FRANKTOWN.

Special to THE HERALD.

March came in like a lamb on Thursday last, but on Monday it was a real case of "The Wind was blowing, blow," in one of the worst blizzards of this old-time winter. Roads are filled full in consequence and there are many deep drifts to impede the traveller.

Notwithstanding the fury of the tempest, communication with this busy little centre has been kept open by road and rail, by rural phone and rural mail right along.

Refreshments were served at the close, and a very pleasant and happy social hour was spent.

PERTH.

From the Courier.

Mr. Henry McCumisky of Drummond, was taken to a hospital in Smiths Falls on Saturday afternoon, last, suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Herman Shirley fell at her own doorstep, Glasco street, on Monday evening, and broke her left arm at the shoulder. Dr. Meighen attended to the fracture, which was quite a serious one.

Mr. John Doyle of town, has received word from the Record Office, Ottawa, that his son, Pte. Everett Doyle, who was seriously wounded on November 1st in the limbo, has had the honor of having the Military Medal conferred upon him for bravery on the battlefield. Everett Doyle is the first Perth boy to win military honors during this war. He went overseas in April of last year with the Seaforth Highlanders of Vancouver, and was in the trenches some three months when he received wounds which are still confining him to a hospital in England.

Our honored and greatly beloved townsman, Mr. William Meighen, passed away to his last resting place on Thursday forenoon. On Friday last he was at his accustomed place in his store and office, but then or shortly after he was attacked by that dreadful disease, pneumonia, and less than one short week the end came, all the skill of the local doctors and a noted specialist, Dr. Martin, of Montreal, proving of no avail to ward off the final summons. Thus passed from among us a citizen in whom there was no guile—a gentleman in every particular, an honest, reliable man whom to meet was always a pleasure, and a type of citizen and business man whom the best could not excel. His memory will live long with his fellow townsmen and with thousands in the country whom he met as customers, and in numerous cases as an advisor. Mr. Meighen was born in the country of Londonderry, Ulster, Ireland, and came with his parents and his brothers to Canada something after the year 1840, the family settling on a farm in the Township of Drummond. In 1849 he started business for himself. Deceased and his brother Robert went into partnership about 1870. Mr. Meighen's age was eighty-two years. He was a Presbyterian, and a member of St. Andrew's church. He was Conservative in politics, and the President of the South Lanark Association for years back. He was Mayor of the town more than one term, and a member of the Town Council for a long period.

Edward N. Mortimer a Brockville G.T.R. engineer, who died last week, requested that people inclined to spend money on flowers lay instead the money on his coffin to be given to the Belgian Relief Fund.

Nyal Sarsaparilla

Cleanses the Blood and makes it nourish the body.

The duty of the blood is to restore and renew the tissues of the body as they wear out. Unless the blood is pure and full of oxygen corpuscles it does not perform this function properly, and you feel out of sorts, tired and run down.

If that is your condition or if you are worried by skin eruptions, get a bottle of

Nyal Sarsaparilla

It will cleanse the blood, and the pure renewed life-giving stream it will cause to flow through your arteries will give you a new energy, a clear brain, bright eyes and the springy step of perfect health.

Does Not Want Country Helpless and Contemptible.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Wilson Sunday night informed the country in a statement that he is without power to arm merchant ships and take other steps to meet the German submarine menace, in the absence of authority from Congress, and that he was mistaken when he said in his recent address that "he could act under broad constitutional authority."

An extra session of Congress, the President says, is required to clothe him with authority, but it is useless to call one while the Senate works under the present rules which permit a small minority to keep an overwhelming majority from acting.

The President proposes, therefore, that the special session of the Senate which he has called to meet tomorrow revise the rules "to supply the means of action and save the country from disaster."

"A little group of willful men," says the President in his statement, "representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great Government of the United States helpless and contemptible."

Twelve Senators, led by Senator La Follette, and instigated by Senator Stone, Democratic Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, in a filibuster denounced by President Wilson's spokesman as the most reprehensible in the history of any civilized nation, defied the will of an overwhelming majority in Congress up to the last minute Sunday and denied to the President a law authorizing him to arm American merchant ships to meet the German submarine menace. Unyielding throughout twenty-six hours of continuous session to appeals that their defiance of the President would be humiliating to the country, uncompromising in a crisis described to them as the most serious to the nation since the Civil War, La Follette and his small group of supporters refused a majority of their colleagues an opportunity to vote on the armed neutrality bill, and it died with the sixty-fourth Congress at noon Sunday.

To fix responsibility before the country, seventy-six Senators, thirty Republicans and forty-six Democrats signed a manifesto proclaiming to the world that they favored passage of the measure. This declaration, embodied in the record of the Senate, referred to the fact that the House Thursday night had passed a similar bill by a vote of 403 to 13, and also recited that the Senate rule permitting unlimited debate gave a small minority opportunity to throttle the will of the majority.

AUSTRIAN CHIEF DISMISSED.

Von Hotzendorf Was a Special Pet of the Kaiser.

LONDON, March 5.—Emperor Charles of Austria has dismissed Field Marshal Conrad von Hotzendorf, Austrian Chief of Staff, according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam. Baron Strauszberg succeeds von Hotzendorf.

Field Marshal von Hotzendorf has been one of the leading military figures of the dual kingdom for a number of years and has played an important part in almost all the major operations of the Austrian-Hungarian forces since the outbreak of the present war. He has been credited with being one of the few Austrian Generals who are high in favor in Berlin, and in May, 1915, was decorated with the Order of Pour le Merit by the German Emperor.

Flemish National Hopes.

LONDON, March 5.—The aid of Germany in establishing the independence of Flanders was promised by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, to a deputation representing the Activist Flemish party which visited him, according to a despatch from Berlin received in Amsterdam and transmitted by Reuters. The independence of Flanders would be on the basis of Flemish language and civilization. The Imperial Chancellor is said to have told the deputation that the movement had the approval of the German Emperor.

"Measures are under way," Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg is reported to have added, "which aim at giving the Flemish nation the opportunity hitherto denied—free cultural and economic development—thereby laying the foundation of the independence which it hopes to gain, but which it can hardly attain by its own strength. The united efforts of the German authorities and the Flemish people will succeed in attaining the desired result."

Styles Must Not Change.

LONDON, March 5.—The German Imperial Clothing Committee has issued a warning that styles in women's clothes cannot be allowed to change every six months, according to an Amsterdam despatch to The Exchange Telegraph Co. The committee says women may wear winter dresses throughout the coming summer and winter without disgrace, and that drastic measures will be taken against a change in fashion, and the consequent waste in materials.

Ammunition Barges Sunk.

LONDON, March 5.—The Admiralty announces that in the Mesopotamian operations the river gunboats Tarantula, Mantis, and Moth came into contact and passed the Turkish army while it was retreating to the westward of Shumran on February 26. The gunboats inflicted heavy losses and captured or destroyed four Turkish steamers and a number of barges full of ammunition. The gunboat Firefly was recaptured.

Dr. G. F. Matthews, St. John, is awarded the Murchison medal and a cheque by the Royal Geological Society for valuable services in connection with the geological research in New Brunswick.
