INSPECTION OF MUNICIPAL HOME BY COMMITTEE

No Complaints Heard and Members Express Satisfaction With Management—Segregation is Needed

That there should be some provision made for the separating of the inmates in the Municipal Home in a better manner than it is at present done, was the general opinion expressed this morning by the committee appointed to investigate into the existing conditions. The committee named to look into the conditions there with members of the finance committee and the board of commissioners, made their tour of inspection this morning. The party consisted of Mrs. H. A. Macdonald, Mrs. E. C. Egan, Mrs. David McNeil, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Father Young, Judge G. O. McInerney, H. A. Powell and J. King Kelly.

LLOYD GEORGE: "There are our war aims. Now, Mr. Kaiser, let's see yours." -London Critic.

London, Feb. 28.—Foreign Secretary Balfour repudiated tonight in the House of Commons to criticisms of his recent speech concerning Von Hertling, and Count Czernin, made by Richard Holt, a Radical member. Mr. Balfour maintained his previous position that nothing had yet happened to make diplomatic conversations fruitful of good results.

London, Monday, Feb. 11.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Some of the pamphlets which were recently circulated in Berlin during the recent strikes consisted of savage attacks on the German Emperor, a fact which was admitted and deprecated recently by the German press. One of these pamphlets, entitled "The Kaiser," has reached the Liverpool Daily Post in part.

London, Feb. 28.—The German army has received orders to stop its advance into Russia, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, who has received information to this effect which he regards as reliable.

London, Feb. 28.—The council of people's commissars, according to a Rester despatch from Petrograd, has issued another call to arms in the case of which it is declared the German invaders are arresting the workmen and soldiers' councils, holding captured Red Guards and arming German and Austrian prisoners in the Ukraine. The proclamation asserts that the troops at the front have now split themselves together and are resisting the invasion. It concludes:

"May the blood spilled in this unequal struggle fall on the heads of the German Socialists who are allowing the German workmen to be ranked among the Cain and Judahs."

London, Feb. 28.—The Japanese army is proceeding successfully on a campaign in the direction of Peking and other regions of mixed detachments are marching to the front. Several detachments of sailors have arrived in the capital from Finland. Women, children and invalids have been given permission to leave the city.

London, Feb. 28.—A speech made Sunday by Viscount Motone and reports from Paris as to Japan's possible activities in view of the German advance into Russia are given prominence by the morning newspapers. The Times says it understands that the statement of the Japanese foreign minister is regarded in well-informed quarters as an authoritative declaration on Japan's policy.
