

INTRODUCTION

In publishing this Report, the Executive to members of the third annual meeting of the Canadian Dairymen's Association, and the profitable Convocation.

The Report is a perusal to contain and, we believe, those who were to remind and lessons there re-

The desire for an annual gathering for disseminating information held in February.

This Convocation of dairymen from all parts of the country anticipated,—desires to have been that ever assembled change of thought the farm and

The Executive desires more profitable and reading papers especially commending

It is by the intelligent solution