

ROVIRIL
Body Building Power independently proved to be 10 to 20 times the amount taken.

NATIONAL LIBRARY FOR BLIND OPENED

Formal Opening of New Quarters of Canadian Institution Held Yesterday Afternoon.

Canada generally has an interest in the formal opening of the new quarters of the Canadian National Library for the Blind, situated near the corner of College street and University avenue, the event marking a pronounced development in things in which the blind of the Dominion may eventually have a share.

The house has been comfortably furnished by the Canadian Women's Association for the Welfare of the Blind and towards the work the reception room was equipped by the Chateaugay Chapter, I. O. D. E. In addition to the furnishing, the library shows a large selection of books in which the blind of the Dominion may eventually have a share.

The house has been comfortably furnished by the Canadian Women's Association for the Welfare of the Blind and towards the work the reception room was equipped by the Chateaugay Chapter, I. O. D. E. In addition to the furnishing, the library shows a large selection of books in which the blind of the Dominion may eventually have a share.

HALLOWE'EN BAZAAR OPENS.

Foresters' Hall Scene of Activities for Ambulance Fund.

Charmingly appointed and going with a swing is the Halloween bazaar now in progress at Foresters' Hall, Lady Hearst officiated at the formal opening yesterday afternoon, committing the members of Ward Two Conservative Association, on the beautiful decorations and on the work they had done in preparation for the event, the proceeds of which were to go for an ambulance for the men in the base hospitals. Col. Hardy also said a few words, expressing thanks for what the members had done in the past towards the comfort and recreation of the men, and hoped for the success of the patriotic work in hand.

The hall is most effectively decorated in orange and white, witches silhouettes against the bright background. The women in charge are: Mrs. James Casey, general convenor; home-made confectionery, Mrs. Wood's, Mrs. A. M. S. Stewart; candy booth, Mrs. Westman; handkerchiefs and aprons, Mrs. J. V. Moore; linen, Mrs. T. B. MacDonald; utility booth, Mrs. W. G. Nord; dolls, Mrs. Hugh Shaw; children's wear, Miss A. Armstrong; ice cream, Miss E. Crawe; Mrs. C. E. Querre; Florance M. Benjamin, the composer, was doing her bit by the sale of her pretty song, "Belgian Blue," for which Jules Brazil has written the music.

HALLOWE'EN ANTICIPATED.

Senior Students of St. Joseph's College Held Unique Entertainment.

Halloween was anticipated by the senior students at St. Joseph's College last evening when an entertainment was given in which the confederations of the province were shown most delightfully, the girls taking part being dressed in the dress of the period in which the provinces were represented. The entertainment was most graceful, the many varied costumes lending to the attractiveness of the picture. A banquet at which the students were the guests was given at the close of the performance.

FIRST ALUMNAE MEETING.

St. Joseph's College Association Opened Season's Activities Yesterday Afternoon.

St. Joseph's College Alumnae held its first general meeting for the season yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. J. D. Ward, in the chair. Very Rev. Dean Harris, L.D., was the speaker, giving a most interesting and scholarly paper on "Christian Art and Greek Culture," tracing the development of sculpture during the Greek period, which essayed to bring out the perfection of the body, while the paintings of the Christian era brought to its fullest the art of painting, through which the spiritual side is much more aptly portrayed than through the medium of stone.

GOOD SUM REALIZED.

A good sum was realized by the patriotic bazaar held in Ketchum Hall under the presidency of Mrs. E. Yeats by the Fidelity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

TORONTO'S FEEBLE-MINDED.

In the course of an address given to the Women's Social Service by Dr. Hinks it was stated that there were 2000 feeble-minded children in the schools of Toronto, and over two hundred unfortunate women known to be feeble-minded.

GIVING DRAMATIC WEEK.

A dramatic week is being given by York Chapter, I. O. D. E., in aid of the Canadian War Contingent Association. "David Garrick," the first offering, was given at St. Alban's School under the direction of Robert Bright, and was admirably presented.

SUCCESSFUL SHOWER.

A successful shower held by the Parkdale Chapter, I. O. D. E., realized a liberal money collection and 100 pairs of socks for friendless soldiers at the front.

