

accompanied by his daughter, Phyllis, called on friends here yesterday.

Miss Susan Fraser, who has been in charge of the Ortonville school, has returned to her home here on account of the closing of the schools.

Mrs. Carruthers, New Denmark, returned home yesterday for the Easter holidays.

Invitations are out for a grand ball in the Opera House on next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Maple Leaf orchestra.

Miss Mary Hughes departed today for Fredericton where she will spend Easter with relatives.

Mrs. George Warnock, Drummond, is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Taylor.

Mrs. Eddy is seriously ill with a bad attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Louise Lyons, who has been visiting friends in St. John for the past fortnight returned home on Thursday.

Grand Falls, March 29—Fred Wade, who has been visiting friends in Toronto and Montreal for the past two weeks, returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Muller, a highly respected resident of Drummond, died yesterday after a brief illness, aged 70 years. Besides her husband, she is survived by five daughters, namely: Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. John Burgess, Mrs. Winifred Mulhern, Mrs. John Muller, and Mrs. John Muller, all residing in the parish of Grand Falls, and two sons—John Muller and Dennis Muller, both living at home. The funeral will be held from the Catholic church tomorrow.

Leslie May has sold his valuable farm in Kintore to Alexander Cocker, of Kintore, who disposed of his farm some months ago to Mr. Broad, of Carleton county.

John Hayman, St. Stephen, is visiting friends in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Caldwell, South Tisbury, are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends on the birth of a son.

Nine young people were confirmed in the Danish Lutheran church, New Denmark, on Palm Sunday.

Mrs. John Allen, Tobique Narrows, is confined to her residence on account of illness.

Miss Hattie Lovely, Tobique Narrows, departed yesterday for Bangor (Me.), where she will visit relatives for several months.

Samuel Wiley, of Glasgow, Scotland, who is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Hanson, at Tobique Narrows, for the past eight months, departed yesterday for St. John, whence he will take a steamer to return to the old country.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cole, Medford, are receiving the congratulations of many friends on the birth of a baby boy, many friends on the birth of a baby boy, many friends on the birth of a baby boy.

Miss Emma DeMerchant, Perth, is visiting Mrs. F. W. Olmstead here.

Mrs. Enoch Lovely, with friends in London, England, returned home last week.

Miss Emma M. Bird, who is studying nursing at the Boston Hospital in Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Bird, St. Leonard.

John Ray, Weaver, arrived a few days ago from England, landing in St. John, will reside with his aunt, Mrs. William Laffing, Weaver.

Harry Morgan and family have moved from Plaster Rock to Weaver, and will occupy J. H. Weaver's vacant residence.

Henry Duthie has sold his valuable farm in Lower Kinkardine to Wm. Brown of Upper Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Woodstock, are spending Easter with Mrs. Wade.

The court for the nomination of mayor and councillors was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. A. J. Martin was the sole nominee for mayor, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Ward 1—Henry Fraser, Oran B. Davis and Matthew Burgess.

Ward 2—Charles H. Curless, T. D. Parent and James Watson.

Ward 3—William D. Carter, John Siroir, Fred L. Dixon and Timothy Kelly.

Mayor-elect A. J. Martin held the same office a few years ago. There will be contests in every ward at the election next Tuesday promises to be a lively one.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, March 27—Rev. H. D. Marr, of Carleton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of England, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newcomb.

Miss Orr, of New York, who has been spending a few weeks with Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. F. M. Rutledge, newly appointed resident engineer on this division of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday.

Mr. G. G. Hare will leave for Kingston (Ont.) next week.

Miss Catherine Thorne, of St. John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones last week.

Miss Alice Corkery is at home very ill of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird arrived in town on Thursday after spending the winter in Toronto. They will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Robert McKinnon left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Dr. N. H. Colter, of St. John, was in town during a few days of last week.

Mr. Charles Dickinson has returned from Boston.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a drive and a turkey dinner at Newburg Junction on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Rankin, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Risteen.

Woodstock, March 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White over Sunday.

At a very happy event yesterday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Lillian Mott, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to William McKeown Montgomerie, Rev. W. C. Kirkstead, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and ferns. The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive presents, not the least of which was a handsome upholstered chair presented to the groom by the women of the small Faber Company.

Mrs. Montgomery will be at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Nearly all the men and apprentices in Dunbar's foundry went out on strike today. The grievance appears to be in the act of the firm bringing out five or six workmen from Scotland on a yearly contract, at $275 a day. The men claim that that wage is higher than they are receiving, and the Scotland men not being familiar with the work, or machines have not made good. The strikers ask for an increase in pay or the reduction of the imported workmen pay to the average received by the older men.

