

ESTABLISHED 1864.

JOHN CATTO & SON

January Sale

Exerts its influence over all departments in the endeaver to reduce stock before the arrival of new spring

The

goods.

Ladies' Suits,

Cloaks, Coats, Etc.,

THE TORONTO WORLD

voted in the election of 1906 or bye lections with the majorities. Liberal and Labor Constituencies. London boroughs - Fulham, 630; North Islington, 866; South Islington, 1615; East Islington, 767; West Isling-ton, 498; North Lambeth, 758; Kenning-ton, 1555; Brixton, 286; West Newing-ton, 2021; Walworth, 769. OF THE LORDS

DESERVATORY, TORONTO, Jan. 11, (8 p.m.).—The Atlantic disturbaned mentioned iast night has since moved ortheastward over Newfoundiand, ac-companied by heavy gales. Fair weather has prevailed to-day through Canada, and in most districts it has been quite coid. — Tures—Atlin. 10 below—8 below; Vic-toria, 34—44; Vancouver, 34—47; Kam-tore, 41, Vancouver, 34—47; Kam-tore, 81, Monsejaw, 9 below—15; Qu-Appelle, 4 below—18; Winnipes, 2ero —10; Port Arthur, 4 below—22; Party Sound, 8—28; London, 12—25; Toronto, 17—26; Ottawa, 8 below—10; St. John 8—20; Halifax, 12—22. — Deven Lakes and Georgian Bay second chamber, had making the best was no reason for not making the best use of the hereditary principle ' we could, and he emphasized the value of the principle in the case of the sov-ereign, pointing out that the only bond which unites the democracies of em-ubich unites the democracies of em-

Salford West, 2210; Salisbury, 41; Scar-borough, 509; Seuthampton, two seats, 501: Stafford, 311; Staleybridge, 454; 501: Stoke-on-Trent. 3372; Walsall, 1199: Wednesbury, 944; West Bromwich, 1216: Wolverhamton West, 171; Wolverhampton East, 8; Wolvenhamton South. 686.

Unionist Constituencies.

London boroughs - Norwood Lam-beth, $19; Hamstead, 473. beth, SIS; Hamstead, 473. Provinces — Aston Manor, 4702; Bir-mingham, Bordstey, 3787; Central Bir-mingham, 3609; East Birmingham, 585; Birmingham, Edghaston, 4160; Bir-mingham North, 3897; Birmingham South 2000; Elemingham Wort, 5070;

South, 2900; Birmingham West, 5079; Darlington, 288; Dover, 1564; Grave-send, 1689; Grinsby, 2809; Hastings, 1018; Manchester Northwest, 429; Ox-ford, 100; Taunton, $21; Winchester, 50. The appeal now being-made to the country was not going to result in another majority of 330. He, however, would hazard no prophecy more daring than that the 330 would be be the Radi-

IMPROVING OUR CITIES. . A Great Movement in Which There

is Work for Every Citizen.

Churchill, at Derby, said it was not well to "give protection a chance. The step once taken might prove to be ir-(Charles Mulford Robinson, in The revocable. "The licensed trade was an instance Craftsman.) What is the secret of that wave of

of the power that might be wielded by almost every other great trade in the city and town improvement effort which is so conspicuously sweeping He promised that the scheme of state over the country? Civic improvement insurance against unemployment would be ready as soon as the country au-thorized the levy of the necessary has always been a need-not less great at the beginning than now, tho only in recent years has it led to energetic

According to The London News the action. To-day the movement is conters, based on detailed knowledge, is "better than 1906." If there is a dan-ger spot, it is London

Has one business or industrial interests? Civic improvement facitates the transportation of merchandise by street

