ATHLETIC STATE

INDOOR SPORTS. The Marathon Club is certainly deserving of great praise for their laudable effort to increase the local interest in athletics, and it is to be hoped that the indoor sports which are to be reld in St. Andrew's rink will be so successful that similar meets will be held quite frequently. Following is the list of events: Three mile race, senior; relay race onen to members of the relay race, open to members of the club, four men to constitute an entry; one mile race, open only to members of the High School, Rothesay or Victoria football teams; half mile race, for boys sixteen and under; potato race, for boys of fourteen and under; race, for boys of fourteen and under; 40 yard dash, senior; tumbling by J. Lewis, J. Malcolm and E. P. Howard, and tug of war, four teams. For the tug of war a $10 prize is offered, and for the first prize in the three mile senior race a silver medal will be given. Suitable prizes will be given for the other events. Entries will be received by H. F. Paisley, secretary of the Marathon Club, up to and inof the Marathon Club, up to and including Tuesday evening next, and must be accompanied by a deposit of 25 cents, which will be refunded to all presence aroused much curiosity and many wondered whether she was to be a bidder.

It was rumored today that she will be an extensive buyer at the end of the sale, her purchasers being confined mostly to mares for breeding.

William Kelly's two famous trotters, Oro, 2.05 1-2, the season's champion trotting gelding, and Norman B., 2009 1-4, were sold for $2,400 and $2,000 respectively, to Samuel McMillan, who will drive them as a team.

The sales today reached a total of $113,915 for 108 head, or an average of the accident, and will have the schooner towed back to St. John and overhauled. She is partly insured. GLOUCESTER, Mass, Nov 28-Fish-
