

Pure Olive Oil

Is more than a luxury—it is a food of the finest kind. It is the most nourishing, and best flesh-building tonic that can be taken, and is certainly easy to take. Pure olive oil is practically tasteless, and can be added to any salad with advantage. A tablespoonful taken three times a day will work wonders on any run-down system.

It is not expensive—we sell the first Italian oil for

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Thomas, when Laura Marguerite, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams, became the bride of Arthur Henry Leman, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room, beneath a beautiful floral bell, suspended in an arch entwined with smilax between two Gothic pillars, surmounted with Easter lilies, which formed a portal backed with palms, brides roses and tulips. The wedding march was played by Mr. Frank Phelps, organist of the William street Baptist church of this city.

Rev. D. R. Drummond, of Hamilton, in his clerical gown, performed the solemn service which robbed St. Thomas of one of its fairest daughters. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phelps, of this city. The bride is well and popularly known in this city. She has visited here several times.

The first society event of the post-Lenten season in St. Thomas was the marriage of Miss Blanche Muriel Ermattinger, daughter of His Honor Judge Ermattinger and Mrs. Ermattinger, and Mr. Maxwell Kennedy Moorhead, Consul of the United States of that city, which was celebrated in Holy Trinity church, followed by a reception at the bride's home. Venerable Archdeacon Arundel C. Hill, M.A., rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Pringle and Mrs. Creighton of this city. Mrs. Creighton was becomingly dressed in black, with white hat and hose, and Mrs. Pringle an exquisite creation of white and violet silk. Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead left for the east immediately after the reception, the bride being tastefully attired in a navy blue travelling suit with Tuscany hat. They will visit the principal cities of the Eastern States, and after about two weeks will return to St. Thomas, where they will remain until June, when Mr. Moorhead's term of office here expires.

TOO GOOD TO MISS

"Kerry Gow," an old favorite, comes to the Grand on Monday. It is the play in which Joseph Murphy won fame. He is surrounded with talented players, Joseph Murphy's own company, and it is safe to say that Grand patrons on Monday will witness one of the most enjoyable and entertaining productions on tour.

A CAMPBELLTOWN BUILDER SPEAKS

He Found Nothing to Equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for they Cured Him of His Trouble.

Mr. W. H. Wallace is a Well Man To-day, But he was Pretty Bad Before he got Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Campbelltown, N. B., April 16.—(Special.)—"It was a cold started my trouble," says Mr. Wallace, of this place. "I am a contractor and builder, and my work causes me to be out and exposed to all weathers, so I suppose, it was in that way I got cold. Any way it settled in my kidneys and made me pretty sick. I got lumbago in the back, cramps in the muscles, pains in the loins, shortness of breath, a dragging pain at the loins and my urine was thick with a dark sediment. Then I knew the kidneys were to blame, so I took Dodd's Kidney Pills and they soon put me in shape and cured me so that I have had no trouble with my kidneys since."
