PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

T the Alexandra Theatre next Monday evening, beginning an engagement which will continue gagement which will continue arrout the week, with matinees on Wedesday and Saturday, Joe weep will resent the musical comedy success entied "The Only Girl." It comes to this ity with the undisputed stamp of great ducess, having enjoyed an all-season's un last year in New York City at the yric Theatre. It is said that this departed musical comeany success differs ery greatly from the average run of such lays, masmuch that it has a real story to tell and a real plot to develop. Fred Latham, the well-known London proncer, prepared "The Only Girl" for tage presentation and has assembled an insually complete and capable company. age presentation and has assembled an usually complete and capable company, inch includes: Wilda Bennett, vivian essell, Louise Keiley, Olga Roller, ona Stephens, Thurston Hall, John nulay, Ernest Torrence, Jed Proudy, chard Bartiett and a delightful coterie tty show girls.

"POLLY AND HER PALS."

In Gus Hill's new musical review, which is to be presented at the Grand Opera House next week under the, title of "Polly and Her Pais," there is said to be much merriment and music, all the famous cartoon comedians and a chorus that can both sing and dance. There is no plot, neither is there a solitary bit of sense to it, but for the business man who wants to get away from the cares and worries of office, it is said to be a favorite prescription and one that can be enjoyed in the taking. All the journalistic comedians, including Polly, Pa and Ma Perkins, Happy Hooligan and the Yellow Kids, will keep you laughing with their jokes and songs. The production will be given here at a scale of popular prices and during the week the regular Wednesday and Saturday matines will be given.

SHEA'S THEATRE.

Anna Held, star of a dozen successful semedies, will headline the bill at Shea's Theatre next week. Miss Held, who has spent the greater part of the past year working among the French Red Cross Societies in France, has returned to vaudeville for a brief engagement, in which she offers a number of her former successes from "The Parisienne Model," "The Little Duchess," "Miss Innocence" and others. Albert Whelan, the Versatile Australian entertainer, sings well, has an amusing monolog and is a talented instrumentalist; Joseph E. Bernard and Company will offer Willard Mack's amusing comedy sketch, "Who Is Sne?" while the Mosconi Brothers are heralded as the "Dancing Follies." Kirk and Fogarty have a unique noverty offering with news songs and dances, while Burdelia Patterson, a former professional model, will be seen in artistic poses. Santly and Norton, comedy singers and dancers; the Stuart Sisters, presenting a dainty novelty, and the kinetograph, with new features, complete the bill.

THE HIPPODROME.

For next week the Hippodrome management offers as the headline attract on of a bright bill "The Five Black and White Frolics," in a mirthful musical melange that combines clever dancing pleasing singing and comedy in agreeable quantities. The special feature film will be the soul-stirring Metro feature, "The Lure of Heart's Desire," with Edmuni Breese in the central character role. It is a vivid picture of life in Alaska contrasted with life in the effete east. An interesting love story runs thru the plece. Mile. Oberita will present her wonderfully attractive electrical novelty; Bartlett and Le Fevre have a sensation; aerial offering; Midgie Miller and the Callahan Boys, in song and dance numbers; "Hector, the Dog With the Human Brain:" Georgette and Capitola, two of the cleverest juvenile in vaudeville, an feature film comedies complete the bil

LOEW'S THEATRE. The well-known Italian character actor Maurice Samuels, portrayer of emotiona and comedy roles, in his big production, "A Day at Ellis Island," will top the bill the coming week at Loew's Theatre. This is called "a drama of laughter and tears," but the laughter predominates, and there is only one saddening note, which passes quickly.

Sid Lewis, craziest of all nut comedians, will also be a feature on this bill.

Sid Lewis, craziest of all nut comedians, will also be a feature on this bill. Lewis has been a sensation everywhere. Farmer Kirslake and his funny pigs, five porkers, in a barnyard setting, will be another attraction. Others will include Holden and Herron, in songs and chatter; Bert and Hazel Skatelle, in songs and dances, on roller skates: Rose Berry, a new singer, recently discovered in New York, and Alvin and Kenny, clever comedy bar artists.

ELMAN, MONDAY NIGHT. Mischa Elman plays at Massey Hall on Monday night a full recital program for the first time in five years. He has been heard in Toronto two or three times in each intervening season, but always as assisting artist with the big orchestra. On such occasions his selections have been limited necessarily to a concerto and a small group. On Monday night he will be heard in a brilliant rendition lasting two hours of numbers chosen from his big repertory of three hundred compositions, all of which he can play from memory. As this is the closing event of the musical season in Toronto, there is going to be a record audience to greet him.

AT THE STRAND.

An exceptionally strong bill will be presented at the Strand Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. The headliner will be "Kennedy Square," a romantic southern drama in five magnificent acts, by F. Hopkinson Smith. This ficent acts, by F. Hopkinson Smith. This is a marvelous example of a feature picture, in which atmosphere is introduced so perfectly, yet so subtly and unobtrusively, that one feels that one is transported back to those stirringly romantic days of the south "befoah the wah," every detail being depicted as belonging to the time in which the story is laid. The bill will also include a splendid comedy in three acts, based upon the "Ford Flivver," with many startling scenes of circus life, and with Raymond Hitchcock as the star, called "The Wonderful Wager."

STROLLING PLAYERS.

A tangible story is told in a two-act burietta, which will be presented by Max Spiegel's Strolling Players, with Billy Mossey featured, at the Gayety Theatre week.
book gives Mossey plenty of opportunity to display his ability as a fun-maker, and he is ably seconded in his endeavors by Harry Crawford, an eccentric comedian of more than ordinary ability. The Hayward Sisters and Georgie Grainger are the female principals, who involve Mossey and Crawford in all sorts of trouble, and they are further assisted by the Stantons and Howard and Mohr. a quartet of performers who are making their first appearance in burlesque this