Mr. Balfour, speaking at a great meeting in Aberdeen, again emphasiz-ed the gravity of the issues before the electors. The governmnt had delib-crately set themselves against the ex-traction of residents, transient and read the gravity of the issues before the electors. The governmnt had delib-trately set themselves against the ex-traction of residents, transient and read the efficiency rule ran counter to the best political contemporary thought in the great na-tions of the world. Fortunately for the political life of the nation, there was a great body of middle opinion. In no part of the kingdom was that body of middle opin-ion growing more rapidly than in Scotland. To that he appealed. Were civilization, progress, wealth, and unity to be fostered by setting class against class, mun against man? (Cheers.) Was that the way empires class against class, man against man? (Cheers.) Was that the way empires were to be built up and the greatness of nations preserved? (Prolonged cheering). Nationalist Treasury Hit. Plague" fight. Has one love for little children? The child is the special ward of the civic improvement effort. For him the play-ground is equipped, for him the school is made healthful, efficient, beautiful

Nationalist Treasury Hit. The Nationalist exchange will be some what depleted at the conclusion of the elections, in consequence of the num-bor of contested elections in Ireland, numbering 70. As each contest costs him a recruit.

sador to Great Britain

Dies of Gangrene.

way.

mas."

These are a handrul of a great version of a great pro-torial argument is on the issue of pro-tection, playing strongly upon the pre-valent lack of employment. One from A London correspondent writes: Everywhere one goes in this city one's eye is met by the same flamms poster. A workingman is in an atti-tude of desperate appeal. Under it is the simple inscription, "It's Work We Want," and over it, of course, "Vote for Tariff Reform." The effect is not pleasing, for the streets these holiday evenings furnish many an original of evenings furnish many an original of A London correspondent writes: the poor fellow on the walls. What-ever the reason for the type-political, sons may be.

social, moral or personal-there is a lisquieting suggestion of its truth ever before one. It is a relief to find Punch on a ladder, covering up the political Arthur Axell Takes Poison and Jumps placards with sheets of "Merry Christ-Off York Street Bridge.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

The Conservatives appear to have Arthur Axell, a machinist in the emthe greater part, at least, of this great ploy of the Standard Woolen Mills, the greater part, at least, of this great city. But the National Union of Con-servative and Constitutional Associa-termined attempt at suicide at 9.30 last tions is just as busy sending out its tons of campaign literature and pic-torial advertisements as its Liberal friends, almost next door in West-minster, whose output was briefly de-torial down the sended on the state of the sended two places and the right in one, the scribed in a previous letter. It is send-ing them out in sizes large and small, including hundreds of thousands of picture post cards, supplied in bulk to the boroughs and county divisions, thence to be mailed to the electors, swelling the postman's already overscribed in a previous letter. It is send-thence to be mailed to the electors, swelling the postman's already overloaded bags. A popular Tory poster is that of a "reg'lar East Ender," fore and aft cap. red sweater and corduroy trousers tied under each knee. He is holding, at arm's length a large mug of beer labeled "Radical Party," which is spill-ing to the floor "Radical Promises." On his face is an expression of the most ineffable Cockney anger and dis-gust, which recalls Phil May's funnison removed by the stomach pump. He gust, which recalls Phil May's funni-est caricatures. Under it is the brief Until He Arrived Home and Found comment, "It's all froth." Taxation for Revenge. A stern schoolmaster, capped and gowned and birch in hand, watches Lloyd-George, a ragged schoolboy, sub-NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- John Smith walked into his dining room last night stitute a "g" for the "u" in "Taxation for Revenue" on a blackboard. Solilo- wife in mourning and signs of a requizes the master (John Bull): "That's cent funeral about his house. Indeed, the way you spell 'Revenue,' Lloyd-George. I thought so Come to my room." Over all the is the admonition, "It all depends on U." "Killing the British Lion" is the A scar on the right leg and a crocked

