

Forgetful of these desert plains,
Where horrid Winter reigns ?
From this distant northern clime,
Smiling now ! on thee I call ;
Swift on downy wings of time,
Haste, with ev'ry soft'ning gale ;
Haste, revive the drooping scene,
Robe the fields in cheerful green ;
Drive t' inhospitable shores,
Where the frighted Euxine roars,
Boreas, with his stormy train,
Despot of the Greenland main ;
With Favonian breezes blow,
Dissipate these clouds of woe ;
Rural scenes of joy display,
And chase the gloom of night away.

On the Zephyrs filken wing,
Mild, and gentle Power ! return ;
Fragrant sweets, and roses bring,
Wet with the purg'd dew of morn :
Wake to harmony and love
The songsters of the vocal grove ;
Give the tints of blooming hue,
Op'ning to th' enraptur'd view,
As the bright'ning prospect dawns,
To flow'ry fields, and verdant lawns :
Clad in winning, soft attire,
Ev'ry breast with love inspire ;
Banish Winter from the year,
Hoary Winter, and severe !