Thomas L. McCaffery, of the customs, has returned from a visit to the salt-guns in Edmundston and up river joints.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, March 28—At Kouchibouguac on Saturday, March 23, the death occurred on consumption of James Tat-

erson, son of the late Archibald Patterson, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased, who was highly respected by all who knew him, is survived by his mother, two sisters living in the United States, and one brother, at home.

John Clark, of Kouchibouguac, was operated on last week for appendicitis. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and little boy, who have been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for their home in Loggieville.

This morning Mrs. Martin Flanagan slipped on the ice and broke her arm.

Misses Mayne Murray and Elsie O'Leary came home yesterday from the Novato convent school to spend Easter at their respective homes.

Mrs. George W. Robertson came home from Bathurst on Tuesday.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

Bruce Brown went to Moncton on Tuesday.

On Tuesday Miss Martins arrived here from Saskatchewan to visit her father, Rev. J. R. Martins, who is in the hospital.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

James Twiss, son of John Andrew Twiss, of Kouchibouguac, who has been living in the United States for some time, arrived here by train Thursday afternoon on a sail. He brought with him the body of his wife (Mrs. Sarah Carter, daughter of William Carter, of Kouchibouguac, which he was taking home for interment.

MARCOURT

Marcourt, March 29—Miss Ruth Thorne and Ethel Cull returned from Fredericton yesterday, where they have been attending the Normal school.

Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks spent part of Saturday in Moncton.

Miss C. Ward is visiting friends in Moncton.

John Walker, who has been spending some time in Moncton, returned to day.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 29—Next week will see track work begun on the Intercolonial Railway and the station house repairs will also be under way.

C. B. Foster arrived here yesterday and leaves this afternoon for Toronto with his wife and daughter.

Fred Pierce met with a severe accident while taking off the double windows from Senator Doherty's residence. His ladder slipped on the ice and he was up some distance, fell and cut his head so badly that several stitches were necessary.

John Ray, Weaver, arrived a few days ago from England, landing in St. John, will reside with his aunt, Mrs. William Laffing, Weaver.

Harry Morgan and family have moved from Plaster Rock to Weaver, and will occupy J. H. Weaver's vacant residence.

Henry Duthie has sold his valuable farm in Lower Kinkardine to Wm. Brown of Upper Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Woodstock, are spending Easter with Mrs. Wade.

The court for the nomination of mayor and councillors was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. A. J. Martin was the sole nominee for mayor, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Ward 1—Henry Fraser, Oran B. Davis and Matthew Burgess.

Ward 2—Charles H. Curless, T. D. Parent and James Watson.

Ward 3—William D. Carter, John Siroir, Fred L. Dixon and Timothy Kelly.

Mayor-elect A. J. Martin held the same office a few years ago. There will be contests in every ward at the election next Tuesday promises to be a lively one.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, March 27—Rev. H. D. Marr, of Carleton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of England, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newcomb.

Miss Orr, of New York, who has been spending a few weeks with Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. F. M. Rutledge, newly appointed resident engineer on this division of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday.

Mr. G. G. Hare will leave for Kingston (Ont.) next week.

Miss Catherine Thorne, of St. John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones last week.

Miss Alice Corkery is at home very ill of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird arrived in town on Thursday after spending the winter in Toronto. They will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Robert McKinnon left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Dr. N. H. Colter, of St. John, was in town during a few days of last week.

Mr. Charles Dickinson has returned from Boston.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a drive and a turkey dinner at Newburg Junction on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Rankin, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Risteen.

Woodstock, March 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White over Sunday.

At a very happy event yesterday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Lillian Mott, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to William McKeown Montgomerie, Rev. W. C. Kirkstead, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and ferns. The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive presents, not the least of which was a handsome upholstered chair presented to the groom by the women of the small Faber Company.

Mrs. Montgomery will be at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Nearly all the men and apprentices in Dunbar's foundry went out on strike today. The grievance appears to be in the act of the firm bringing out five or six workmen from Scotland on a yearly contract, at $275 a day. The men claim that that wage is higher than they are receiving, and the Scotland men not being familiar with the work, or machines have not made good. The strikers ask for an increase in pay or the reduction of the imported workmen pay to the average received by the older men.

