Gib. Taylor, Joseph St., left for Hamilton today.

Dave Ingram, printer, Toronto, who has been spending the holidays here, returns home this evening.

Miss Lucy McKellar and Miss May Peate gave a well rendered duet in the First Presbyterian Church last evening.

There are two young boys who have a mania for stealing horses and bugles. A few weeks ago they drove away with Mr. Glasgow's horse and rig, last week they drove away with another, and yesterday morning they were again guilty of a similar offense. They took a horse and buggy belonging to Mrs. Cameron, from the Baptist Church sheds, and drove out to Charing Cross, where they were stopped and brought back to the city. They will in all probability be sent down for a while.

MONARCH OR REPUBLIC?

The Norwegian Government Will Resign if Monarchy is Defeated.

Christiania, Oct. 30.—The Storting sat until a late hour Saturday night, discussing a constitution.

Foreign Minister Loevald, in an important speech, said a Republican constitution would be intrinsically as valuable as a monarchical constitution, but he pointed out that Norway, being a well-established constitutional monarchy, generations of labor would be necessary to work out Republican institutions. A continuation as a monarchy, he added, would be the logical result of the policy of June 7 (when the Storting dissolved the union) and that otherwise Norway's international position would be hazardous.

Minister of Commerce Aretander said the Government would resign if this policy was defeated.

CHRIST CHURCH HARVEST HOME

Large Crowds Attend Special Services Held in This Church Yesterday

Rev. Dr. Marquis of Detroit Gives Excellent Discourse—Splendid Music by Choir

The harvest home services held in Christ Church yesterday were very largely attended both morning and evening and were highly successful from every point of view.

In the morning Rev. Robert McCosh, rector of the church, occupied the pulpit and gave an excellent sermon suitable for the occasion. In the evening Rev. Dr. Marquis, of Detroit, gave one of the ablest sermons ever delivered in Chatham, choosing as his subject "A shallow life," and taking as his text the parable of the sower, dealing particularly with the class of people represented by the shallow ground on which the sowers seed fell. He dealt with the so-called progress experienced in Canada and the United States, and pointed out the deplorable low condition of public and national morals, pointing out the necessity for a higher education of the mind and a deeper education of the soul.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity at the evening service, and it was found necessary to place chairs in the aisles in order to provide seating room for the vast crowds that sought admittance.

The music was of a special nature and was very keenly enjoyed by everyone. The large vested choir was present in full numbers and the choral singing was hearty and harmonious. Two extra numbers in the evening added greatly to the enjoyment of the service. These were solos by Miss Hope Rankin and Mr. Wilfred Smith. Miss McKellar sang very acceptably in the morning. Miss McKellar is always a favorite in Christ Church. Much credit is due the choir and the leader for the excellence of the musical portion of the services. Mr. John Smith presided at the organ in his usual good style. Mr. Smith is a promising young organist.

The proceeds of the day were highly satisfactory to the managers of the church.

STORE ROBBED

W. J. Kenny's Stationery Store Entered Last Evening—A Quantity of Stuff Taken

Chatham has still another case of petty thieving, which is causing considerable talk on King St. to-day. Some time last night some person or persons, at present unknown, entered W. J. Kenny's stationery store and decamped with about $4 in small change and various articles picked out of the show cases.

Policeman Henry Darr detected the robbery when he was trying the back doors last night. He found that someone had tried to force open the rear entrance to Mr. Kenny's store and, failing in this, had broken one of the back windows. Mr. Darr notified Mr. Kenny, who came over town at once.

Upon entering the store Mr. Kenny found that the cash register had been robbed of all the small change and the show cases had been gone through and the goods left in a disorderly condition. He was not able to make an estimate of the value of all the goods missing.

The burglar, whoever he was, is rather a joker in his way, for when he opened the cash register he rang up a "No Sale."

The police have, so far, been unable to obtain any clue as to who performed the deed.

INLAID

LINOLEUMS

The Inlaid Linoleums that we are featuring to-day are far in advance of the cork-make effects that are commonly known. They are made of a composition that hardens with exposure to the atmosphere; when they are laid, they must of necessity be pliable, but they become almost as hard and durable as tile, and will wear for twenty years. The patterns, which come in parquetry, tile, block, granite and floral designs go right through to the canvas. New Scotch Inlaid Linoleums, made by the New Walton Process, and thoroughly seasoned. These excel in "clearness" of design and clearness of coloring.
