

J. M. J.
INSTITUTE
OF THE
BROTHERS of the CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS. ⁽¹⁾

PROSPECTUS

OF
Commercial and Industrial College.

This College has for object to impart to young men, together with the benefit of a Christian education, a thorough knowledge of the English Language, the French Language, commerce in all its branches, and whatever else may fit them for industrial pursuits.

The system of Instruction is both theoretical and practical; it includes, Religious Instruction, Reading, Penmanship, the English Language (Grammar, Analysis, Orthography, and Composition), and the French Language; Sacred History, History of Canada, United States, English, Ireland and the outlines of General History.

Geography, keeping pace with lessons in History.

Arithmetic, especially applied to Commercial and Industrial operations.

Book-keeping, according to systems used in the best business houses in the country.

Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Telegraphy, and National Philosophy are taught to the pupils when qualified.

Linear and Ornamental Drawing, Surveying, Navigation and Vocal Music.

Parents or tutors of the pupils can see them any day, but only during recreation hours.

(1) This Institute was founded at the close of the XVII. century by the Venerable John B. de la Salle, Priest, Doctor in Theology, and Canon of the Cathedral of Rheims. It was approved by our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XIII., on the 7th of February, 1724, and is incorporated in several Provinces of the Dominion of Canada. It numbers at present 1200 establishments and 12,000 Brothers, who give instruction to 400,000 children.