DRINKING IS A DISEASE

but is curable, and there is nothing better in the world than the FITZ TREATMENT to accomplish that end. REV. CANON DIXON, 15 Toronto Street, Toronto, who handled it for years, has agreed to answer all questions about it. If proof is given that it has been taken according to directions, the money will be refunded if it has not done what is claimed for it, when treatment is ended. Write for particulars—absolutely confidential.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE CANADIAN CHURCHMAN

Girls' Friendly Magazine.

A periodical for all young women of the Church, and of special interest to the Girls' Friendly Society. A magazine for the home. It contains short, interesting stories and articles, and at present there is running through its columns an absorbingly entertaining serial by "Barbara Yechton."

Issued Monthly. Subscription, 50 cents per year.

The Girls' Kalendar for 1905.

We have a small quantity of these much sought-after Kalendar remaining. The usual features of interest have been continued, and the special theme treated this year is "The Christian Doctrine of Prayer," based upon the work of the Bishop of Vermont, and illustrated by reproductions from the great masters.

Price, 15 cents per copy. $1.50 per dozen.

SPECIAL OFFER

Until the supply of Kalendar is exhausted we offer the magazine for one year and Kalendar together for fifty cents postpaid.