"Killing the British Lion" is the superfluous explanation of a tawny king of beasts being crushed in the identification positive, altho the clothcoils of a "free trade" python. A buz-zard waits patiently at hand. "Uncle ing was of different quality. Fmith disappeared on Jan, 5. He says Sam" appears in a poster which rep-resents a Frenchman, an American, a German and a Pole carrying off a heavy burden, entitled "British Capit-al" thru the open gate of a red-walled family would be notified. factory. John Bull is sleeping comfortably in a sentry box outside, in front of which he has a grateful "free BRITISH STEAMER RAMMED trade" fire. "Watchman, what of the night?" is the query attached to this Sinks After Collision With German

A Conservative poster with plenty of

JANUARY 12 1910

Keep in mind the dominant fact that mankind from its first appearance on the earth has been schooled by nature to look for signs; For invitations to taste; For sugges. tions as to what to wear. Tell your story briefly, forcibly, truthfully; and address it through the the proper media and you can successfully apply adver-

Embroidered Bedspreads Pure Irish Linen Hand Embroidered Bedspreads, single, three-quarter and double bed sizes at $9, $10, $11, $12.50, $14 and $15. Regularly

$11 to $20.

Towels

ers, 1.99 m collar : hs; strong and 1.99

1910

EWS

Class

10.95

imported

shionable

nd green,

patterns.

le breast.

rt, stylish

zes 36 to

Illy tailor.

distinctly

ly on any

10.95

Worsted

ailored in medium

2.35

Remember

the January

Eale of Collar

Buttons

PRIZE

of wax-waterproof

N STREET

Wool Blankets

Mail orders carefully filled.

JOHN CATTO & SON 55 to 61 KING ST. EAST,

TORONTO. ALLEGE BREACH OF CONTRACT Four Stewart Brothers Sue Agent, who

Claims $25,000. A $25,000 suit is being heard in the "Man of Mystery" Killed After Living Life of Ease. non-jury assize court by Mr. Justice land, James, Duncan F., John is that Dickson pretended to act as agent for a person who wanted to bu," the property. In an agreement made, they allege that Dickson falsely re-presented that he had arranged with the Union Trust Co. for an extension of time of payment on the principal and that he had agreed to pay the ar-

Union Trust anything and that the agreement had been signed by them without consulting counsel.

Dickson puts in his counter claim on the ground that the agreement was that as the result of an interim injunction secured by the Stewarts he

BIG SHAKE UP IN NEW YORK

Park Service Dropped.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- The cleanest

weep so far in any city department since the beginning of the new administration, took place to-day in the Borough President Miller of the Bronx announced that he had received resig-nations from a dozen heads of borough departments and holders of important positions within his jurisdiction. Nearly all were high-salaried men, includ-ing the chief engineer at $7500 per an-num and superintendents of highways and buildings and others whose com

on the fusion ticket last November.

pensation ran from $3000 to $5000 each.

Borough resident Miller was elected

INCREASE OF INSANITY

One Thousand a Year is Estimate in

New York State.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- Insanity is increasing in New York State at the rate of 1000 persons a year, according to a days.

statement made to-day by Miss Mary Vida Clark, in addressing the State Charlties Aid Association, of which she is assistant secretary. On Oct. 1, 1909, thing seems to satisfy as a temperance beverage so much as radnor water, on account of its sparkle and zlp.

thing is so suitable as radnor water.

Higgins had droped 158 men

in

Over 150 Employes and Officials

has been unable to sell the lands.

Judgment was reserved.

Are being passed out at the present time at surprising prices; the season of profit on these goods is now over for us and we are willing that you should reap the advantage and give us room for new goods—to use pub-lishing comparative prices which you could scarcely credit. Come t Superior—Fair and a little colder. Manitoba and Saskatchewan—Fine and cold. you could scarcely credit. See ! and be convinced ! Alberta-Fair; not much change in temperature

THE BAROMETER.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay-

THE WEATHER

Wind. 19 S. W Ther. Bar. 20 30.19 Time. 8 a.m. 8 W. 30,28 2 p.m.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

Jan. 11 America......New Tork .... Buenos Ayrean.New York .... Friesland......Philadelphia. Mongolian.....Philadelphia Fine Bedroom Towels, 20x38 inch, Liverpo all pure linen huckaback, all white Mongolian..... Kaiser W. II.... New York New York New York New York New York or red or blue borders. Regularly $2.75, clearing at $2 dozen. )ceanic

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

Calabria...... Laura.....