Society--- Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

brass tablet to the memory of the late Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught will be unveiled by His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire in St. Bartholomew's Church, Ottawa, on Sunday morning. The tablet has been placed in this little church near Government House, which their royal highnesses always attended, by some of the ladies in Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto.

His honor the lieutenant-governor, Lady Hendrie and Miss Hendrie leaves on Thursday for Ottawa where they will be the guests of Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire at Government House, for the wedding of Lady Maud Cavendish to Capt. Mackintosh on Saturday. His honor the lieutenant-governor of Manitoba and Lady Alkins and his honor the lieutenant-governor of Quebec and Madame de Blanc will also be guests of their excellencies.

Mrs. W. J. Hanna is going to Ottawa towards the end of the week also.

Mr. and Mrs. Berthwalde, who are in town from Montreal for the Leffer-Warren wedding, are the guests of the lieutenant-governor and Lady Hendrie at Government House.

The honorable the premier and Lady Hearst are going to Ottawa for the marriage of Lady Maud Cavendish on Saturday.

The bridge party and dance held last night at Strathroy, thru the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Roberts, was very marked success, and much praise is due to the energetic committee, Mrs. Kenneth MacLaren, Mrs. Loren Harris, Mrs. Housser, Mrs. Jack Fraser, Miss Graydon, for their work in aid of the Eastcoast Children's Home, the local charity being in a bad way since the beginning of the war, which is so much more in people's vision than the wants nearer home, and the committee's entertainment. The great ball at Strathroy, with its lovely pictures, needed only the palms, flowers and lovely faces of the guests to be a success. The company danced also in the living room. Supper was served in the dining room, which was very gay, the tablecloth being of orange with white and brooms painted on it, and during the supper, Mrs. Housser, who was before joining the I.R.C.F. with Al Johnson, Messrs. Murray and Bendon, providing the music. There was dancing for ladies and all sorts of Halloween games, which concluded to a very jolly evening. Mrs. Robinson, silver lace with panels of pink tulle and a lovely robe of pearls. Her daughter, Mrs. Charles Reed, was wearing a Hawaiian dress, which was exceedingly pretty in cloth of silver with the front of the corsage of diamonds, beauty tulle coming from her shoulders. Mrs. Kenneth MacLaren wore black net and diamonds with sweet heart roses. Mr. Kenneth MacLaren, Mrs. Charles Reed, was wearing a Hawaiian dress, which was exceedingly pretty in cloth of silver with the front of the corsage of diamonds, beauty tulle coming from her shoulders.

Mrs. Muelock, very handsome in blue brocade silk with pearl and crystal ornaments. Madam assisted with black tulle; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lee, the latter in black and silver tulle; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Baker, the latter in white and silver with bands of brown fur; Mr. Harry Miller, Mrs. Miller, pale blue silk with a pink rose; Mr. Moore, Mrs. Moore, black and silver; and Mr. S. Greer, the two latter were at the door taking tickets; Capt. and Mrs. Gibson, the latter looking very pretty in white with pink roses and violets; Mr. and Mrs. Martin, the latter in white with jet and gold; Miss Captain and Mrs. Yuffie, the latter in sapphire velvet and silver; Mr. Frederick Johnston, Miss Johnston, pale blue satin and white tulle; Mrs. Dana, turquoise panne with silver girandole; Henry McDonald, Sgt. Brand, Mr. Wood, Miss Wiseman, black tulle and jet; Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Vanhook, Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Buchanan, the latter in myrtle green; Mrs. Soames, black velvet and tulle; Mr. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Wainwright, the latter in pink tulle and silver lace; Major Anderson, Mrs. Anderson, black van tulle net and sequin frock with gold; Della Davies was in a demy gown of mauve shot tulle with orchid; Mr. Harry Sifton, Mrs. Sifton, butterscotch tulle; striped black and white; Mrs. Dorothy Wright was in pink tulle; Miss Willow Gage, black tulle with Beauty roses; Miss Gladys Gage, pale blue tulle and white; Mrs. Gibson (Cary), pale blue satin and pearls; Mr. Arthur Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Southern, the latter in black and white; Mrs. Aileen Kemp, pale blue chiffon trimmed with silver; Miss Kitty Alexander, black velvet with corsage of tulle; Mr. MacNeil, Mr. Harold Beatty, Mrs. Beatty, in black velvet and coral; Miss Zillah Beatty, very sweet in pale blue tulle; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kendal, black net with silver lace and tulle; Miss Mason (Maryland), turquoise blue satin; Major Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Armstrong, the latter in mauve tulle over white with silver orchids; Mr. Housser, Mrs. Housser, black net over silver, trimmed with silver and a sapphire brooch; Mrs. Frank Hodgins, Mrs. Hodgins, black net with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings; Mrs. Arthur Wright, Mrs. Wright, a particularly smart and becoming frock of black net and jet with a suggestion of scarlet; Hon. Frederick Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, a black and white tulle with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings; Mrs. Arthur Wright, Mrs. Wright, a particularly smart and becoming frock of black net and jet with a suggestion of scarlet; Hon. Frederick Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, a black and white tulle with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings.

