TRADE IN LIVE STOCK IS STEADY BUT QUIET

Quality Fairly Good, But Percentage of Common and Medium Large.

YESTERDAY'S RECEIPTS

Placed Upon Market.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 108 carloads, 2251 cattle, 468 hogs, 43 sheep, 94 calves and 12 horses.

After the milkers, springers, stockers and feeders were deducted there would be about 2100 cattle, that were offered as fat. Trade was steady at last Monday's values, but not quite as fast.

The quality of the best loads of cattle was as good as last week, but as usual the percentage of common and medium was large, as usual.

There were is: "baby beef" calves that sold at $9; one straight load of cattle at $9.75, which is the high mark yet paid for loads; one load at $8.60; nine loads at $8 to $8.40, but there may have been more. It will thus be seen that the percentage of cattle sold, over $8 was much smaller than those sold under $8. The best cattle were readily bought up before the noon hour, but there was a considerable number of common and unfinished cattle to be sold in the afternoon. Cows and bulls sold at steady values. Steckers and feeders—There was a good demand for feeders of choice quality, but the number on sale was small. Values for them were strong at last week's quotations.

Milkers and springers—A moderate supply of medium to good quality sold at about steady prices, ranging from $60 to $80 with one or two good cows at $90. Veal calves—Receipts being light, prices were firm at last week's decline.

Sheep and lambs—Deliverles were light, which caused values to remain firm, but unchanged.

which caused values to remain firm, but Inchanged.

Hogs—Not enough on sale to constitute market, and prices for those changing hands would justify last week's quotations.

A. B. Quinn sold 68 hogs off cars at $11.30, which was the highest price re-

A. B. Quinn sold by hogs of cars at 11.30, which was the highest price reported.

C. Zeagman & Sons sold 103 hogs at $11.25, and Sam Hisey sold 68 hogs at $11.25, all of these were sold weighed off cars at the packing houses.
