

British Legation, reception at, 51;
ball at, 124
Bugher, Mr., 52
Butler, Mr. Sigourney, 59
— Senator, 52, 50
Butterworth, Mr., ..

CALL, Senator, 52
Cameron, Major-General D. R., 33, 73

— Mrs. Donald, 57, 152
— Senator Donald, 57, 145
— Sir Roderick, 171

Canada, mission starts for, 86; rumour of Mr. Chamberlain's appointment as Governor-General, 138

Canadian Club dinner at New York postponed, 88; held at Brunswick Hotel, 169

Canda, Mr. C. J., 170

Carlisle, Speaker, 67

Carroll, Mrs. and Miss, 131

Carter, Madame, 52

Cartwright, Sir R., 96

Chamberlain, Mr. Austen, 198, 251

— Mr. D. H., 170

— Mr. Neville, 251

— Mr. R., 9

— the Misses, 251, 252

— the Rt. Hon. Joseph: his appointment, 1, 4; departure from Birmingham and his farewell speech, 9; a good sailor, 15; bored by attentions in smoking saloon, 16; interviewed on reaching New York, 18; guest of New York Chamber of Commerce, 28; remarkable feat of memory quâ a quotation, 28; dislike to being
"shadowed" by detectives, 29;
interview with an Irishman outside Delmonico's, 30; do.
with pressmen at Washington, 39; goes to *Dr. Jekyll and Mr.
Hyde*, 49; Miss Tiffany says
"he's just lovely," 50; first introduction to Miss Endicott, 53; visits the Great Falls of Potomac, 56; partakes of an orchid dinner given by Messrs.
Angell and Putnam, 58; at the conference, 62; dines with Col.

John Hay to meet Senators, 63; entertained at banquet by Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, 67; gives banquet to his American colleagues at the Arlington, 71; visits George Washington's home at Mount Vernon, 75;
visits Baltimore, 84; interview with pressmen at New York, 86; his rapidity in reading books, 89; interview with pressmen at Ottawa, 94; tries his hand at curling with Lord Lansdowne, 95; visits public buildings in Toronto, 99; guest of Toronto Board of Trade, and imposing speech at banquet, 100-112; bailed by a Birmingham man at Toronto, "Same old Joe," 113; attired in tarpaulin, goes under the Horseshoe Fall at Niagara, 114; his coolness in a dangerous incident at Niagara, 117; started life in the shoe trade, 117; visit to the Senate at Washington, 120; press allegation of abuse of Senate floor, 121; attends ball at Legation, 126; dines with Mr. Bayard, 128; dines with Col. John Hay, 128; attends reception at the White House, 129; dines with the President, 134; gives second banquet at the Arlington, 134; diagnosis of his character by palmistry, 135; his luck at Monte Carlo, 136; speaks into a phonograph, 136; his rumoured appointment to be Governor-General of Canada, 138; annoyed by scurrilous and unfounded press allusions to his attentions to Miss Endicott, 139; rebuffs an ill-timed speech by one of his guests, 143; his views on result of negotiations, 150, 161; his participation in the gaieties of the Washington season, 151;
his welcome at Philadelphia, 155; banquet by St. George's Society, and speech at Philadelphia, 156-163; recognises
"Sons of St. George" whom be