REV. R. A. ARMSTRONG ADDRESSES GREAT E. D. CLUB MEETING

The hall of the Every Day Club was not large enough to contain all who sought to get in last evening. The orchestra, with Prof. Bowden as conductor and Miss Pro- gram as accompanist, played a fine pro- gramme. M. T. Morris sang "Will Be Done" with feeling and expression, and the Exmouth street church male quartette were heard with intense pleasure in their rendering of a familiar hymn.

Rev. R. A. Armstrong was the speaker of the evening and took as the basis of his address the club's motto, "To Help Men to Be Men." He began with the familiar story of the prodigal son, and found his example.

Doctor told her she did not have a Pint of Good Blood in her Body.

Mrs. Dorothea P. Corneier, Middle Buck- ville, N.B., says:

"In the summer of 1897 I was all run down, and the doctor told me I had not a pint of good blood in my body. I took different remedies from doctors, but they did not seem to do me any good. After having taken a lot of different kinds of medicine, and they did not seem to benefit me, I was almost in despair and did not know what to do until my hus- band met a lady and told me about her sickness and she told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I bought a bottle of it and after having taken it I felt better, so I kept on using one bottle after another until I had taken six in all and now I was strong and well. I am positive that my being alive to-day is due to the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. One spring since then I was not feeling very well and had a lot of work to do. I thought I would procure a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and after I had taken two I was able to do a lot of hard work the summer, and I never felt better in my life. In the winter of 1908 I had pneumonia, and it left me with a severe pain in the left side. Every morning when I would get out of bed I had to sit down for a while it was so painful. After I had used Burdock Blood Bitters the pain disappeared com- pletely. It has also cured me of bleeding piles. I have received so much benefit from Burdock Blood Bitters that you may publish this as it may help others as I have."

Temperance Meetings

Granite Rock Division, Sons of Temper- ance, had their usual Sunday night gospel meeting in their hall last night. Rev. J. A. Maclean was the speaker. John Laidlaw presided and there was a large at- tendance.

Loyalist Division, Sons of Temperance, held a gospel temperance meeting in their hall, Paradise Row, last evening. Rev. William Lawson was the speaker and Wal- ter Daley, chairman. Edwin Marshall sang a solo.

Rev. David Hutchison delivered a tem- perance lecture to the members of the Temple of Honor in their hall in Main street yesterday afternoon. He spoke pri- marily on the total suppression of the liquor traffic and the national safeguard, prohibition. The lecture was listened to with interest by the large crowd present. The speaker did not refer particularly to local conditions, but reviewed the liquor traffic as a whole.

Rev. Wilfrid Gaez was the speaker at the meeting under the auspices of Thomas Lodge yesterday afternoon. He contended that the temperance man who was not aiming at prohibition, or the Christian who was not a temperance man, was not living on the highest plane of duty. James Keyes presided at the meeting and C. G. McFar