ARE YOU LOSING YOUR GRIP?

Dr. Cassell's Tablets Are the Remedy for Weakness, Nervousness, and Rebuild Health and Vitality.

If anyone feels weak or languid, whose vitality has been lowered from any cause, whose nerves are overstrained or "jumpy," will take a course of Dr. Cassell's Tablets, he or she can not fail to be astonished at the wonderful new health and vigor that will follow and follow quickly. Dr. Cassell's Tablets are an actual brain-purifier and strengthen the nervous system throughout, invigorate all the bodily functions, give "spring" and "grip" and fitness even to the weakest. And there is no dope in them.

A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent you free of charge by mail on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10 McCaul street, Toronto.

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the supreme remedy for dyspepsia, kidney troubles, sleeplessness, anaemia, nervous ailments and nerve paralysis, and for weakness in children. Specially valuable for nursing mothers and during the critical periods of life. Price 50 cents per tube, six tubes for the price of five, from druggists and storekeepers throughout Canada. Don't waste your money on imitations; get the genuine Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Proprietors, Dr. Cassell's Co., Ltd., Manchester, Eng.

and Mrs. Gibson, the latter looking very pretty in white with pink roses and violets; Mr. and Mrs. Martin, the latter in white with jet and gold; Miss Captain and Mrs. Yuffie, the latter in sapphire velvet and silver; Mr. Frederick Johnston, Miss Johnston, pale blue satin and white tulle; Mrs. Dana, turquoise panne with silver girandole; Henry McDonald, Sgt. Brand, Mr. Wood, Miss Wiseman, black tulle and jet; Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Vanhook, Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Buchanan, the latter in myrtle green; Mrs. Soames, black velvet and tulle; Mr. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Wainwright, the latter in pink tulle and silver lace; Major Anderson, Mrs. Anderson, black van tulle net and sequin frock with gold; Della Davies was in a demy gown of mauve shot tulle with orchid; Mr. Harry Sifton, Mrs. Sifton, butterscotch tulle; striped black and white; Mrs. Dorothy Wright was in pink tulle; Miss Willow Gage, black tulle with Beauty roses; Miss Gladys Gage, pale blue tulle and white; Mrs. Gibson (Cary), pale blue satin and pearls; Mr. Arthur Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Southern, the latter in black and white; Mrs. Aileen Kemp, pale blue chiffon trimmed with silver; Miss Kitty Alexander, black velvet with corsage of tulle; Mr. MacNeil, Mr. Harold Beatty, Mrs. Beatty, in black velvet and coral; Miss Zillah Beatty, very sweet in pale blue tulle; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kendal, black net with silver lace and tulle; Miss Mason (Maryland), turquoise blue satin; Major Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Armstrong, the latter in mauve tulle over white with silver orchids; Mr. Housser, Mrs. Housser, black net over silver, trimmed with silver and a sapphire brooch; Mrs. Frank Hodgins, Mrs. Hodgins, black net with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings; Mrs. Arthur Wright, Mrs. Wright, a particularly smart and becoming frock of black net and jet with a suggestion of scarlet; Hon. Frederick Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, a black and white tulle with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings; Mrs. Arthur Wright, Mrs. Wright, a particularly smart and becoming frock of black net and jet with a suggestion of scarlet; Hon. Frederick Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, a black and white tulle with a gold rose on the corsage and gold shoes and stockings.

