A thousand rumors do not make one single fact

ALL of us want to believe the rumors regarding further reduction in footwear prices. If they were founded on fact—or even probability—we would have been ahead of Rumor in announcing the good news.

BUT rumor, as usual, ignores the one fact that controls the situation, that prices to the retailer are governed by the cost of raw materials and labor. High prices are not of our making or seeking. They have been imposed upon us and you by the tremendously increased cost of every single thing that enters into the making of shoes. And these high material costs, together with to-day's wage scale which govern and dictate our shoe prices, show no immediate tendency to permanently seek lower levels. That is why we cannot make any definite promise to you that our prices to the retailer will be any lower this season than those in effect for Spring, 1921, styles. Irresponsible Rumor ignores these facts—delights in "sensational news"—and, as is so often the case, hurts everybody indiscriminately until its falseness and viciousness become apparent. We appreciate our responsibility to you; we want to help towards cheaper living and we are earnestly striving to improve matters. We ask your confidence and belief to encourage us towards that end.

OUR advice to you—and we give it in all sincerity—is to BUY NOW any shoes you need for yourself or your family for Fall and Winter. Don't buy extravagantly or recklessly, but do so carefully and judiciously.

MONCTON BUILDING PERMITS INCREASE

Moncton, Oct. 27—So far this year Moncton has made a very creditable showing in the building line. Nevertheless, with all the building of the past few years, including this year's showings, there is still a big demand for houses in the city. Indications point to a considerable building programme in the city for next year. The permits issued during the present year amounted in all to 403, the value of which, as submitted by the applicants, amounts to $1,231,800. Of this amount single and double dwellings represent $606,750. Factories, warehouses, workshops, garages, stores, offices, additions, repairs and public buildings represent a total of $625,050.

DAVID J. BUCKLEY DIED ON FRIDAY

The death of David Joseph Buckley of Newcastle, one of the leading lumber operators of the North Shore, and one of the best known and most respected business men of the province, occurred (Friday) morning at six o'clock, after a long illness from anaemia. He had been in failing health for several years and had taken treatment in the United States and elsewhere. He returned home a few months ago, and had lately been considered improving with good prospects of complete recovery. Deceased was born at Chatham, N. B., December 27th, 1863, son of Donald and Katherine Power Buckley. His father was a lumberman and about forty years ago the family removed to Rogersville engaging in lumbering there. About nine or ten years ago deceased removed to Newcastle and built a big sawmill at French Fort Cove. Mr. Buckley was much respected by both his business associates and his employees. He was of a public-spirited and charitable frame of mind, a devout Roman Catholic and a Knight of Columbus. He was a valued member of Newcastle Board of Trade and interested in all civic problems. In politics he was a Liberal and held a prominent place in the party's council. Being an authority in forestry, he became a member of New Brunswick's first Forestry Board. Deceased's wife, who pre-deceased him by about seven years was Miss Mary Wellwood of Harcourt. He is survived by following children: Marguerite (Mrs. Donald B. Creighton), Newcastle; and Lee and Miss Yvonne, at home. Following brothers and sisters also survive: John D., Newcastle; William J., Methuen, Mass.; Mrs. Katherine Harnett, Moncton, and Jennie (Mrs. Martin O'Brien), Rogersville. The funeral of the late D. J. Buckley was held from his late residence in Newcastle on Sunday afternoon Oct. 31st, at 3 o'clock. The C. M. B. A. and Knights of Columbus Societies, of which the late Mr. Buckley was a devoted member, attended with Major W. J. Duncan, as master of ceremonies. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen on the Miramichi and many friends of the deceased attended from Moncton, Chatham, Fredericton, Richibucto, Rogersville and other points in New Brunswick. The flowers were many and beautiful and were conveyed from the home to the grave by automobile. The pallbearers were, Mess. Wm. Sinclair, F. E. Neale, Cyril Creaghan, W. Maloney, Gerald O'Brien and Daniel Co'an. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE LORD MAYOR

Cork, Oct. 31—In the presence of surprised church dignitaries, scores of his former comrades volunteers and thousands of his countrymen, the body of Terence MacSwiney, late Lord Mayor of Cork, was lowered to its resting place in the "Republican Plot" in St. Finbarr's cemetery, just outside Cork, this afternoon. Despite the splendour lent the scene by the attendance of high churchmen, there was a simplicity marking the ceremonies that was impressive. Outside the ceremony hidden by the enormous crush of townspeople, two armored cars, their machine-guns ready and a half dozen lorries filled with fully equipped soldiers, were drawn up at the roadside, imparting a sinister air to the otherwise solemn proceedings. But during the transfer of the body from city hall through streets lined with people to St. Mary's cathedral and during the procession from the cathedral to the cemetery there was not an incident of violence or disturbance. The city of Cork and the whole countryside paid tribute to the memory of their newest martyr. The body was buried beside that of former Lord Mayor MacCurtain, who was assassinated. A few yards away are the graves of Joseph Murphy, who like MacSwiney died a hunger striker and of two other Irish Republican soldiers.

Chief Secretary For Ireland In Spirited Reply

London, Oct. 28—The incident of last night's debate in the House of Commons was the spirited reply by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, to Joseph Devlin, Nationalist M. P., who had spoken of the British administration as that of a Canadian secretary Sir Hamar declared that the empire history was one to be proud of and no part of the empire was more favorable to Home Rule. He regretted, and hoped every newspaper in Canada would repeat his statement, that the first Canadian in the position of chief secretary for Ireland had been attacked because he was a Canadian.

Presbyterian Papers Merge

Toronto, Oct. 26—The Presbyterian Witness, of Halifax, and the Presbyterian and Westminster, of Toronto are to be amalgamated and to form one church weekly, under the title of the Presbyterian Witness, to be published by the Presbyterians Publications, Toronto, according to a decision arrived here at an executive meeting of the General Board of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

History of Jutland Battle Published Early Next Summer

London, Oct. 27—In the House today it was stated that the proposal to publish an official account of the battle of Jutland has been abandoned. Information had been received from unofficial German sources throwing considerable light on the battle from a new angle. Any record based on British evidence, only therefore it was to be a one-sided version and would create a wrong impression of the battle. The whole of the matter also prepared by the Admiralty will be incorporated in Sir Judis Corbett's work under the authority of the committee of imperial defence which is to be published next year.

Liquor Fines of $3,000 Collected

Allan McLaughlin of Grand Falls and his sub-inspectors, Messrs. Melanson, Picard and Daigle, have been active again in Madawaska county during the past week. Several offenders against the prohibitory law have been taken before Magistrate Michaud at Edmundston, who assessed fines totalling more than $3,000. The inspectors have seized more than 300 gallons of liquor in the county at various points. It requires vigilance night and day in Madawaska to head off the individuals who endeavor to run in liquor from over the border in Quebec province. All the run-runners are not by any means residents of Madawaska county. Some are residents of Maine and others belong in Quebec. The inspectors in that section of this province have been more successful for some time in arresting the illegal liquor traffic than have the officers on the Maine side, where there is a much longer frontier to guard.
