Convocation Exercises.

Convocation Exercises. The convocation exercises tonight were largely attended. They opened with prayer by Rev. J. A. Rogers, Fredericton, fol-lowed by an address by President Allison, who referred to the work done during the past year. The enrolment had been 146 and good progress had been made. He re-ferred to the McClelan school of applied acience and to the labely appointed Pro-fessors Sweetser and Watson. The __ni-versity quartette sang Until the Dawn, which received a rapturous encore. The singing of the quartette was one of the very best features of the closing this year.

year. Winthrop P. Bell, Halifax, delivered an
