

FLOCKING TO HEAR MGR. CAPEL

A Large Congregation Addressed by the English Preacher...

New York, Aug. 6.—Yesterday was a great day in the Society of Jesus...

A large proportion of the congregation were not Catholics. Catholic clergymen dropped in from their own churches...

The musical portion was extremely fine, the singing by the choir of men and boys...

St. Francis Xavier's is a hard church to fill. It is broad and spacious and long.

After the chanting of the Gospel Father Frisbee announced in a few words the reason of the Feast, and then introduced the preacher.

The Church always emerges from her trials, she exulted, but at times she seems very dark.

The preacher showed the distinction between true and false liberty, the liberty to obey, to proclaim and recognize and defend...

And so God upheld His Church, and in her darkest days raised up men to strengthen and support the weak.

So besides the usual vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, Ignatius took the further one of complete submission to the Pope.