...Leghorn ...Trieste

Ontario Association of Archi-tects-96 West King-street, 11.29. Gaelic League-450 Spadina-aveger spot, it is London. Balfour in Scotland Judeans' Eighth Annual Ball-Judeans' Eighth Annual Ball-McConkey's, 8. Brahms Trio-Conservatory of Music Hall, 8. Banquet to Captain Crawford-Berkeley-street Fire Hall, 8. Royal Alexandra — Maxine El-liott, 8. Princess-"Polly of the Circus." 2 and 8. Grand-"A Stubborn Cinderel-la." 2 and 8. Shea's-Vaudeville, 2 and 8. Majestic-Vaudeville, 2 and 8. Gayety-Burlesque, 2 and 8. Star-Burlesque, 2 and 8. DEATHS.

MERCER.-At his home. Etobicoke, on Tuesday, Jan. 11. Seneca K. Mer-cer, in his 83rd year. Funeral on Thursday, Jan. 13, at 2 p.m. to Bethany Cemetery. FIRST WEEK'S WORK FATAL

Nationalist Treasury Hit.

BALFOUR'S DEFENCE

for Asquith or Balfour? The idea that either could be the centre whereto the empire looks was ludicrous. He urged them, therefore, not to underride hereditary principle, so long as it could be turned to some public aand imperial account. Did they think the lords would have been performing their duty as the second chamber if they had let go the opportunity of giving the people a chance of rejecting such novel budget proposals, and at the same time pre-vented them having what Asquith had regarded as a last chance of adopting ## tariff reform? A Prediction.

cal majority in the next house of com-

country under protection."

mons.

From

Gla

to Sidney Lear, 47 e must rhyme with ming words, muse,

DAL! 10c

Men Use r Breakfast terested in the ffee they get. blend of a coffee is itself--buy better. AST NECESSITY partially argued but ssued. tered action against cover $30,239.65 and t. The amount is es according to an 1907. for $26, $92.55, 1907. for $25,55,50 to $2347.10. b and Music Co. of this city, to plane and stool of the plala-the defendent. b has entered ac-al Typewriter Sup-b, and the Home cover $255 for ser-rn of $409, alleged with the Home

Building, Toronto. vith the He

VENICE, Ill., Jan. 11. William and Albert Alex. Stewart, broknown as the "man of mystery" and thers, of Hampstead, Perth County, supposed to have been a French noare the plaintiffs and are asking for bleman, was crushed to death in a facthe above amount for alleged breach tory here. He had worked just a week the north of Ireland. of contract and the return of a promissory note for $5850. The defendant is A. A. Dickson, financial agent, Toron- had lived here.

dorf Dining Room.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- Henry Wes-

1906, according to the staement of claim, agreed to buy 11,550 acres of land in Saskatchewan from the Battleford March they paid $26,130, and their claim is that Dickson pretended to act as of wealth and refinement. He spent all his time reading and never was known to do manual labor until four, addressing a meeting, said he was not prepared to vote for anything in regard to Ireland which would lead ago, when he got a job in a factory. He was unfamiliar with machinery to separation, but would give Ireland the largest measures of self govern-ment possible. He was anxious to and ventured too near a cog-wheel which caught his clothes and dragged him into the machine.

maintain the empire, but was entirely opposed to making our connection with and that he had agreed to pay the the rears of interest. For his services the Stewarts say they gave him the pro-missory note. The plaintiffs further claim that he neglected to pay the the Had Smashed Windows in Walthe colonies dependent upon how our taxation was imposed on them.

