

Brussels.

The following interesting correspondence came two late for insertion last week:

Mr. Geo. Cooper has secured the Clerkship for the balance of the year, in place of Mr. D. Watson, resigned.

REMOVED.—Mr. A. R. Morris, tailor, who has disposed of his business to a Mr. Miller, of Cranbrook, left on Tuesday last and intends settling in Winnipeg.

Flax is coming in daily in large quantities. As much as eighty tons was brought in in one day. The crop is very good in this section, and prices range from $8 to $12 per ton.

We have two popular acquisitions to our town namely a shooting gallery and a canvass tent. The former teaches the young idea how to shoot, and the latter vividly displays the horrors of the London disaster.

The annual gathering in connection with the Caledonian Society, to be held in September 15th (the day following the Lucknow gathering) promises to eclipse anything of its kind ever held in the County.

Our lacrosse club played a friendly game with Clinton on the grounds of the latter last Tuesday. The Referee who did not understand correctly the rules of the game, decided in favor of Clinton; but according to the rules laid down the Brussels club claim the victory. The return match will be played sometime next week.

Lucknow.

During the past month Mr. John Treleaven of this village, purchased over $9,000 worth of butter, for which the highest cash price was paid.

Mr. Alex. Cameron of W. Wawanosh, brought to this office last week a root of oats which produced sixteen vines, all of which came to head, and were well filled.

NEW FIRM.—Mr. R. J. Whitely, the popular proprietor of the Whitely Hotel, has purchased Mr. Jas. Stewart's interest in the livery business of Miller & Stewart. The new firm will be Miller & Whitely.

NEW GALLERY.—Mr. E. L. Johnson, photographer, of Goderich, has come to reside amongst us. Mr. Johnson has leased the premises of Mr. Thos. Reid, which he is having fitted up to suit his purposes, and no doubt Mr. Johnson's reputation as a first class artist will soon secure him a large share of business.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday of last week, as Mr. John Jewitt, was engaged in carrying a bee hive across his garden, he slipped and fell to the ground with great force, breaking one of the small bones in his shoulder. He is now progressing favorably, and with the aid of a sling to support his arm, is able to be around again.

BACK AGAIN.—Mr. Geo. McHardy, after a two months trip through Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, returned on Monday last, much improved in health. Mr. McHardy is high in his praise of the Prairie Province, and thinks that at no distant day Manitoba will be the finest farming section in Canada. He invested heavily in lands, having purchased in the neighborhood of Crystal City, 640 acres, besides several smaller lots in different sections.

QUOTING.—Those present at the Gymnasium on Wednesday evening last, were rather more interested than usual, there being a friendly game of quoits between Mr. Chas. Walkinshaw, of Wingham, champion of Canada, and two of our local quoit pitchers. As Mr. Walkinshaw had not his own quoits, and never played by day, light before, the game resulted in favor of the latter. We understand that arrangements are being made for a match between the champion and Mr. W. Treleaven of this place, to come off at an early date.

OUR VILLAGE.—Almost every village in the country has felt the draw on its population from the immense emigration to the States and Manitoba, and our own village has rendered a very large share in proportion to the number of inhabitants. But at the present time there is a larger number of families and fewer empty houses, than have been for years. Business is not booming, but every one has a fair share, and a course of steady prosperity has settled down with a feeling of contentment, that we are not like some of the unfortunate places that we read about.—[Sentinel.]

It is the best remedy known for children or adults suffering from summer complaints.

Farmers and Mechanics.

If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides a no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from Spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—[Exch.—Sold by all druggists.]

THE WORLD OVER.

Inglis & Hunter of Guelph, have decided to remove their large foundry and machine shops to Toronto immediately.

Mrs. Wm. Scott, for twenty-five years a resident of Huron township, has been gathered to her long home. She was seventy years of age.

Sir Wm. Palisser paid a high compliment to American artillery officers, saying that their records of gun testing were by far the most complete in the world.

