f the Throat and Lungs.

In diseases of the pul-sharp you will B flat.

A jolly Irishman being asked by a Frenchman how he could dance so lightly in brogans, replied, "They have Cork soles."

"What is the worst this g about riches?" or wondrous power to cure disease, its fame there's none can throttle; It's merits are not in the pun, but they are in the bottle.

All manner of painful and inflammatory diseases are promptly relieved by the extended as the solution. rewarded with a chromo.

HUMOROUS.

Music lesson—to be studied while walking the icy side walks. If you don't C

A party of vegetarians who were boarding at a water cure establishment, while taking a walk in the fields, were attacked by a bull, which chared them furiously out of his pasture. "That's your gratitude, is it, you great, hateful thing?" exclaimed one of the ladies, panting with fright and fatigue. "After this I'll eat beef three times a da."

It will be a surprise to many to know It will be a surprise to many to know that Washington Irving was a confessed orchard this f. Once, while picking up an apple in his own orchard, he was accosted by an urchin of the neighborhood, who, not recognizing him as the proprietor, offered to show a tree where he could get "some better apples than those." "But," said the boy, "we must take care the old man doesn't see us." "I went with him," said Irving, "and we stole a dozen of my own apples."

The story told about a little clergyman

The story told about a little clergyman whose bald head was just visible to the congregation when he got into the pulpit, preaching from the text, "Thou shalt see greater things than these," is more than matched by the old story from Boston of the late Dr. Parkman, when he preached his first serman in the high old. preached his first serman in the high, old-fashioned tub pulpit of Brattle street church. Very little of him was seen except the top of his head and his arms, which he waved about as he read, "Lo, it is I; be not afraid."

A Liberal Editor.

We were grieved to read the other day of the death one of Michigan's jolliest pioneer editors—almost the last man of a band who published weekles in the State when a coonskin would pay for a column "ad," and three bushels of corn dumped on the office floor stood for a year's sub-scription. Never a publisher was more scription. Never a publisher was more liberal with his space. It was hard work for him to charge for anything except the tax list and mortgage sales, and ne measured short even on them. One day in the years gone by, his paper copied an attack on a county official, and old Mark was dozing at his desk when the injured party stalked in and began:

"Your're a coward, sir—a—coward!"
"Mebbe 1 am," was the editor's compla centreply.

"And I can lick you, sir—lick you out of your winkled old boots!"

"I guess you could," answered Mark as he busted the wraper off his only exchange.

"I'm going to write an article calling you a fool, liar, coward, cur, slanderer and a body-snatcher, and go over to lonia and pay five cents a line to have it could be a line to have a line to have a line to have a line to have

"Hey?" queried the old man as he Yes, I'll pay five cents a line to have it

Say, let me tell you something," replied Mork. "I've got 200 more circulation than the Benner, and I'll publish your attack on me for two cents a line and take it out in mill feed or corn stales! Don't trot over to Ionia, when you can help build up your own town!"

Mark would have published it word for word, just as he said, and thrown in a cut of a horse or a stump puller free gratis, but the official cooled off.—Detroit Free

Chanfran's Little Joke.

Southern's present serious illness calls to mind Chanfrau's antipathy to the great Dundreary and his oft made asser-tion, that said comedian lowed his popularity chiefly to the advertisement sulting from his practical jokes. While suting from his practical jokes. While playing his last engagement in this city Chanfrau was disgusted at the smallness of his houses, and determined to perpe-trate some Southernish oddity that would set the papers talking about him, for Frank possesses one of those abnormally frugal minds not uncommon in rich actors which fully appreciates the economy of free advertising.
One evening, after his performance,

One evening, after his performance, Chanfrau carefully disguised himself in the swarthy complexion, black beard and hair and strangely cut clothes of a traveling Cuban, and repairing to Grimm's saloon he walked up to a table where were seated a group of press writers and critics. Addressing the dramatic editor of the dailies, Chanfran said, with a decided Chanfrau looked at the speaker steadily in the eye for same moments, but the latter was evidently perfectly serious. Finally concluding that he had accidentally chanced upon a junatic, who must be humored, the star said:

you are a practical joker, Chanfrau, you wouldn't be worth your salt."

Though the soil of Virginia grows the best tobacco leaf in the world, it does not all grow equal qualities. The production even of adjoining counties is often quite different, the one producing leaf which at once deteriorates if grown in the other. The leaf of the "Myrtle Navy" is the product of the choice sections of the State, which, through some combination of local influences, produce a better quality than an others. This is shown by its always commanding a higher price than any other smoking leaf. smoking leaf.

EQUIPPED WITH OUR NEW RAKE.

When we tell you the Imperial Harvester is the most perfect reaping machine made, we also lay before you the facts in order that you can judge for yourselves. Not only does this machine possess more valuable patented improvements than any other machine made, but in construction it is the simplest; in strength, and durability, combined with lightness, compactness, symetry of design, convenience in handling and capacity for performing extraordinary ranges of work with ease and perfection, it has no equal. It is adapted to work on any farm field, in any kind of grain, and it possesses advantages over all others, equipped as it is with both of the acknowledged perfect rakes now in use, either of which farmers can choose when purchasing.

Farmers, be not deceived by any statements made by agents anxious to sell you reapers of other makers. You now have the opportunity of purchasing the only perfect machine in the market, and do not let that opportunity slip from you.

The Imperial is sold under full guaranty that it is just as we represent it. You run no risk in buying it. It will do all we say, and more too. Therefore send in your orders at once. It costs no more to purchase now than it will at harvest time. By having your machine at home refore you require to use it, you will become so familiar with its construction and operation that when you begin harvesting you will be able to go right through without a single delay. This to every farmer is a matter of great importance.

Our agents will have sample machines at different points for inspection during the winter and spring months, where you can see them and leave your orders. Or you can send your orders to us direct. We will ship you a machine, and if it does not fulfil every representation we make concerning it, when you receive it, send it back and we wil return your order. This is the way we do business. In dealing with us you run no risk whatever. You want value f r your money, and we want your custom, and if we would keep your custom we must give you the worth of your money. When you buy the Imperial you not only have the best machine made, but you likewise have the cheapest, for the best is always the cheapest. The Im-PERIAL HARVESTER can be obtained only at the Globe Works, London, Ontario, or through the regular agents of the Company. Bear this in mind and order your machine now.

In your orders specify which rake you want, the "Johnston" or the "Imperial" rake shown in the above cut. Send for Illustrated Catalogue to