ASOUITH ON TARIFF REFORM

Denies That U.'S. and Germany Have Prospered by Protection.

much left. The O'Brien party is forc-ing contests on the followers of Red-mond, who have also to fight seats in terburg, a ragged, emaciated out-oflegitimate and properly obtained and job carpenter, stood in front of the LONDON, Jan. 11 .- The increasing LONDON, Jan. 11.—The increasing gulations imposed to protect it. Or is the interest in landscape art? There Waldorf-Astoria for a time to-night watching the diners inside, until he couldn't stand it any longer. Then he threw two big iron Indian clubs while the struggle is maintained with undiminished vigor, it becomes of viewpocints and natural beatity. thru a plate glass window. In police court Westerburg said he increasingly difficult to find anything had tried vainly for four months to bet a job, but had failed. He then restriking or novel in the speeches. Premier, Asquith at Ipswich, and Mr. Balfour, the opposition leader in teh membered that he used to be a good clubswinger, so went without break-fast to buy the clubs. He gave an excommons, at Glasgow, both addressed large gatherings to-night. hibition in a saloon, he said, but had Mr. Asquith dealt with tariff reform. lost his cunning and was jeered and He asserted that the advance of Gerchased out, without getting a bite to eat. When he passed the Fifth-avenue many and the United States was at-Borough of the Bronx. Shortly after Tammany circles had sustained a shock on learning that Park Commis-it, 'he said. tributable to other causes than tariffs, that the United States had an internal free trade and Germany had become a formidable rival by reason of her edu-

When the carpenter went to his cell, from the park service in that borough, from the park service in that borough, Borough President Miller of the Bronx sent in "with the compliments of the Among the minor inc Among the minor incidents of the mpaign, David Lloyd-George, chancourt. cellor of the exchequer, has drawn a handsome apology from Lord Roth-schild for wrongfully attributing to the chancellor the declaration that there was likelihood of Great Britain having A Novel Way of Selling Furniture. One of the oddest plans for selling furniture is now under way in the Adams' store, City Hall-square. More to expatriate the Jews. The late President McKinley was than 300 pieces of high-grade furniture have been assembled and priced at a very fine point to start what is known quoted to-night by a political orator as having declared that if he was an Engas a "Dutch Auction" sale, beginning Thursday morning, Jan. 13, and each of lishman, he would be a free trader. Earl of Crewe, secretary of state for the six days following a discount of 10 per cent. will be taken off the prethe colonies, in a letter to the press, vious day's price; this is providing the holds out the prospect that a will be made from the imperial funds to subsidize a British cotton growing association for a term of years. article remains unsold. This idea should provide a vast amount of excitement for those who

Surely there will be big bargains for furniture-buying folks the next few

No Danger of Beef Shortage.

become interested in the sale.

DENVER, Col. Jan. 11.—President H. Jastro of the National Live Stock As-sociation, and Murdo MacKenzie, vice-president, to-day in speeches declared that so long a speeches declared sane patients in 15 state hospitals. A Wise Nurse's Favorite. Experienced nurses taking care of patients who have been accustomed to a generous use of wines and spirits and whose doctors have ordered a dis-continuance of the same, find that no-thing seems to satisfy as a temperance become as a direction of a maximum and gasoline in the storage warehouseFatal Explosion.Interfer. causedThe nurses also find that as a direction of milk for the fever patient no-r of milk for the fever patient no-hing is so suitable as radnor water.The arexplosion of a mixture of paintand gasoline in the storage warehouseof the Georgia Railway and ElectricCo. this afternoon caused the death ofBarlo Braswell, and seriously injuredVernon Baldwin. The 105s on thebuilding is estimated at $75.000, fullythis great health maker—Get a locbox—and you will never use anyother bowel medicine.Cascarets tee a box for a week'streatment, all diriggists. Biggest sellerin the world. Million boxes a month. box-and you will never use any night.

