NEW YORK, Oct. 23. A CHAPTER OF NEW YORK CRIME. Five masked men entered the house of William Russell in Troy at 8 o'clock last night. They bound and gagged the mether of Mr. Russell, who is seventy years of age, and then ransacked the house. They secured about $100 worth of booty. The men thought that Mr. Russell had a large amount of money in the house, and that they could easily secure it.

This morning Albert O. Crocker and Charles Shaw, two delegates to the De. tion, entered an Italian barber sloop in Brooklyn, kept by one Dombraggio, and proceeded to demolish the furniture, etc., and when interfered with by the proprietor and assistant, set apon them. The barber's head was laid open by a blow, and the assistant wounded severely. Dombreggio seized a pair of large shears and plunged them in Crocker's abdomen, causing his entrails to protrade. The assistant meanwhile attacked Shaw with a sabre, cutting off half his nose and otherwise wounding him seriously though not tatally. The physicians pronounce Crocker's wound fatal.
