

party require longer time for trial and give security for his appearance, the Justice may, upon cause shewn on affidavit, adjourn the trial.

If the Plaintiff be a non-resident, and give security to pay such sum as may be awarded he may have a Warrant.

If an adjournment be made without the Plaintiff's consent, the Defendant to give security for his appearance and in default to pay the debt and costs.

a longer time then is first appointed by the Court to try the said cause, and will, if required, give sufficient security to appear and stand trial on such other day as shall be appointed, then the Justice is hereby impowered, upon sufficient cause shewn on affidavit, to adjourn the trial of such cause to any day he shall judge most convenient. PROVIDED ALWAYS, That where the Plaintiff, in any cause or action to be brought by virtue of this act, shall be a Non-resident of the county, and shall give security to pay such sum as shall be awarded in case judgment shall be given against him, that then he may have a Warrant returnable immediately. And if any adjournment be made without the consent of the Plaintiff, then the Defendant shall give sufficient security for his or her personal appearance on the day to which such adjournment shall be made, and in default of such appearance to pay the debt and costs if judgment shall be given, against him or her; and in default of giving such security the Justice shall proceed to trial without an adjournment.

Either of the parties to a suit after issue joined and is ore trial may demand a Jury—and the Justice, upon such demand, to issue a Venire.

Constable to return a panel of the Jury—

Jurors not appearing or not being approved, Constable to return others in their stead—

VII. And be it further enacted, That in every action that shall hereafter be brought by virtue of this act, it shall and may be lawful for either of the parties to the suit, or the Attorney of either of them, after issue joined (and before the Court shall proceed to enquire into the merits of the cause) to demand of the said Court that such action be tried by a Jury; and upon such demand the said Justice holding such Court is hereby required to issue a Venire directed to any Constable or other proper officer of the town or parish where the said cause is to be tried, commanding him to summon three good and lawful men being Freeholders of such town or parish where the said cause is to be tried, and who shall be in no wise of kin to the Plaintiff or Defendant nor interested in such suit, to be and appear before such Justice issuing such Venire, at such time and place as shall be expressed in such Venire to make a Jury for trial of the action between the parties mentioned in the said Venire; which Constable or officer shall, at the return of the said Venire, return a panel of the names of the Jurors he shall so summon by virtue thereof, and the said persons appearing, and approved by the Court, as indifferent, shall be the Jury who shall try the cause—PROVIDED ALWAYS, That where any of the persons returned in said panel do not appear, or appearing are not approved of as indifferent by the Court, that in such case the said Constable or other proper officer shall be directed by the said Justice holding such Court immediately to summon and make a return of the name or names of some other person