numbering 70. As each contest costs the fund about f300, there will not be telling, sewing, and singing; the swing, the swing, the swing the telling sewing and for the telling sewing and singing the swing. the flowers, and for her charges the sand box, Civic improvement paints shower.

out the sign of "Keep off the grass." Does one look back instead of forthe north of Ireland. A prominent member of the Liberal party expressed the opinion that John Burns will be defeated in Battersea. architecture is reverenced. Is one's interest in sociology? The playground, the park, the better hous-

furniture and motor wagons from Ger-many are only a few of the missiles which have crushed his hat over nus eyes and bruised his manly form. He is murmuring, "If I stand this much longer I shall get my death blem." longer I shall get my death blow." ing make their appeal. The social centre, the recreation house, with its Chancellor as Mephisto. ately. Boats from the Mecklenburg groped evening entertainments, the better fac "What Free Trade Imports Mean," tory surroundings, the folk dance, the many and various activities which are brings us again to a factory gate. Asquith, in silk hat and fur-lined coat, about thru the mist and picked up many survivors. Several of the British crew jumpos included in the growing social service and, of course, with a plump of the parks, even the civic club it-cigar, is expostulating with two emato the bow of the German ship as she clated workmen. On the closed gates clashed thru the side of the Hadran. self in its essential democracy, all this is effort that will not be denied. hangs a sign "Unemployed Notice-As-Is one's interest in art and culture? Suppose it is music. There are the free band concerts in the parks. Or sculpture? There are the public stasited Passages to a Warm Climate." On the wall hangs another: "Vote for Free Trade and Emigrate." The worknor put two of his appointees to tax commissioners on probation when commissioners on production when he swore them in to-day. He did not in-dicate which of the seven he referred to, however when frankly addressing them, thus: "I had determined not to men are telling the Liberal premier, tues and fountains. Or painting? There are the galleries, for which civic im-"Look 'ere, master, this 'ere free trade may sult you, but it ain't very filling are the galleries, for which civic im-provement strives; the mural decora-tions in the public buildings, the pic-tures in the schools. Or architecture? There are the monumental civic cenfor an empty stomach." The price of wheat has evidently had consideration, I felt that justice reits effect in England since 1906, for a much-called-for poster represents Asre- quith as a waiter proffering a loaf of Gr bread bearing the inscription, "Four-here pence halfpenny loaf for sixpence." tres, the noble bridges, the encourage-ment of good design generally, the re-"Where is that Radical cheap loaf"" one for nolitical influence influence." and the enthusiasm thrugut the coun-try betoken a tremendous vote at the coming elections. While the struggle is maintained al member of parliament of long stand-ing who voiced his disapproval of the chancellor of the exchequer's budget in a speech in Yorkshire, where he re-marked that "The chancellor of the ex-chequer is running around, as it were, like the devil with a pitchfork, stick-ing it into everybody he can see." This furnished a clue to the pictorfal art-ists, who promptly turned out a lurid red Lloyd-George, with horns, hoofs, and spiked tail, chasing thru the clouds al member of parliament of long stand-ing who voiced his disapproval of the the Is one rich? To him appeal the drives, the increased splendor of environment, the great avenues. Is one poor? For him are the public gar-dens, the vacant lot cultivation, and all that heavity and comfort and plea-sure which is proffered to the citizens as a common possension.' Does one love animals? The drinking fountains on the streets, the sheep on park meadows, the birds and waand spiked tail, chasing thru the clouds terfowl, even the zoo and aviary make with a pitchfork two worried looking parties named "British Trade" and "Land Interests.". The line over this him a recruit. Is one a craftsman? There are the street furnishings to interest him — name signs, light standards, trolley poles—all the fixtures of the common reads. "What the Radicals think of their leaders."

The Foreigners' Part.

