

"Brilliant Synthesis of the World's Peace Problems"

The Great Peace

By H. H. POWERS

Author of "America Among the Nations," "The Things Men Fight For," etc.

Cloth, 12mo, $2.25

"What shall be the terms of the peoples' peace — the Great Peace? What are the principles of that better statecraft which has been slowly and half unconsciously taking shape in the minds of those who through the will to victory have slowly won the right to will the world's peace? And what do these principles require in the way of concrete adjustments and arrangements among the mountains and the rivers and the seas where men have chanced to be born and have snugly nested themselves in the traditions, the prejudices, the loves, and the hates of a hundred generations?" It is with such questions as these that Dr. Powers is concerned.

"The necessity for speed laid upon the author found him amply prepared by study, travel, training and practice. However hurried his task of writing, his arguments and conclusions are manifestly results of long, earnest, soberly measured and carefully digested thought. Presented in the author's graphic, comprehensive and impressive style, they constitute, in effect, a clue to the vast labyrinth through which the Versailles conference must shortly wander distraught."

"The peace conferees took a dictionary and encyclopedia along for a library. They should add Mr. Powers' book — it would be helpful amid even a stock of universal knowledge." — The Philadelphia North American.

"The terms of peace to be agreed upon must be based on the fullest recognition of the special problems and wishes of the associated nations. The problem of problems is the control of the sea. . . . These questions are discussed with thoughtfulness and clarity, and a wide grasp of circumstances and difficulties." — The Detroit Free Press.
