

No.	Name.	Date.	SUBJECT.	Page
177	To M. Waddington ..	Mar. 10, 1890	Modus vivendi officially proposed for acceptance of the French Government ..	360
178	M. Waddington ..	11,	Accepts the modus vivendi on behalf of his Government ..	361
179	To Colonial Office..	12,	Modus vivendi . Requests that steps be taken for carrying it into execution ..	362
180	To M. Waddington ..	13,	Acknowledges receipt of No. 178. Colonial Office requested to take the necessary steps for carrying the modus vivendi into execution ..	363
181	Colonial Office ..	17,	Telegrams from Sir T. O'Brien recording protest of his Government and of both Houses of Parliament against the terms of the modus vivendi ..	363
182	" " ..	17,	Marking of fishing-vessels. Transmits copy of a despatch from Sir T. O'Brien. Suggests instructing the Governor to confer with Captain Sir B. Walker as to nature of measure to be adopted ..	364
183	" " ..	21,	Lord Knutsford's reply to No. 181. Modus vivendi does not prejudice any British or admit any French rights, but is merely provisional arrangement for one season, made necessary by conflicting claims ..	365
184	Lord Knutsford to Sir T. O'Brien	21,	Résumé of negotiations which led to the adoption of the modus vivendi , which, it is hoped, will be loyally acted upon by the people of Newfoundland ..	365
185	M. Waddington ..	22,	Acknowledges receipt of No. 92. French Government is taking steps for carrying out the modus vivendi on her part ..	367
186	Colonial Office ..	22,	As to erection of new French factories under the modus vivendi . Telegram from Governor, asking for information on certain points. Proposed reply ..	368
187	Earl of Lytton ..	26,	Transmits a report of a debate in French Senate on the Fisheries question ..	368
188	Colonial Office ..	29,	Governor of Newfoundland asks whether telegram sent in reply to his inclosed in No. 186 may be communicated to a Committee of both Houses. Reply sent ..	375
189	" " (A) ..	Apr. 5,	Transmits copies of correspondence with Governor-General of Canada as to right of Canadian lobster packers to carry on their industry on the Treaty Shore ..	376
190	M. Waddington ..	5,	Lobster-traps raised in St. Margaret's Bay. Reply to No. 163. French Government consider action of their naval officer justified. When no British man-of-war is on the spot, it is the duty of the French cruisers to enforce the rights of their fishermen ..	376
191	Colonial Office (B) ..	5,	Telegram from Sir T. O'Brien reporting the introduction into the Colonial Legislature of a Bill for the repeal of the Act for the suppression of cod-traps, and reply ..	380
192	" " ..	9,	Bait Act. Telegram from Governor of Newfoundland stating the conditions on which licence for the purchase of bait will be granted this year ..	380
193	" " ..	14,	Modus vivendi . Resolutions passed by both Houses of Newfoundland Parliament, and forwarded by Governor. Proposed reply. ..	381
194	" " ..	15,	Transmits copy of the Governor's speech in opening the Session of the Colonial Legislature ..	382
195	Admiralty ..	15,	Inquiry as to any special instructions to be given to British naval officers, who have been directed to exercise patience and discretion in carrying out the modus vivendi ..	384
196	Colonial Office ..	18,	Telegram from Governor stating that his Government are ready, under protest, to carry out the modus vivendi if restricted to status quo of the 1st July, 1889 ..	384
197	To Colonial Office ..	25,	Concurs in reply to Governor of Newfoundland proposed in No. 193 ..	385