It is said that in canning fruit one pound of sugar stirred into the fruit after it is cooked and while yet warm, will make the fruit as sweet as two and a quarter pounds added while the fruit is boiling.

And now the doctors of Wellington have resolved to cease attending funerals at the head of the procession. The custom is a peculiar one certainly. Fine way of advertising one's business, you see.

Mr. Robert Collen, aged fifty-three, an old army pensioner, was found dead at his residence, St. Catharines, on Wednesday last (17th). He was subject to fits, and it is supposed he was stricken with one and died before assistance could reach him. Deceased served many years in the regular army.

Patrick Moore was arrested at St. Catharines on Wednesday night, charged with victimizing many Roman Catholics there and elsewhere by professing to sell a Douay Bible for one dollar, worth fifteen dollars. He alleged Bishop Lynch, of Toronto, had a large stock on hand which he wanted to get rid of, and had deputed Moore as his agent.

The foreman of a boiler manufactory in Montreal, named McKeil, was placed on board a foreign ship on Friday night, by "crimps," while drunk, as a sailor. When he came to his senses he demanded to be released, but was refused. He then deserted, but was subsequently arrested. The matter was finally compromised by McKeil providing a substitute.

Some time on Wednesday afternoon James Kennedy, a knitter by trade, died very suddenly at Galt. It appears he was picked up on Main street bridge in an unconscious condition and removed to his boarding house, where he died. It is said he had been drinking hard for several days, and sustained an injury by falling out of a buggy.

A banquet was given ex-Secretary Everts, at London, on Thursday night, at the Conservative Club, by Puleston, M. P. Many distinguished persons were present. Puleston spoke of the gloom the President's relapse caused throughout England, and expressed a fervent hope for his recovery. He thought after Garfield's convalescence the net results of Guitau's crime would not be altogether unfortunate, as it has brought into strong relief the great sympathy of England for America, and strengthened the ties between the two countries.

A citizen of Mr. Clement named Frank Moore went out crow hunting early one morning. His wife, who had just finished breakfast, was kneeling down saying her morning prayers when he returned, and Moore, entering the door, was dragging the loaded gun behind him. The door swung shut, striking the hammer of the gun and discharging the piece, the whole load taking effect in one of Mrs. Moore's legs. The wound is a very painful one, but not necessarily serious. Moore says he was more scared than his wife.

King Theebaw, of Burmah, had a narrow escape from death by poison. One of his royal consorts sent him some dainty confectionery, with a message that she had prepared the toothsome gift with her own fair hands. Theebaw transferred the cakes to a mother-in-law, the parent of the very queen from whom he had received them. The august lady partook freely. Two hours after doing so she was a corpse, and her daughter did not survive her long. For Theebaw, as soon as his mother-in-law's demise was made known to him, gave orders that her majesty's head should be removed from her shoulders without an instant's delay.

The elder Mrs. Garfield was greatly cheered and comforted by the letter which her wounded son sent to her last week. The letter which has appeared in the Cleveland Leader, runs thus:—"DEAR MOTHER:—Don't be disturbed by conflicting reports about my condition. It is true I am still weak and on my back, but I am gaining every day, and need only time and patience to bring me through. Give my love to all the relatives and friends, and especially to sisters Hitty and Mary. Your loving son, JAMES A. GARFIELD."

A VILLANOUS DEED.—Willie Cartrell, aged thirteen, son of the Section Superintendent of the Indianapolis, Baltimore and Western Railway, was on Tuesday, tied by an unknown man to the rails, and struck by the train at Pekin, Ill. His ribs were broken, and foot mangled. As soon as the train passed the ruffian ran to the boy, evidently expecting to find him cut in two, but the lad had twisted himself to one side. The man cut the rope and escaped. The boy was found in a ditch moaning piteously. Several parties are hunting for the brute, with the intention of lynching him.
