

Judi-Ryan school in "Music Incorporated"

The Judi-Ryan School of Dancing classes, located in Erindale Community Hall, presented their annual dance recital entitled "Music Incorporated" May 29 in the Port Credit Secondary School.

The theme covered all types of music from the Minuet to the Tijuana Brass favorite, "What's New".

The students participating are residents of Streetsville, Port Credit, Mississauga, Brampton and Weston.

Master of Ceremonies was Jack Bateman, comedian, magician and illusionist. He introduced the show and presented his stage and TV act. Jack Ayre, pianist arranged all music and accompaniment.

Dances ranged from country style, polka, waltz, soft shoe, ragtime band, ballads and the Charleston danced by a class of nine mothers.

Baton classes were presented by instructor Miss Debbie Stretton of Port Credit. Miss Audrey Jesch, proprietor of Judi-Ryan School, conducted classes in tap, ballet, acrobatic and modern jazz, assisted by Miss Vicki Rawson and Janice Greenfield of Mississauga.

Entrance hidden at Brampton golf

Mississauga general committee last week turned down a suggestion that a flashing amber light be installed on the First Line

East outside Brampton Golf Club. Instead, it decided to recommend to town council that concealed entrance signs be put up.
