There will be rain on this day or immediately after the moon's change. The aspects favorable to some days of wet. Wind and storm, with changes.

11th Sunday after Trinity.
Settled for fair weather.
Grand harvest time.
Very warm days and abundant harvest.
The nights cool, but yet the days are warm.

12th Sunday after Trinity.
Changeable but fair.
Dull and threatening.
Observe the moon and be sure there will come change and unsettledness.
St. Bartholomew.

13th Sunday after Trinity.
The weather has been warm but now begins to be cool.
The night pleasant.
The harvest pretty well in.
Rather changeable and very dull ending.

A Manchester girl wants to know if the woman's rights movement includes the right to do the courting. If it does, she is in for it, as the men in her vicinity are very bashful. There is something practical in that.

What is worse than raining cats and dogs? Hailing omnibuses.

Game is very plenty on the Pacific road—that is, euchre and seven-up.

"Can you return my love, my dear Julia?" "Certainly, sir; I do not want it, I am sure."
