more plentiful, I would like to do some corn relish or pickle. Could I get a recipe? I have used several of the various in the control of

WITH A BOY. Part Five.

Rocks' mother, believing he was a boy, would have nothing to do with him, so the poor dog had to go out in never been right out in front of the house before, and when he got on the sidewalk he spied some dogs playing farther down the street. Rocks tried to bark out a greeting to them, but all that came from his throat was a loud yell. At such a sound, the dogs took to their heels and ran away. After them went Rocks, but the faster he meels and ran away. After them went Rocks, but the faster he meels and ran away were out of sight. You see Rocks could not run so fast now that he was a boy, and he became tired much more quickly than usual.

"Go down and make that dog stop its noise," he heard his mother say, and then his father came out with a big stick, and gave Johnny a good whack with although he tried to stop them, his feet started off with the boys, so, of course, he went with them. All the way there his voice kept talking to the boys, although the dog did not know what it meant.

"Go down and make that dog stop its noise," he heard his mother say, and then his father came out with a big stick, and gave Johnny a good whack with it. Of course, if he had known it like that. But how was he to know? To Be Continued.

Rights Reserved by the Vincent G. Perry Canadian Synidcate

Rocks knew that all dogs could swim, so he was not afraid of the water, but when he got in he could not swim at all. How heavy his feet were, and all he to call out from the kennel to tell her "Come on, Johnny, we are going for a swim," called some voices from across the road. It was not until three boys came over that Rocks knew they meant the call out from the kennel to tell her to call out from the kennel to tell her to call out from the kennel to tell her to call out from the kennel to tell her where he was, but all that came from his lips was a bark. He tried to call out from the kennel to tell her where he was, but all that came from his lips was a bark. "Go down and make that dog stop its your columns are few, 1 will some-ing for a correspondence with some-one about my own age. DAFFODIL.

and the fifth descendant of Hugh Capet brought it into vogue again, after which it came to special honor with the saintly Crusader, ninth king so-called, from whom it became continuously associated with French royalty. The most famous lady who bore it was the heroine of the romantic correspondence with Abelard. Etymologists believe that this name. redolent of poetry and romance, was transplanted direct into Scotland in this form, but it had too foreign a sound for Scottish ears, and the subsequent change to Alison represented an effort to preserve the romantic tradition of name without sacrificing national radition. The amethyst is Alison's talismanic gem. It is believed to give her a cool head, good judgment and protection from contagion. Friday is her lucky day and 4 her lucky number.

Western Ontario Women's Activities Address News For This Column

the Editor of Woman's Page. KINTORE W. I.

A meeting was called recently of the Kintore Women's Institute for the purpose of reorganizing, this society having been replaced by a Red Cross society during war times. The meeting opened by singing "The Maple Leaf," after which a vote was taken Leaf," after which a vote was taken as to whether it was advisable to reorganize. All present were in favor. The former president and vice-president, Mrs. J. R. Armstrong and Mrs. W. J. Dunster, were re-elected to office, and Mrs. Watt Armstrong was re-elected secretary, and the following re-elected secretary, and the following adies put on the board of directors: Mrs. W. R. McDonald, Mrs. (Dr.) Mc-Donald, Mrs. Dunlop, Mrs. Blashill, Mrs. E. Land and Mrs. Anderson. Meetings are to be held on the last Wednesday of each month at 2:30. A very instructive paper was given by Mrs. (Rev.) I. H. McDonald on "How to Make Women's Institutes Successful." Mrs. Dunlop and Mrs. Dunster sang a duet. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Those present to the number of 20 became members. At the next meeting Mrs. Atcheson of Embro,

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET-AH!

district president, is expected to address the meeting.

"Tiz" Is Grand for Aching, Swollen, Tender, Calloused Feet or Corns.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what ander the sun vou've tried without get. ting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so o much for the big box of sweet peas. you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try

'Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for a few cents. Think of it.

Surpassing all others in Delicacy and Fragrance

Send us a post card for a free sample, stating the price you now pay and if you use Black, Green or Mixed Tea. Address Salada, Toronto.

Also of the famous Eddy Matches.

Highly Nutritious Appetizing Foods

COOKED meats so tender, delicately cured and skilfully prepared as Rose Brand—are bound to be delicious.

Garnish a platter with lettuce, parsley or other greens, put thin slices of any of the delicious Rose Brand ready-to-serve meats on it—serve whenever the occasion demands a light, tempting repast.

Your menu will be improved - your labor lightened—your good taste appreciated.

Rose Brand Cooked Meats a meat treat for every taste-

Jellied Beef Jellied Hock Ox Tongue Lunch Tongue

Roast Ham Boiled Ham Head Cheese Meat Macaroni and Cheese

CANADIAN PACKING CO.LIMITED