

Poetry.

From the Port Hope Echo.

HOPES AND PRAYERS FOR IRELAND.

AWAKE my country, with thy harp, attune thy Lyre once more; And softly sweet how songs repeat which thou wert wont to sing. E'er yet Rome's blood blighting cloud, o'ershadowing the scene; Darkened the splendor of thy shield, and sullied its fair sheen. Awake, my harp, awake and cease to dream of endless sighs; For glorious hours await thee yet, Hope's dawning o'er thy skies, Thy long dark night's waning now; and see, the shadows grey Are gathering round thy lonely couch; arise 'twill soon be dry. Then lift thee up, and chase each doubt away with all thy powers: The Harbinger of joy is come; the Bow of Hope appears. 'Tis arching o'er thy horizon, with pledges from His hand, Who formed thee, and the Islands fair, my own loved native land. Light from His blessed Word pours down, it comes with power to thee; Awake and hear the joyful sound: the truth shall make thee free: Free from the tyrants of the soul, blind leaders of the blind: Free from the Incubus of Rome, the Despot o'er the mind. O'er thy loved scene's God's Spirit broods, and error's gloom dispels: While Gospel light is pouring forth its glory thro' thy dells, Fresh impulse to thy soul it sends, new life thro' every vein: A Holy Isle wert thou of old, and thou shalt be again. Thine ancient Church, like burnished gold bath in the furnace been: And seven times tried it now shines forth in holy radiance seen. Not founded on a crumbling stone, but on the sure and tried: The Lord of light, and life, and love, our Jesus crucified. Dear Father land, bright hopes arise, while far across the sea. I bow me at the Throne of Grace, in earnest prayer for thee.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool dated August 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About ten years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse whereby he received very serious injuries, he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly ten years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsboro', dated 1st March, 1852.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1842.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31 Diller Street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied with a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states, that in a wonderfully short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists Bath.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Plover, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.
