Lagrippe Conquered.

DARTMOUTH, Sept. 24th, 1895.

Messrs. C. GATES & Co., Middleton, N. S.

This is to certify that while living at Belmont, in Colchester County, about 17 years ago, I took a very heavy cold and had severe cough and an attack of bronchitis, which reduced me very much—was very bad for a month, friends feared my going into decline. I procured some of your Bitters and Syrup, which I took and soon began to improve, and kept on gaining till I fully recovered. Five years ago I was seized with an attack of La Grippe, which reduced me so much that I could scarcely walk without falling over. I then took eighteen bottles of your Bitters and Syrup, which built me up and made me thoroughly well. We continue to use your medicine and never think of being without them in the house.

I am willing to make oath to the truthfulness of the above statement.

Yours very sincerely,

HERBY ARCHIMALD.

Sold Everywhere at 50 Cts. per Bottle.

Notice of Sale.

DEATHS.

WADE.—At Alma, Dec. 3rd, Jacob Wade, aged 26 years.

HARRIS.—At Windsor, Dec. 25th, of bronchitis, Clara Jean, infant daughter of Fenton and Lizzie Harris, aged 10 months.

WHYNAUGHT.—At Riverside, New Germany, Dec. 24th, Benjamin Whyngaught, aged 93 years and 11 months, leaving two sons and one daughter.

DOWLING.—At the residence of her son, Caleb Dowling, Alma, Nov. 1st, Louis, relict of the late Edward Dowling, of Hopewell Cape, aged 86 years. Her trust was in Christ.

REED.—At Chipman, N. B., after a long illness, on the 23rd inst., Louisa, relict of the late James Reed, aged 65 years. The deceased was a native of Massachusetts.

PRATT.—At Highland Village, Dec. 19th, Samuel Pratt, aged twenty-nine years. For fifteen months Bro. Pratt has lain upon his bed, a sufferer from paralysis, having been first stricken in Sept. 1896. His weakness and sufferings were borne however, with christian patience, and with a marked degree of cheerfulness. Six sons, three daughters and their widowed mother survive.

GRANT.—At Arlington, Annapolis Co., N. S., Dec. 16, Sarah, beloved wife of Bro. Christopher Grant, aged 68 years. Our sister lived a quiet consistent christian life. Her death was not looked for so soon, but her preparation for the great event had been well made long before it took place. Her sorrowing husband, sons and daughter have much consolation in their great bereavement.

COLLONPY.—At Lockport, Dec. 23rd, Wm. J. Collonpy, aged 25 years. Brother Collonpy was a member of the Lockport church, having been baptized by Pastor Parry some 15 years ago. He passed to the better land after a long and very painful illness. During his greatest suffering he declared that his anguish was as nothing when compared with what Jesus underwent for him. He leaves a wife and one child. His widow and his widowed mother with his only well brother, have to carry a heavy load of sorrow. Within a few months father and the oldest son have been taken, and one brother is now very sick. May the love of God console and comfort.

HUBLEY.—At Dundas, P. E. I., Dec. 20, of consumption, Della, beloved daughter of Captain and Sister Garrit Hubley, in the 18th year of her age. Although our sister never publicly professed Christ, she had for some time before her death enjoyed the blessed assurance of her acceptance with God. She lived a pure life and died a most triumphant death. For her to live was Christ, to die was gain. She leaves a sorrowing mother and father, two sisters and one brother to mourn their sad loss.

GLENN.—Catharine, the beloved wife of William Glenn, Esq., of Cheverie, died Dec. 11th. Her death deprives the Baptist church of Kempt, Hants Co., of a valuable member and her sorrowing husband of a faithful and loving wife. A kind husband and attentive friend did their utmost to ease her sufferings, which were very great. It remained for death (while it does not end all) to end her sufferings. Trifles were not allowed to keep her from her place in the house of God on the Lord's Day. She took a deep interest in all that pertains to the welfare of the denomination. A drone in the hive she could not be. She was a woman of refined taste, greatly admiring the beautiful in nature. Nothing gave her more earthly pleasure than to watch the opening flowers so carefully tended by her. These are left to the care of other hands, but she has gone to the land of fadeless flowers. The good Lord bless the partner of her joys and sorrows left to mourn his loss and kindly lead the many friends she left to follow on.

Ottawa and Hull, Que., have been connected by electric railway, a bridge having been built across the river.
