SU wants to inform

by Ken Lenz

The Students' Union has launched a $2000 awareness campaign to take place within the next couple of weeks.

President Robert Greenhill says the campaign has two purposes.

"We are trying to inform students of the services we already have and how they can make better use of them," he says.

"We are also trying to get students to inform us on what they would like us to do." The bulk of the money will be spent on a SU information pamphlet and a full page ad in today's Gateway.

Greenhill says the SU Executive will be speaking in classrooms and hopes the 31 councillors will follow suit.

"In the past only a few people have bothered to speak in classrooms," he says.

The pamphlet and a questionnaire, asking students' opinions about the SU, will be distributed from booths throughout campus.

As well, the SU will begin distributing the Student-Saver Discount cards provided by CFS. These cards, free to all U of A students, can be used to get discounts at many businesses throughout Canada.

There will also be competitions held to replace the SU logo and to provide a new name for the SU operated pub, Dewey's.

"In a nutshell, it's a report," says Greenhill, "of our activities and generally to let students know what we are doing."

"If this campaign is successful we will be recommending it become an annual event," he says.

Meekison named VP

by Gunnar Blodgett

An administrative search committee has appointed Dr. J. Meekison of the Political Science Department to succeed Dr. R. Baldwin as the University Vice-President Academic.

President Myer Horowitz said he is "delighted that Meekison was willing to be considered. Horowitz added that in general he is pleased that Dr. Meekison decided to return from his years of service with the provincial government and also at the "number of colleagues willing to be considered" for the position.

Horowitz said Meekison was chosen over the other two "top notch" candidates because in the view of the search committee Meekison was capable of restoring "complete faith" in the University's operations.

Horowitz denied allegations that Meekison was hired because of governmental connections.

Meekison has been the Provincial Deputy Minister of Federal and Intergovernmental Affairs for the last seven years.

He says it was always his intention to return to the University and is "very pleased to be returning in this position and to be working with Dr. Horowitz."

While Meekison is returning to the University, Dr. Baldwin is taking an administrative leave which will lead into early retirement.

He says he is relatively pleased with his work over the past four and a half years.

University President Horowitz expresses similar pleasure, and says he will miss his senior Vice-President.

Meekison assumes his position July 1.
