LONDON WONDERS IF BOMBS WERE HOAXES

Uneasy Suspicion That They Have Been Fooled—Growth of Good Feeling Towards Germany

(Times Special Cable) London, England, May 21—London has an uneasy suspicion that it has been hoaxed over the supposed suffragette bomb outrages. It is now clear that most of the so-called bombs were nothing but dynamite, placed probably by jokers in department or medical students. The suffragettes themselves have from the first formally disclaimed any association with these attempts. Even the supposed St. Paul's Cathedral outrage is now not regarded seriously.

EVIDENCE DID NOT CONNECT PRES. WOOD WITH CONSPIRACY

(Canadian Press) Boston, Mass., May 21—In an endeavor to connect President William M. Wood of the American Woolen Company and Frederick E. Atteux with the alleged conspiracy to disseminate striking textile workers at Lawrence by "planting" dynamite in buildings occupied by strikers in that city in January, 1912, the prosecution called John J. Brennan, a Lawrence school committee member, who was a member of the Lawrence school committee, when the dynamite was found, was found 800 in the Essex county court several months ago upon conviction of unlawfully hiding the explosive. Testimony that Brennan had paid him $50 for planting the dynamite, was given yesterday by Dennis J. Collins, a co-defendant with Wood and Atteux who turned state evidence.

INSANE PATIENTS WILL PUBLISH PAPER

Newark, N. J., May 21—Patients at the Morris Plains state hospital for the insane, are to have a newspaper which they will publish, according to the plans of Dr. Detton D. Evans, medical director of the institution. Dr. Evans will direct the policy of the paper and write the editorials. Many of the patients are expert writers and will be contributors to the publication.

COMPENSATION WILL BE BIG ISSUE WITH TRAINMEN

San Francisco, Cal., May 21—One of the important questions touched upon at the morning session of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, was compulsory compensation for injuries sustained in the course of duty. It is stated the whole matter has been placed in the hands of the executive committee with instructions to urge action by congress. A change in the constitution discussed today, provides that the conventions of the organization be held triennially instead of every two years. It was announced that W. G. Lee, president of the body, would be a candidate for re-election.

The growth of good feeling towards Germany has been very marked. The feature of the week, the Kaiser's visit, has created an atmosphere of good will on both sides which promises important permanent results. The Kaiser's activities in releasing British officers has been generally appreciated. Even those newspapers usually eager to suspect Germany's intentions are today openly declaring their belief that the tension between the two great nations has been very sensibly relaxed, and this optimistic feeling is expressed in popular conversation everywhere.

FERDINAND WANTS REAL NAVY FOR AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

Will Ask for Heavy Appropriations—To do Away With System of Civilian Control Which Cost Millions

(Canadian Press) Vienna, Austria, May 21—A cable from Vienna to the Tribune says that on the recommendation of the Prince Imperial, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the Austrian government has determined to emancipate the navy from the control of military landward. Investigation shows that millions of dollars have been wasted because the votes of army officers in the council of the war department, have hindered proper economies. Austria is now ambitious to build a navy second to none in the world. Heavy appropriations are to be asked for Dreadnoughts and cruisers for service in the Mediterranean while many new coast defence ships are to be put in commission on the Danube.

CONSECRATION OF BISHOP O'LEARY AT BATHURST

The consecration of Rev. Dr. O'Leary, of Chatham, as bishop of the diocese of Charlottetown, which will take place tomorrow at Bathurst will attract many friends from various parts of the maritime provinces, including members of the clergy and laity, for he is very well known and highly esteemed. Among those going from St. John's will be his two cousins, H. O. McInerney and Dr. S. H. McDonald. Hon. A. J. MacDonald, of Georgetown, P. E. Island, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, while on his way to Bathurst to attend the consecration ceremony. A large number of friends will go along from other parts, including delegations from Charlottetown, Moncton, and Chatham councils of the Knights of Columbus, as His Lordship designate was a member of the last named council. The knights will form an honorary escort for the bishop at his consecration tomorrow.

Experiment Tried Last Summer Found Satisfactory—I. C. R. Will Ship Half Million Bushels

The experiment of shipping grain through St. John as a summer port was tried last season and found to work so satisfactorily that another half million bushels will be shipped through here this summer from the I. C. R. elevator. The first shipment is now being prepared, and will be shipped by the steamer Britannia, of the Furness line to London, which will take 60,000 bushels of grain.

WOULD CHANGE DAY FOR PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Citizens of Moncton Petition to Celebrate Victoria Day on Monday (Special Times) Moncton, N. B., May 21—Whether Moncton will observe the legal holiday on the 24th May or on Monday the 26th is a question before the citizens, and is causing much discussion today. Yesterday a petition was circulated among the merchants and many signatures were obtained in favor of keeping open on Saturday and closing on Monday. Today, however, considerable opposition to the proposal developed owing to the fact that many persons had planned to observe Saturday and at this stage cannot cancel their arrangements. It is pointed out that the proposal to change the day was given to the proposal until today. A meeting of the city council is being held this afternoon to consider the matter. It is understood the I. C. R. and banks will observe Saturday as the holiday and the Trans-Canada will not be issued on Saturday. Other firms intend to close on Saturday.

INEXPERIENCE COST WILLARD THE BATTLE

San Francisco, May 21—Inexperience proved a big handicap to Jesse Willard in the heavy weight fight with Gunboat Smith, which the latter won last night on a decision at the end of the 20th round. Willard had the strength and courage, but he was too good natured and too sluggish when the fight was in the tight places, he did not know what to do.

SMOKING BY WOMEN A DANGER TO RACE, SAYS LORD METHUEN

London, May 21—Lord Methuen, in the course of a speech at the meeting of the army temperance association, warned the society against the increase of smoking among women. He declared that women did not know the sense of the word "no" when they began smoking. He did not know where they got the craving which they indulged in from morning to night. "I hope the society will recognize that an excess of smoking among women, as among men, is a danger that we must protect ourselves against not only for ourselves, but for our children, who come after us."