FORT WILLIAM. Jan. 10.—(Special.) —The coroner's jury empanelled to enquire into the cause of the boarding-house fire last week, in which four people lost their lives, rendered a ver-dict this evening. The jury was un-able to discover the cause, but recom-mended that measures be taken to pro-vide ample security in all buildings of this nature. Does one. without pretending to art. The foreigner, or evil mien always, yet loving beauty and stace and fit-ness, feel affection for the city and town where men congregate, and deof course, appears frequently. In one grim placard John Bull is being squeezed by a kind of enlarged lettersire to surround with pleasantness the lives of the people? He may enter the billiboard fight, join the anti-smoke press in a dungeon cell. Lloyd-George is squeezing him between "New Taxes" and "The Budget." A foreign peddler leagues, encourage the preventive work of the juvenile street cleaning organiwith a flag of "free imports" over his shoulder, looks on and remarks, "All right, Lloyd-George, you squeeze him dry and I'll do the rest." zations, join the tree planting societies. and work to secure municipal control of the street trees and expert care for "The Rats' Reward" appears to be the only poster aimed at Winston Churchill. The young and irrepressible Italian Deplomatic Transfers. ROME, Jan. 11.-King Victor Em- minister, in the course of a speech, SATURDAY'S VOTING. In the following constituencies poll-ing will take place on Saturday, Jan. 5. The list of seats is given as they Work While You Sleep post. The Marquis Imperail, ambassador to Turkey, has been appointed ambas-redor to Crost Private Property Allowed. Across the stream Llovd-George is trying to drag a John Bull-faced bull over stepping stones which spell out "So-cialism." He ponders: "I wonder how James Howell, aged 72, 67 182 Erock-venue, didd in the Western Hospital om gangrene poisoning at 5.20 last far eross I'll get this silly beast be-fore he understands where he's go-any night. The trouble began so eral years ago, but nothing serious was anticipat-ed until he caught cold a short time fatally. He was taken to the hospital Dec. 30. The "Blunderbudget." represents a shooting gallery in which Lloyd-George is shooting with an old blunderbuss at bottles labeled "Credit." "Brewers," definitional control of the short for the short of Capt. 'Tom Wallace, M.F., left last night for Ottawa.

action in it portrays John Bull getting LONDON. Jan. 11.-It is reported the full benefit of the "Foreign import that the British steamer Hadrian went Steel girders from , Belgium, chairs down after a collision with the Gerfrom Austria, street cars, locomotives man mail steamer Mecklenburg off and steel rails from the United States, Grimsby to-day.

line, and went down almost immedi-

Gaynor Warns Tax Commissioner.

Didn't Discover the Cause.

OBITUARY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10 .- Mayor Gay-

Mail Boat.

He'd Been Buried.

means to increased distribution.

tising as a

The advertising earnings of The Toronto World in December. 1909, were over forty per cent. more than in the same month in 1908-as a live business man do you need any surer "Sign" that the brightest in the morning field is every day becoming a more potent factor in trade development -- "increased distribution."

to help you.

Call up

Advertising

Department

Main

5308

At New York-Hamilton McKeown Twombly, a director on forty railway bcards. At Merritton-Wm. Leason, sr., aged 66. The "Dutch Auction." If you have goods A novel plan of selling furniture has been adopted by the Adams Furniture to sell - reckon Company, who have assembled in : large section of their store over 430 pieces of beautiful furniture, and for on THE WORLD the past three days have marked it at very low cash prices. Beginning to-morrow (Thursday) morning, all of the articules in this sale will be re-duced from the preceding day's price 10 per cent. each day until Wednesday. Jan. 19. Some very startling values in furniture may be expected during the next few days.

School Re-union. A reunion of the ex-pupils of Hamijton-street School, now replaced by the Queen Alexandra, School, was held in the latter building land night. Over 175 were present. E. W. Quinn presided and speeches were delivered in Principal J. Wallis of Queen Alexanden, Trustee W. W. Hodgson and Albert H.