Nine persons were seriously injured and several others slightly hurt when the westbound Canadian Pacific, train was derailed near Gleichen, fifty-five miles east of Calgary. The train, which was travelling fast, struck a broken rail.

Overgenerated and defeated with more than 100 soldiers killed the Mexican forces of General Luque are divided and cooped up in the towns of Oxtinca and Cochitillo Parado. The intercolony tonnage occupy every road leading into both towns, and will not permit provisions to be carried in.

Eight passengers, whose combined weight totalled 1,112 pounds, flew in a four seated Blériot monoplane over the Pau, France, Aerodrome. The monoplane was piloted by Lemaitre, who established a new record for the number of persons carried in a heavier than air machine.

The storms of last week were exceedingly severe along the line of the Intercolonial Railway. Snow-banks of enormous dimensions blocked traffic along the line. Many trains were stalled in the vicinity of St. Flavia. No worse snow storms have been experienced in thirty years.

Although we are in the grip of zero weather in these regions these days, all sections of the country are not in the same plight. Advises from the south-west indicate that at Guthrie, Oklahoma, on the 3rd., the thermometer registered 94 degrees, and at Dallas, Texas, on the same date the mercury ran up to 85 degrees.

Wind of the maximum velocity of 48 miles an hour struck Boston and vicinity on the 1st, and made much trouble. The wind caused one death. Fredk. Chandler was killed by a wall that was blown over. Signs, chimneys, trees, telephones and telegraph wires and men and women went down before the blast.

The Dominion Government has called for tenders for the construction of the ten new vessels of the Canadian navy, contemplated in the initial building programme, viz. four Bristol and six destroyers of the latest improved type. Plans and specifications are based on plans received from the Admiralty last fall, and embrace the very latest advances in naval science.

A cargo of dynamite, in transit from a freight car to a lighter moored at Communipaw (N. J.), exploded 150 yards South of Jersey City Terminal on the 2nd. Inst. and in the widespread ruins that followed, seven men are known to have been killed. Seven more are missing and hundreds were wounded. Thirty seems to be a conservative estimate of the dead, and the property damage will hardly fall below $750,000.

With one dead, two dying and seventy-three other persons in hospitals as the result of injuries received in falls, the blizzard which struck New York City Monday at noon was still raging yesterday.

A report reached Regina on the 1st that seven homesteaders in Kindersley district met death in a shack by suffocation. Six of the men went to pay a visit to a neighboring homesteader. A blizzard came up and they had to stay all night and next day all were found dead.

Twenty-two men were badly hurt yesterday when a can of hydrocarbon exploded, enveloping them in flames while they were engaged in thawing out the third rail of the Long Island Railroad, New York. Five of them are in a serious condition from burns.

Forty bodies have been washed ashore on the coast of Spain from the wrecks of ships which went to pieces in the recent storm which swept the coasts for three days. Coast patrols have reported that a score of vessels were wrecked in the gale and probably more than 100 have perished.

The latest reports of investigators indicate that fully 2,500 persons have been killed.

Sir Edward Grey's brother, George, had a thrilling escape from death on Sunday before last. He was with a party staking lions near the Athi River British East Africa, when he rashly galloped forward and fired. A large lion sprang at him and, seizing the hunter, worried him like a rat. Grey's friends came to his rescue, which was effected with difficulty. He was found to be badly managed. The nobleman has since died from the effects of his injuries. He was a cousin of his Excellency Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada.

The machinery of the National Grange Organization, claiming a membership of 1,000,000 farmers in thirty States has been started to defeat the motion by Congress of the Canadian Reciprocity agreement. A Legislative committee of the National Grange at a special meeting adopted a resolution protesting against the enactment of a Reciprocity Bill and called upon its members to exert pressure upon Congressmen from their districts to vote against the measure, and decided to go to Washington to map out a campaign there.

The annual statement of St. Dunstan's Cathedral building fund for 1910 read to the congregation on Sunday last, is as follows: The total amount collected during the year was $33,126.56, made up in this way: Private subscriptions $1,646.10; Sunday collections $3,857.16; Special subscriptions $100.00; bequests $1,500; Country parishes $1,203.30. The expenditure, including interest $1,549.57; rent to roof $90.16 and sidewalk $94.24; amounted to $1,727.97. This left a net balance in the fund of $6,378.58. This balance was applied to the reduction of the debt of $37,816.68. The debt balance remaining on the first day of this year is $31,437.00.

King George's speech at the opening of Parliament Monday was a brief one, referring to the Coronation, the Imperial Conference, and the Duke of Connaught's inauguration of the Parliament of South Africa and outlining a Legislative programme which will include the Veto Bill, and measures for dealing with the workmen's insurance, plural voting, payment of members of the House of Commons, and an amendment to the Alien Act as the outcome of the Boer War. The Government's immediate policy for dealing with the Lords is embodied in the Parliament Bill, commonly known as the "Veto Bill". It practically wipes out the power of the Upper House to kill legislation from the Commons by providing that any bill shall pass in the Commons passed to Lords for three successive sessions, and which has been three times rejected, or not disposed of.