The dance being given by the gentlemen cadets at the Royal Military College has been postponed until the 16th of November on account of the departure of the band.

Mr. Lang gave a dinner of eight covers at 8 o'clock, very happy the dance at Strathroy last night. Mrs. Yorl Ryerson is shortly leaving for New York on a short visit. Miss Mason is in town from Maryland, the guest of Mrs. Sidney Kendal. Mr. Frank Dudley, Niagara Falls, is in town for the three days of the National Club tonight to discuss the Victory League for the welfare of the blind. Major Anderson has arrived in town from Ottawa.

The League Chapter, I. O. D. E., gave a large and well-organized bridge party yesterday afternoon and evening at the Prince George Hotel. The patriotic purpose of the chapter, arranged by Mrs. Eason, the regent, thirty tables were played in the large dining-room and fifteen tables in members' houses. The prizes were pretty bags for the three tables and nearly forty tables. In the afternoon tea was served in the gallery of the same, and in the evening there was a war supper.

The Society for the Welfare of the Blind opened the library on College street yesterday afternoon, when a great many interested people inspected the building and the beautiful work sent from New York, which had been done by the blind. The Braille typewriters were on view, with only six keys. It was served in the large room on the ground floor. Mrs. Christie and Mrs. J. Christie officiating, assisted by Mrs. Grace Adam, Mrs. Leach, the president, received in the hall and a great many noble people were present. The officers of the society are as follows: Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Lona Clark, Mrs. F. F. Breckenridge, Miss Mabel Cary, Mrs. F. Breckenridge, Mrs. H. P. McWhinny, Mrs. L. J. Galt, Mrs. J. Tyrrell, Mrs. Cromwell, Gurney, Mrs. D. Bruce MacDonald, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. W. H. B. Aikins, Mrs. George Gooderham, Mrs. W. K. Gray, Mrs. J. Leonard MacKinnon, Mrs. C. J. Thomson, Mrs. L. Clark, Mrs. Van Koughnet, Mrs. Strachan, Mrs. John Wright, Mrs. McWhinny, Mrs. Sigmond Samuel, Mrs. Wilmet Matthews, Mrs. A. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Sullivan, Mrs. Wallace Nesbit, Mrs. W. J. Elliott, Mrs. Fred Plumb, Mrs. Arnold Ivey, Mrs. Leonard MacKinnon, Mrs. C. J. Thomson, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. Frank Hodgins, Mrs. W. K. George, Mrs. Grayson Smith, Mrs. L. G. B. Baker, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Mrs. W. H. Cross, Miss Laing, Mrs. J. Ashworth, Mrs. R. S. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. Murray, Miss Murray.

WAR MENUS

How to Save Wheat, Beef and Bacon For the man at the front. Issued from the Office of the Food Controller for Canada.

Menu for Thursday

Breakfast: Girdle Cakes, Syrup, Tea or Coffee.

Luncheon: Welsh Rabbit on Soda Biscuits, Fruit Salad, Oatmeal Cookies, Tea.

Dinner: Beef Steak, Mash Potatoes, Boiled Cabbage, Cornmeal Pudding.

The recipes for Welsh Rabbit and Cornmeal Pudding, mentioned above, are as follows:

Welsh Rabbit: Make a good white sauce. To two cups, add one-half a level teaspoon of mustard, a small quantity of cayenne, and two-thirds a cup of grated cheese, and as soon as the cheese is melted, remove from the fire, pour over toast, and serve at once.

Cornmeal Pudding: 5 cups skim milk, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon ginger.

Scald the milk and pour over the meal. Cook in a double boiler for twenty minutes. Add molasses, salt and ginger. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake two hours in a slow oven. Raisins or dates may be added if desired.

