Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of a physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease.

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease: but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, a d well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON,

Dear Sirs, I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, but now, after taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

I am, sirs, yours respectfully,

JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after try ng every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to to try it; and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours.

JAMES L. DAGGER, Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the last two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, and experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly removes the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!!

This medicine is for sale at all the druggists through Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it to

SONNET.

[Contributed to the TRIBUNE.]

Among the many visions of the past
On which I love to ponder when the day
Has rolled from earth its golden car away,
And night spreads o'er the world its pinions vast,
One comes before me which shall be the last
To cheer me with the brightness of its ray,
When to the friends a last adieu I say,
Who sorrow at my side with looks o'ercast.
It smiles upon me with a tender grace—
In my life's clouded firmament a star
That beams with fadeless splendor from afar,
Piercing the deep intensity of space,
And soothing me when sorrows deepest are—
Love, 'tis the vision of thy sainted face.

St. John, Dec. 16, '74. JAMES YOUNG.

THE KING OF NO-LAND. (See 4th page.)

A Lively Corpse.

Over in Wilmington, the other day, a man named William D. Shuckers died. It seems that there was another man in the city bearing precisely the same name, and when the death was announced a good many of his friends thought he was dead, and they resolved to go to the funeral. On the day of the funeral the living Shuckers also thought he would go, partly for the purpose of ascertaining how it felt to participate in the obsequies of a man named Wm. D. Shuckers. He took up a position in the vestibule, and just as the mourners were about to come out, a friend of his, named Jones, saw him. The first impulse of Jones was to rush through the kitchen, and climb suddenly over the back fence; but he controlled himself, and after poking Shuckers in the ribs with his umbrella to determine positively that he was not a ghost, Jones remarked:

"Why, Shuckers, what on earth are you doing here? Why ain't you in your coffin?"

"Coffin!" exclaimed Shuckers, "what do you mean? What do I want with a coffin?"

"Mr. Shuckers, you know you are dead. Why, they got up all this gorgeous funeral for you, all these carriages and things, and the clergyman's just been paying you splendid compliments that any dead man might be proud of."

"But I tell you I'm not dead. I'm as much alive as you are."

"There is no use of arguing the point, Shuckers; the occasion is too solemn for controversy. But if you have any consideration for the feelings of your bereaved family who are weeping like mad, up stairs, and for the undertaker who is waiting inside there with the screwdriver, you will go and get into your coffin and behave. It's indecent to carry on so at your own funeral."

"Jones, my boy," said Shuckers, "you have mistaken—"

"No, I'm not mistaken. You're dead, technically dead, anyhow. It has been announced in all the papers, your relations have gone into mourning, the Board of Trade has passed resolutions of regret, the sepulchre has been dug up there in the cemetery, and the undertaker has gone to considerable expense to inter you comfortably. Now, go and lie down, won't you?"

"Hang the undertaker," said Shuckers. "No, I'll not go and lie down. I'll see you in Kansas first.

"Now, see here, Shuckers; I came here to attend your funeral, and I'm not going to be baffled by any unseemly conduct on the part of the corpse. Oh, you needn't look mad at me!—either you get back into that coffin so's the lid can be screwed on, and the procession can move off, or I'll put you in there by force. If inanimate remains like you can go scooting 'round in this incendiary manner, we'll soon have the cemeteries unloading and the unnumbered dead crowding out and wanting to vote."

Then Jones called the undertaker, who knocked Shuckers down with a cane and held him until he explained, and until the scared undertaker recovered his equanimity which left him at the bare suggestion that the corpse was loose. Then the funeral moved on to the cemetery and Jones went home, while Shuckers proceeded to an alderman's office to swear out a warrant against the undertaker for assault and battery. He intends to change his name to Duyknick.—Max Adeler in Danbury News.

A Horrible Double Tragedy.

BOSTON, Dec. 13.—A horrible double tragedy was enacted this afternoon at Charlestown. Wm. H. Jones, of Somerville, killed Mrs. O. R. Barry at her residence, 56 School street, Charlestown, and immediately after cut his own throat. Jones was married and had grown up children. The two families were very intimate and considered highly respectable. The deed was doubtless premeditated as it was done with a razor which he took with him from his home in Somerville. There were no witnesses to the terrible affair, the balance of the Barry family being absent at church. The bodies were found about 3 o'clock by a son of the murdered woman. They were lying on the floor about four feet apart, each with the throat cut. No cause is assigned for the act.

The trial of three men for the murder of a former President of Peru named Balt, after lasting upwards of two years, has terminated in the conviction of the accused. One of them, Espinosa, has been senteneed to 15 years' imprisonment, and Najar and Patino have to draw lots for life, as one of them must be shot.

Mr. Ben. Wait, associate editor of the Lumberman's Gazette, of Bay City, Mich., has arrived at Ottawa. He claims to be interested in the Randall estate, Hull, through his wife. His has been an adventurous life. He was one of the rebels of 1837, and was sentenced to be hanged. The day of execution was fixed and even the hour. His wife proceeded to Quebec, although she had only nine days to make the trip in, and returned with a reprieve from the Governor General just in time to save her husband from death. Ever since then Mr. Wait has been a woman's rights man. He was sent to Van Dieman's Land, where he remained four years, a greater portion of which time he was secretary to Lady Franklin. On his return to America he was wrecked off the coast of Brazil, and he spent some years in that country. He has travelled nearly all over the whole continent, and he is yet a hale and active old man. This is his first visit to Ottawa for half a century, and he is surprised at the city that has been built up in that time.