Thomas L. McCaffery, of the customs, has returned from a visit to the salt-guns in Edmundston and up river joints.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, March 28—At Kouchibouguac on Saturday, March 23, the death occurred on consumption of James Tat-

erson, son of the late Archibald Patterson, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased, who was highly respected by all who knew him, is survived by his mother, two sisters living in the United States, and one brother, at home.

John Clark, of Kouchibouguac, was operated on last week for appendicitis. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and little boy, who have been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for their home in Loggieville.

This morning Mrs. Martin Flanagan slipped on the ice and broke her arm.

Misses Mayne Murray and Elsie O'Leary came home yesterday from the Novato convent school to spend Easter at their respective homes.

Mrs. George W. Robertson came home from Bathurst on Tuesday.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

Bruce Brown went to Moncton on Tuesday.

On Tuesday Miss Martins arrived here from Saskatchewan to visit her father, Rev. J. R. Martins, who is in the hospital.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

James Twiss, son of John Andrew Twiss, of Kouchibouguac, who has been living in the United States for some time, arrived here by train Thursday afternoon on a sail. He brought with him the body of his wife (Mrs. Sarah Carter, daughter of William Carter, of Kouchibouguac, which he was taking home for interment.

MARCOURT

Marcourt, March 29—Miss Ruth Thorne and Ethel Cull returned from Fredericton yesterday, where they have been attending the Normal school.

Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks spent part of Saturday in Moncton.

Miss C. Ward is visiting friends in Moncton.

John Walker, who has been spending some time in Moncton, returned to day.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 29—Next week will see track work begun on the Intercolonial Railway and the station house repairs will also be under way.

C. B. Foster arrived here yesterday and leaves this afternoon for Toronto with his wife and daughter.

Fred Pierce met with a severe accident while taking off the double windows from Senator Doherty's residence. His ladder slipped on the ice and he was up some distance, fell and cut his head so badly that several stitches were necessary.

John Ray, Weaver, arrived a few days ago from England, landing in St. John, will reside with his aunt, Mrs. William Laffing, Weaver.

Harry Morgan and family have moved from Plaster Rock to Weaver, and will occupy J. H. Weaver's vacant residence.

Henry Duthie has sold his valuable farm in Lower Kinkardine to Wm. Brown of Upper Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Woodstock, are spending Easter with Mrs. Wade.

The court for the nomination of mayor and councillors was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. A. J. Martin was the sole nominee for mayor, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Ward 1—Henry Fraser, Oran B. Davis and Matthew Burgess.

Ward 2—Charles H. Curless, T. D. Parent and James Watson.

Ward 3—William D. Carter, John Siroir, Fred L. Dixon and Timothy Kelly.

Mayor-elect A. J. Martin held the same office a few years ago. There will be contests in every ward at the election next Tuesday promises to be a lively one.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, March 27—Rev. H. D. Marr, of Carleton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of England, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newcomb.

Miss Orr, of New York, who has been spending a few weeks with Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. F. M. Rutledge, newly appointed resident engineer on this division of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday.

Mr. G. G. Hare will leave for Kingston (Ont.) next week.

Miss Catherine Thorne, of St. John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones last week.

Miss Alice Corkery is at home very ill of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird arrived in town on Thursday after spending the winter in Toronto. They will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Robert McKinnon left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Dr. N. H. Colter, of St. John, was in town during a few days of last week.

Mr. Charles Dickinson has returned from Boston.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a drive and a turkey dinner at Newburg Junction on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Rankin, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Risteen.

Woodstock, March 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White over Sunday.

At a very happy event yesterday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Lillian Mott, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to William McKeown Montgomerie, Rev. W. C. Kirkstead, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and ferns. The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive presents, not the least of which was a handsome upholstered chair presented to the groom by the women of the small Faber Company.

Mrs. Montgomery will be at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Nearly all the men and apprentices in Dunbar's foundry went out on strike today. The grievance appears to be in the act of the firm bringing out five or six workmen from Scotland on a yearly contract, at $275 a day. The men claim that that wage is higher than they are receiving, and the Scotland men not being familiar with the work, or machines have not made good. The strikers ask for an increase in pay or the reduction of the imported workmen pay to the average received by the older men.

Thomas L. McCaffery, of the customs, has returned from a visit to the salt-guns in Edmundston and up river joints.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, March 28—At Kouchibouguac on Saturday, March 23, the death occurred on consumption of James Tat-

erson, son of the late Archibald Patterson, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased, who was highly respected by all who knew him, is survived by his mother, two sisters living in the United States, and one brother, at home.

John Clark, of Kouchibouguac, was operated on last week for appendicitis. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and little boy, who have been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for their home in Loggieville.

