THAT ONE THOUSAND FOR LIQUIDS.

We have never made any attempt to defend the Government for spending $1,000 in the purchase of intoxicants for the Vice Regal reception. We have no doubt but the Marquis is a moderate drinker, but it is our opinion that one thousand dollars worth of liquor would keep himself and his man servants and his maid servants, and all properly partaking of Vice Regal bounty, "on the spree" for a month. The Government members themselves did not try to defend the item, because they were well aware, that even though Robert Ritchie, Ex-President of the Temperance Union negotiated the purchase on behalf of his friend who does not live far from the Dufferin, theirs was the responsibility.

Some of the country newspapers have just heard about the item now, notably the Sackville Transcript, which paper is said to be issued from a large dairy situated on the back part of Mr. Pickard's meadow. That paper looks around for the responsible person in the transaction and country newspaper-like, gets a long way astray in its report. It asks, "Has the genial and jocose Adams—ho of the lively and 'janty' air—been questioned? Perhaps he could throw some light upon the subject."
It is said Mr. Pickard this spring is "raising" 23 calves, 14 of which are heifers, the balance of the male kind. If this is so, one is at a loss to know how he can waste his time in literary pursuits of such a nature as the above. Mr. Adams is as innocent of the Ritchie Rum transaction as is that big speckled calf that the Editor of the Transcript says he wouldn't "let any man have for $50."

AN ANNOYING WHISTLE.

Three mornings out of each week, fully one half the town is roused by the unearthly scream of the up river boat's whistle. It is first blown about a quarter past five, and those who sleep at all know that at this hour most people "turn over" for the morning's nap. It is quite impossible for any one from Temple's corner, on both sides of Queen street, up to Post Office corner, indeed up as far as York street to sleep the mornings the Florenceville goes up river. The people of Regent street have also complained about it, and one should listen particularly to the little less than imprecations of the disturbed travellers in the two principal hotels, the Queen and Barker. In the Barker notably, no one can sleep on the luckless morning this boat sails.

We do not wish to grapple with the proprietors of the Florenceville at all, but we do think after considering the matter, they will see their way clear to using a bell in the city, as all the other steamers do. The whistle is needed up river to notify the natives who may be buried a mile deep in the woods when the boat comes along, but there is no more need for the Florenceville to have a trumpet whistle, which gives us some faint idea of the instrument which it is said a certain angel will use on a certain day, than for any of the other boats to have one. The company publish their starting hours and that ought to be sufficient, but if the whistle be to wake up the few who go by the boat, it hardly fair to rouse the whole city at that unseasonable hour on their account. It is like a servant getting up in the morning, and hobnobbing through the domicile at such a rate as to waken the household. We believe the people disturbed by this boat, would willingly present the Company with a bell, if it would abate the nuisance.

We may again remind advertisers that their favours will be continued till the Editor receives notice in writing from properly authorized parties to discontinue the same. This condition has always been standing at the head of our paper, and we shall insist upon it.

LACHINE CANAL

NOTICE TO MACHINIST CONTRACTORS

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned (Secretary of Railways and Canals) will be received at this office until the arrival of the Eastern and Western Mails on THURSDAY, the 3rd day of JUNE next, for the construction of gates, and the necessary machinery connected with them, for the new locks on the Lachine Canal.

Plans, Specifications and General Conditions may be seen at this office on and after THURSDAY, the 20th day of May next, where forms of tender can also be obtained.
Parties tendering are expected to provide the special tools necessary for, and to have a practical knowledge of, works of this class, and are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and—in case of firms—except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the firm, and further, an accepted bank cheque for a sum equal to $250, for the gates of each lock, must accompany each tender, which sum shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted.
The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted.

For the due fulfilment of the contract, the party or parties whose tender is proposed to accept will be notified that their tender is accepted subject to a deposit of five per cent. of the bulk sum of the contract—of which the sum sent in with the tender will be considered a part—to be deposited to the credit of the Receiver General within eight days after the date of the notice.
Ninety per cent. only of the progress estimates will be paid until the completion of the work.
This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.
