Mrs. J. J. Daly spent Friday in St. John.

Mr. Ralph Robertson was at his home here for Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. S. H. White were shocked to hear of her sudden death which occurred at her mother's residence on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. White had been delicate the last few years and lately had been much worse. Mr. White took her to St. John the Sunday previous to her death, to see if the change would benefit her, and also to consult the doctors there. She become worse there and they came back on Tuesday afternoon. She went to her mother's residence to remain over night and never regained strength enough to be moved across the street to her own home. She was a great favorite and beloved by all who knew her. She left one child, a little girl 8 years old. Her death was very hard for her family, coming as it did so soon after her father, the late J. Allen Hallett, who died just five weeks ago. Her husband and family have the sympathy of all. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning and was very largely attended. Mr and Mrs. J. W. Pelham and daughter, of Chelmsford, Mass., came on to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pelham's sister, Mrs. White. They intend remaining some time to visit friends here.

Dr. McLearn, of the Infantry school, Fredericton, was in town Tuesday on business connected with camp. The camp is not to meet this year until September, owing to the small-pox scare, I believe, but that has almost died out now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bardett and Miss Barnett left on Tuesday for Boston to make their home there. Mr. Barnett has been for many years a resident of Sussex and for over twenty years has been sexton of Trinity church. They had many friends and all will join in wishing them every happiness in their new home.

Mr. Sam Hoyt, St. John was in town today.

Miss Boal and Miss Taylor, returned this afternoon from Sackville for their summer vacation.

Dr. Thos. Walker, St. John, was in town on Tuesday.

The bride was dressed in a gown of cream silk, with trimmings of German lace, and was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents. The young couple left immediately after refreshments were served for Beaver Bank where they will reside in future.

Mr. Edward Anderson and his sister, Miss Mary Anderson, are making a visit to this city after an absence of over twenty years. Many were the friends who greeted them on their return.

Mrs. Norman Lee has returned from England, where she has been during the winter.

Mr. Louis Hesslien and wife have returned from the south, where they have been spending some months.

Mr. Clifford Smith intends going to Boston next week, where he will take part, it is said, in an interesting ceremony.

News has been received of the death of Mr. Andrew Irving, formerly of this city, at his residence in South Boston. Deceased was about forty five years of age.

DALHOUSIE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Dalhousie by Dugald Stewart.]

MAY 30.—Mrs. Wm. Mott of Campbellton was in town visiting friends last week.

Miss Bessie Stewart entertained a few of her friends on Tuesday night. Those invited were:—Misses B. Stewart (Campbellton) G. Haddow, H. Johnson, A. Stewart, M. Moffat, Messrs A. Ritchie, H. Johnston, Bert Blackhall, N. Stewart, S. Moffat. Dancing was the principal amusement.

Mrs. Cates of Campbellton is in town the guest of Mrs. C. Stewart.

The concert given by the members of Dalhousie Division S. of T. in the town hall on Monday evening was a grand success. A large sum was realized.

Miss Tena Haddow gave a party to a few of her friends on Friday night.

The members of the Band of Hope gave an entertainment in the Temperance Hall on Thursday. The affair was a success.

The members of Dalhousie Division drove to Campbellton on Monday afternoon to accept an invitation to be present at a social which was to be held at the Temperance Hall in Campbellton.

Miss B. Stewart, who has been visiting friends in town for the past week, returned to her home in Campbellton on Monday.

Rumor is prevalent that Mr. Wilson will open the Inch Arran house for a short time this summer

OTHELLO.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Charlottetown at S. Grey's Bazaar Co., and Carter's Bookstore.]

MAY 30.—Mr. and Mrs. James Unsworth, of Moncton who have spending a week or two here, returned home on Monday.

The many friends of Miss Florence Earle are delighted to have her home again. Miss Earle has spent the last two years in Sydney, C. B. I am sorry to say her stay in Charlottetown is but a short one, Sydney must certainly be very attractive.

Mrs. J. J. Davis returned home on Friday from a three weeks trip to Boston and New York.

The Misses MacDonold of Tracadie, who has been spending the winter in Montreal with their uncle Mr. W. C. MacDonald, arrived in Charlottetown on Thursday evening.

Mr. Ernest Earle of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, spent the Queen's Birthday in Summerside.

Miss Ethel Poole and Miss P. Large, have gone to Sackville to be present at the closing exercises of Mount Allison College. Before returning home Miss Poole will go to Halifax to officiate at the marriage of a friend.

Mr. Pitblado spent a day in Summerside last week.

Mr. Thomas Handrahan returned from Pictou on Thursday.

Mrs. S. M. Jenkins and Miss Bertie Jenkins were passengers on the Florida, for Boston, last Friday.

Mr. Raymond, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has gone to Yarmouth, N. S., and also to St. Stephen, to be present at the Y. M. C. A. convention.

Mrs. Ed Bell has returned from Summerside, where she has been for a few weeks.

I am glad to say that Mr. R. R. Fitzgerald has been given the Judgeship made vacent by the death of Mr. Hensley. Mr. Fitzgerald's many friends are delighted with the appointment.

Mr. Fred Davis arrived home from St. John last evening.

Miss Mary Wright has gone to Bedeque to see her sister, Mrs. Black who is ill.

On Wednesday evening the oddfellows gave a dance to all those who took part in the opera "Olivette". This was very handsome on the part of the oddfellows, a jolly evening was spent and all went away delighted with the dance and supper. I hear that "Olivette" is to be put on again some time in the autumn. This is certainly a good idea for it would draw a large audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Irwin spent the Queen's birthday at St. Eleanor's with Mrs. Irwin's sister, Mrs. F. M. Cannon.

Miss Edna Sinclair went to Summerside on the 24th.

Mr. John Ball, clerk of the house of assembly, died very suddenly of heart disease, Sunday evening Mr. Ball had been quite well except for what he thought was a little indigestion, and his death was a great shock to his many friends. On Sunday evening he went to church and attended to the usual Sunday duties. The funeral takes place on Wednesday.

Capt. Roderick Cameron died on Monday morning; he had been ill for some time, and it has been known that he could not live. Capt. Cameron will be much missed, for the cheery, warm-hearted captain of the Northumberland was widely known and very popular.

Mr. George Bagnall went to Summerside for the 24th.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Peter's church on Thursday morning when Mr. Robert H. Mason was married to Miss Minnie B. Waddel, the ceremony was performed by Rev. James Simpson. The bride was becomingly dressed in a neat costume of navy blue cloth.

Miss Stewart left on Saturday morning for England.

There is to be a Longfellow evening in St. Paul's schoolroom on Friday. The programme is a very tempting one.

The sad news has been received that Mr. Frank Longworth was killed in Idaho, on May 21st. Mr. Longworth left here a few years ago, and has many friends in Charlottetown.

A number of young people, chaperoned by Mrs. Wallie Clarke, drove to Thompson's mills in a large team that held all of the merry party, on the 24th. They were the Misses Emma Beer, Winnie Blake, Maud Henderson, Enid McLean, Carrie Unsworth and May Unsworth, Messrs. Goroon Alley, George Rogers, Jack Davies, Charlie Longworth, Arthur Weeks and Tom McLean. Judging from the gay laughter and chatter as they came home those young people thoroughly enjoyed their outing.

Miss Davidson had a large picnic at Kepock on that day. Indeed nearly everybody marked the day in some way.

It is hoped that Lord and Lady Aberdeen will visit Charlottetown some time in August, if so I am sure that things will be very gay during the days of their visit, it will waken people up to some extent.