Put Less Tea in the Pot

Because it chiefly consists of the Assam teas of Northern India, the strongest and richest in the world, less Red Rose is required in the tea pot.

Where four or five spoonfuls of ordinary tea are required just use three of Red Rose.

And Red Rose tastes better.

Kept Good by the Sealed Package

Announcements

Notice of any character relating to future events, the purpose of which is the raising of money, may be inserted in this column at two cents a word, with a minimum of fifty cents for each insertion.

THE MONTHLY MEETING OF THE

Toronto Humane Society on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the board room, headquarters, 197 McCaul street. Mr. Percy Arnold, lieutenant, R. C. I. will speak on "Horses in Warfare." The public is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harris are spending a short time at the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Major Charles P. Taft, U.S.A., are in town. Mr. William Taft, former president of the U.S.A., was married recently to Miss Eleanor Kellogg Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hall Chase, Waterbury, Conn. Mrs. Major Taft is in the artillery branch of the regular army.

Mr. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt, formerly Miss Edith Cory, are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cory, in Ottawa.

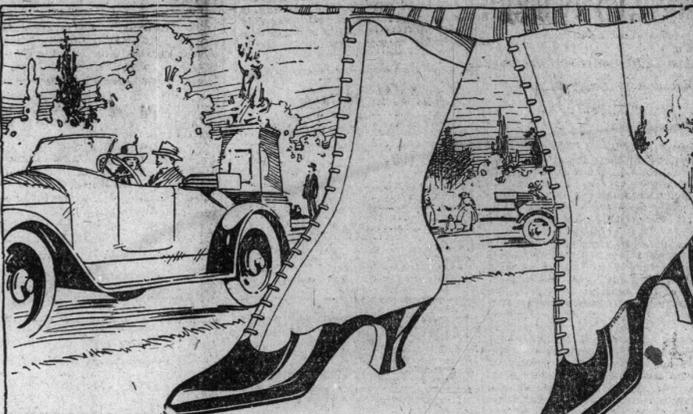

Mrs. David Crombie, wife of the general superintendent of the Canadian Northern Railway, is in Calgary, where she will visit friends.

HOPE YET.

"Why looking so sad this morning madam?" asked the young man with the red nose, coming to the boarding-house breakfast table.

"Oh, everything is going up so in price," said the despondent boarding-house keeper, "I fear before long I won't be able to get anything for my table."

"Well, don't feel that way about it madam. I read in the paper only today that there are nearly 1,000,000 bearing prune trees in the Santa Clara Valley, California, alone. The average yearly production is more than 40,000,000

Simple Elegance

Aristocrats in appearance, Minister Myles Shoes, copied from models obtainable in the best Fifth Avenue Shoe Shops, cost less and wear better than any imported shoes can possibly be sold for here.

OUR BRANDS: "Vassar" and Altro Shoes for women. "Beresford" and "Minister Myles" Shoes for men.

MINISTER MYLES SHOE CO., LTD.
109 Simcoe Street, TORONTO

Polly and Her Pals

EVERY RED BLOODED-AMERICAN GIRL SHOULD BE WAITING FOR OUR SOLDIER BOYS!

DON'T LET ME STOP YOU, GAL. BUY YERSELF A OUTFIT!

SPECIAL SALE

Copyright, 1917, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved. Registered in U. S. Patent Office

WELL, WHO KNOWS WHAT'S IN THOSE BAGS, ANYWAY? By Sterrett

EIGHTEEN DOLLARS, MISS. REDUCED FROM TWENTY-FIVE!

THAT'S THE SHIFTEST BAG I'VE SEEN YET! COME ACROSS, PA!

IF Y'SPEND MY HULL EIGHTEEN ON A KAUNTIN' BAG, THEY WOON'T BE WITHIN LEFT FER YARN AN' NEEDLES!

TRUE, BUT I'LL HAVE THE FLOSSIEST BAG IN OUR SET!

ER, - UM AW, PARDON ME, POLLY BUT -

SHALL I PUT IT IN A BOX MISS?

THANK YOU, NO, I'LL CARRY IT AS IT IS!

16
17
18

Copyright, 1917, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved. Registered in U. S. Patent Office