An Evening Out with Roger Doris

Not everybody wants to go on New Year's Eve to a spot that has live entertainment and people shouting and celebrating.

Some like a nice evening, comprised of a good dinner and a few pleasant drinks, with maybe a little champagne at midnight.

If this is your desire, then the Olympic Flame on Dundas just west of Highway 427, looks like a good bet.

The Olympic Flame is serving roast beef, steak, filet, lobster and dover sole on the menu from $8.25 per person.

They will also provide noisemakers and hats to add the festive touch for the occasion.

On Christmas Day they will provide the same menu with the addition of the traditional turkey and Christmas pudding. The same price prevails with children charged $5.00. Once again they will have treats for both the children and the ladies. Dinner will be served from 2 pm til 10 p.m.