This morning Mrs. Martin Flanagan slipped on the ice and broke her arm.

Misses Mayne Murray and Elsie O'Leary came home yesterday from the Novato convent school to spend Easter at their respective homes.

Mrs. George W. Robertson came home from Bathurst on Tuesday.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

Bruce Brown went to Moncton on Tuesday.

On Tuesday Miss Martins arrived here from Saskatchewan to visit her father, Rev. J. R. Martins, who is in the hospital.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

James Twiss, son of John Andrew Twiss, of Kouchibouguac, who has been living in the United States for some time, arrived here by train Thursday afternoon on a sail. He brought with him the body of his wife (Mrs. Sarah Carter, daughter of William Carter, of Kouchibouguac, which he was taking home for interment.

MARCOURT

Marcourt, March 29—Miss Ruth Thorne and Ethel Cull returned from Fredericton yesterday, where they have been attending the Normal school.

Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks spent part of Saturday in Moncton.

Miss C. Ward is visiting friends in Moncton.

John Walker, who has been spending some time in Moncton, returned to day.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 29—Next week will see track work begun on the Intercolonial Railway and the station house repairs will also be under way.

C. B. Foster arrived here yesterday and leaves this afternoon for Toronto with his wife and daughter.

Fred Pierce met with a severe accident while taking off the double windows from Senator Doherty's residence. His ladder slipped on the ice and he was up some distance, fell and cut his head so badly that several stitches were necessary.

John Ray, Weaver, arrived a few days ago from England, landing in St. John, will reside with his aunt, Mrs. William Laffing, Weaver.

Harry Morgan and family have moved from Plaster Rock to Weaver, and will occupy J. H. Weaver's vacant residence.

Henry Duthie has sold his valuable farm in Lower Kinkardine to Wm. Brown of Upper Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Woodstock, are spending Easter with Mrs. Wade.

The court for the nomination of mayor and councillors was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. A. J. Martin was the sole nominee for mayor, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Ward 1—Henry Fraser, Oran B. Davis and Matthew Burgess.

Ward 2—Charles H. Curless, T. D. Parent and James Watson.

Ward 3—William D. Carter, John Siroir, Fred L. Dixon and Timothy Kelly.

Mayor-elect A. J. Martin held the same office a few years ago. There will be contests in every ward at the election next Tuesday promises to be a lively one.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, March 27—Rev. H. D. Marr, of Carleton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of England, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newcomb.

Miss Orr, of New York, who has been spending a few weeks with Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. F. M. Rutledge, newly appointed resident engineer on this division of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday.

Mr. G. G. Hare will leave for Kingston (Ont.) next week.

Miss Catherine Thorne, of St. John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones last week.

Miss Alice Corkery is at home very ill of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird arrived in town on Thursday after spending the winter in Toronto. They will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Robert McKinnon left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Dr. N. H. Colter, of St. John, was in town during a few days of last week.

Mr. Charles Dickinson has returned from Boston.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a drive and a turkey dinner at Newburg Junction on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Rankin, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Risteen.

Woodstock, March 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White over Sunday.

At a very happy event yesterday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Lillian Mott, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to William McKeown Montgomerie, Rev. W. C. Kirkstead, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and ferns. The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive presents, not the least of which was a handsome upholstered chair presented to the groom by the women of the small Faber Company.

Mrs. Montgomery will be at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Nearly all the men and apprentices in Dunbar's foundry went out on strike today. The grievance appears to be in the act of the firm bringing out five or six workmen from Scotland on a yearly contract, at $275 a day. The men claim that that wage is higher than they are receiving, and the Scotland men not being familiar with the work, or machines have not made good. The strikers ask for an increase in pay or the reduction of the imported workmen pay to the average received by the older men.

Thomas L. McCaffery, of the customs, has returned from a visit to the salt-guns in Edmundston and up river joints.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, March 28—At Kouchibouguac on Saturday, March 23, the death occurred on consumption of James Tat-

erson, son of the late Archibald Patterson, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased, who was highly respected by all who knew him, is survived by his mother, two sisters living in the United States, and one brother, at home.

John Clark, of Kouchibouguac, was operated on last week for appendicitis. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and little boy, who have been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for their home in Loggieville.

This morning Mrs. Martin Flanagan slipped on the ice and broke her arm.

Misses Mayne Murray and Elsie O'Leary came home yesterday from the Novato convent school to spend Easter at their respective homes.

Mrs. George W. Robertson came home from Bathurst on Tuesday.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

Bruce Brown went to Moncton on Tuesday.

