SONNET TO APRIL.

HAIL, Queen of buds, conge. Now to the feather'd songsters nial April, hail! gladfome lay At thy approach, again the land. The kids and tawns, and sportive scapes smile, lambkins dance, As vigour heaves the softly As flits the swallow in the solar breaking foil; ray,
 Oh come attended by the south Or o'er the streams with circling ern gale. sweep doth glance.
