Presnttery of Qeenec.-The call from the congregation of the St. Gabriel Strect Church, Montreal, to the Rer. Thomas G. Smith, of Melbonrae, to become their pasior, haring been considered, and commissioners from 3elbourne haring been heard, it ras resolved that the call be not sustained. Mr. Smith haring left the whole matter in the hands of the Presbytery for decision, they resolred, that in the present circumstances of the Enstern Townships Mission, it would not be expedient that the tranglation be made.

St. Gabmal Straet Cherchi, Momtreal.-By the decision of the Presbrtery of Quebec, the call of the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Melbourne, hns not been sustained. It is unfortunate that the settlement of a pastor in this charge should thus be delaged, but the congregation has resolied to lose no time in endearouring to secure a suitable minister. In the meantime services are regularly continued, and it needs only the presence of an energetic clergyman to render this a most raluable charge.

Beatinarnols.-Anivel Retort.-The Annual Report of the congregation of Beaubarnois is short and to the point. It shows a prosperous state of affairs; a united congregation, and zealous office-bearers. During the last year extra calls have been made upon the liberality of the congregation, which anpear to hare been cheerfully met, in addition to all the usual obligations being fully discharged. Last year the number of pews let were the highest for the five years which are giren in the zeport for the sake of comparison. The session account shows an expenditure of $$ 199.72$ for ordinary and extraordinary expenditure, and for sabscriptions to the different missions, learing a small balance in band. The Trustecs' account shews expenditure for the manse, and a sum for ornamenting the church-yard, amounting in all to $$ 213$, leaving a balance in hand of $$ 109.33$. There is the final instalment of $$ 200$ due on the manse on the 1st Norember next, towards the payment of which this balance is applicable. When that is paid, the congregation will be free of all debt. An appendis, shewing the names of perwholders, number of seats taken, &c., makes a very complete report, and one which must be highly gratifying to pastor and people.

Kincardine.-Presentation to the Rev. Mir. Dawson.-A short time ago the Bible Class in the congregation at Kincardine, presented their teacher, the Rer. Mr. Dawson, pastor of the charge, with a cops of the Bible as a token of their regard and esteem. On the ith of May, prerious to his leaving on a short absence, the ladies of the congregation, through the hands of Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. McKendrick, presented Mr. Dawson with an affectionate address, and requested his acceptance of the sum of fifty dollars, as an expression of their well wishes. Mr. Dawson returned thanks in affectionate terms. The rillage of kincardine is one of those spots which a fetr years ago mas hern out of the wilderness, and since its first establislument, has gone on rapidly increasing in wealth and population. The attachment Which exists between pastor and people is an assurance of continuance in well-doing.

Fisch.-We are pleased to learn that the Rererend Lfugi Lamont, who was inducted into the charge of Finch about a year ago, has received during the short period of his macumbency rarious substantial proofs from his congregation of the respect which thes bear to him, and appreciation of his ministerial serrices. Among others:-A parlour carpet from the Ladies; a sleigh from A. J. Cockburn, Esquire, marden of the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas, and Glengary ; and a whecled carriage from the members of the Congregation generally. Such gifts are excecdiagly creditable to the donors, as well as encouraging to the minister, and they are morthy of imitation by other Congregations, more especially in these times of high prices-io many of those Ninisters, "an augmentation of stipend," or its equiralent, the presentation of things really uscful and necessary, rould doubtless be highly acceptable, while thes could not fail to simulate to the more checrful discharge of duty, on behalf of those orer whom they have been placed in the Lorc, and to promote whose bighest good they hare deroted themselres.