On Tuesday Miss Martins arrived here from Saskatchewan to visit her father, Rev. J. R. Martins, who is in the hospital.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday for Montreal to visit friends.

James Twiss, son of John Andrew Twiss, of Kouchibouguac, who has been living in the United States for some time, arrived here by train Thursday afternoon on a sail. He brought with him the body of his wife (Mrs. Sarah Carter, daughter of William Carter, of Kouchibouguac, which he was taking home for interment.

MARCOURT

Marcourt, March 29—Miss Ruth Thorne and Ethel Cull returned from Fredericton yesterday, where they have been attending the Normal school.

Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks spent part of Saturday in Moncton.

Miss C. Ward is visiting friends in Moncton.

John Walker, who has been spending some time in Moncton, returned to day.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 29—Next week will see track work begun on the Intercolonial Railway and the station house repairs will also be under way.

C. B. Foster arrived here yesterday and leaves this afternoon for Toronto with his wife and daughter.

Fred Pierce met with a severe accident while taking off the double windows from Senator Doherty's residence. His ladder slipped on the ice and he was up some distance, fell and cut his head so badly that several stitches were necessary.

John Ray, Weaver, arrived a few days ago from England, landing in St. John, will reside with his aunt, Mrs. William Laffing, Weaver.

Harry Morgan and family have moved from Plaster Rock to Weaver, and will occupy J. H. Weaver's vacant residence.

Henry Duthie has sold his valuable farm in Lower Kinkardine to Wm. Brown of Upper Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Woodstock, are spending Easter with Mrs. Wade.

The court for the nomination of mayor and councillors was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. A. J. Martin was the sole nominee for mayor, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Ward 1—Henry Fraser, Oran B. Davis and Matthew Burgess.

Ward 2—Charles H. Curless, T. D. Parent and James Watson.

Ward 3—William D. Carter, John Siroir, Fred L. Dixon and Timothy Kelly.

Mayor-elect A. J. Martin held the same office a few years ago. There will be contests in every ward at the election next Tuesday promises to be a lively one.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, March 27—Rev. H. D. Marr, of Carleton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of England, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Newcomb.

Miss Orr, of New York, who has been spending a few weeks with Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. F. M. Rutledge, newly appointed resident engineer on this division of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday.

Mr. G. G. Hare will leave for Kingston (Ont.) next week.

Miss Catherine Thorne, of St. John, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones last week.

Miss Alice Corkery is at home very ill of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baird arrived in town on Thursday after spending the winter in Toronto. They will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. Robert McKinnon left on Monday for his home in Edmonton, Alberta.

Dr. N. H. Colter, of St. John, was in town during a few days of last week.

Mr. Charles Dickinson has returned from Boston.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a drive and a turkey dinner at Newburg Junction on Saturday evening.

Mr. R. Rankin, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Risteen.

Woodstock, March 28—The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White over Sunday.

At a very happy event yesterday afternoon when their eldest daughter, Lillian Mott, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to William McKeown Montgomerie, Rev. W. C. Kirkstead, of the United Baptist church, in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and ferns. The newly married couple were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive presents, not the least of which was a handsome upholstered chair presented to the groom by the women of the small Faber Company.

Mrs. Montgomery will be at home next Tuesday and Wednesday, afternoon and evening.

Nearly all the men and apprentices in Dunbar's foundry went out on strike today. The grievance appears to be in the act of the firm bringing out five or six workmen from Scotland on a yearly contract, at $275 a day. The men claim that that wage is higher than they are receiving, and the Scotland men not being familiar with the work, or machines have not made good. The strikers ask for an increase in pay or the reduction of the imported workmen pay to the average received by the older men.

Thomas L. McCaffery, of the customs, has returned from a visit to the salt-guns in Edmundston and up river joints.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, March 28—At Kouchibouguac on Saturday, March 23, the death occurred on consumption of James Tat-

erson, son of the late Archibald Patterson, in the 84th year of his age. The deceased, who was highly respected by all who knew him, is survived by his mother, two sisters living in the United States, and one brother, at home.

John Clark, of Kouchibouguac, was operated on last week for appendicitis. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and little boy, who have been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for their home in Loggieville.

This morning Mrs. Martin Flanagan slipped on the ice and broke her arm.

Misses Mayne Murray and Elsie O'Leary came home yesterday from the Novato convent school to spend Easter at their respective homes.

Mrs. George W. Robertson came home from Bathurst on Tuesday.

Misses Mayne and Marguerite O'Leary left yesterday